OBSERVATIONS.

STATUTABLE CONGREGATIONS.—One upon the last day of each Term; two on the 10th day of October; one on the 3d, and one on the 4th of November; two on the day after the second Tripos; two on the 11th of June.

The Divinity, Law, and Physic Schools are open during the whole of every Term, and the keeping of all Acts, except the former which are confined to every other Thursday, is entirely at the discretion of the respective Professors.

All Festivals, Saints' days, and Sundays, are surplice-days, and the evening preceding are surplice-evenings; but on May 29, June 20, and November 5, surplices are worn in the morning only.

On Litany days the Doctors and Noblemen wear their robes, and the Proctors their congregation-ruffs.

Commemoration of Benefactors is at St Peter's, Clare, Pembroke, Caius, Queens', Catharine, Jesus, Christ's, and St John's Colleges, the day after the end of each Term, on which occasion there is a feast in the several college-halls.

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE.

DEUM TIMETO: REGEM HONORATO: VIRTUTEM COLITO: DISCIPLINIS BONIS OPERAM DATO.

Stat. Acad. Cantab.

Introduction.

THE UNIVERSITY of CAMBRIDGE is a society of students in all and every of the liberal arts and sciences, incorporated (13th Eliz. c. 29,) by the name of "The Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge." The frame of this little commonwealth standeth upon the union of seventeen colleges, or societies, devoted to the study of learning and knowledge, and for the better service of the Church and State. All these colleges,* or halls, have been founded since the beginning of the reign of King Edward I.† and are maintained by the endowments of their several founders and benefactors. Each college is a body corporate, bound by its own statutes; but is likewise controlled by the paramount laws of the University. The present University statutes were given by Queen Elizabeth in the 12th year of her reign, and, with the former privileges, were sanctioned by Parliament. They are the foundation upon which all new laws are framed.

Each of the seventeen departments or colleges, in this literary republic, furnishes members both for the executive and legislative branch of its government. The place of Assembly is the Senate-house.

All persons who are ‡Masters of Arts, or Doctors in one or other of the three faculties, viz. Divinity, The Civil Law, or Physic, having their names upon the college-boards, holding any University Office, or being resident in the town of Cambridge, have votes in this assembly. The number of those who have a title to the appellation of Members of the Senate, is at present about two thousand six hundred. Those who erase their names from their respective college-boards, lose the privilege of being Members of the Senate, unless they re-enter their names, and reside the greater part of three several Terms.

* Colleges and Halls are synonymous here, though not so at Oxford. Thus Clare Hall is called "Collegium sive Domus, sive Aula de Clare."

† The first authentic charter is said to be dated 45 Henry III. and to be found among the records in the Tower.

‡ Those Bachelors in Divinity who are Members of the Senate, deduce their privilege from having previously taken the degree of M.A.

The SENATE is divided into two Houses, denominated the Regents and Non-Regents House, with a view to some particular duties allotted to the members of the Regents House, by the statutes of the University.

Masters of Arts of less than five years' standing, and Doctors of less than two, compose the Regent, or Upper House; or, as it is otherwise called, the White-Hood House, from its members wearing their hoods lined with white silk. All the rest constitute the Non-Regent, or Lower House; otherwise called the Black-Hood House, its members wearing black silk hoods. But Doctors of more than two years' standing, and the Public Orator of the University, may vote in either House, according to their pleasure.

Besides the two Houses, there is a Council called the Caput, chosen annually upon the 12th of October, by which every University Grace must be approved, before it can be introduced to the Senate.

The CAPUT consists of the Vice-Chancellor, a Doctor in each of the faculties, Divinity, The Civil Law, and Physic, and two Masters of Arts, who are the representatives of the Regent and Non-Regent Houses. The Vice-Chancellor is a member of the Caput by virtue of his office. The election of the other members of this Council is effected in the following manner:—The Vice-Chancellor and the two Proctors severally nominate five persons properly qualified for the trust, and out of the fifteen, the heads of Colleges, Doctors, and Scrutators, choose five. In general, the Vice-Chancellor's list is honoured with the appointment: and in case any member thus appointed should afterwards be chosen Vice-Chancellor, or should die, the vacancy in the Caput is not filled up by election, but the senior in the same faculty present in the congregation supplies his place.

A few days before the beginning of each Term, the Vice-Chancellor publishes a list of the several days on which a Congregation or assembly of the Senate will be held for transacting University business; these fixed days occur about once a fortnight; but in case of emergency, the Vice-Chancellor summons a Congregation for the dispatch of extraordinary affairs. This is done by means of a printed notice, specifying the Graces to be brought forward, which is exhibited in the halls of the several colleges two days before the time of assembly. Any number of members of the Senate, being not less than twenty-five, including the proper officers, (or their legal deputies,) who, by virtue of their oaths, are obliged to be present, constitutes a Congregation, and may proceed to business. There are also Statutable Congregations, or days of assembling, enjoined by the statutes, for the ordinary routine of University affairs, such as conferring degrees, electing officers, &c. for which no notice is required. A Congregation may also be held ithout three days' previous notice, provided at least forty Mem-ers of the Senate be present at its first assembling, and twenty-ve at the second. Previous to every Congregation the University ell rings for the space of one hour. Every member has a right o present any proposition, or Grace, to the consideration of the enate; but previously to its being voted upon by the two Houses, is to be read and approved by the Council, or Caput, each mem-er of which has a negative voice. After a Grace has passed the aput, it is read in the Non-Regent House by the Senior Scruta-or; and also in the Regent House by the Senior Proctor; and he Congregation is prorogued by the Vice Chancellor. It is read n like manner at the second Congregation; and if a non-placet is ut in by a member of the Non-Regent House, it is there voted; nd in case the number of non-placets is equal to, or exceeds that f the placets, the Grace is thrown out, and can proceed no further: ut if the placets exceed the non-placets, it is carried up into the egent House, and there undergoes the same process; and if it asses through both Houses, it is considered a regular act of the enate; and if the subject be of a public nature, it becomes a tatute.

We have selected, as a specimen, the following Grace, which assed Feb. 28, 1806:—

"Cum tempora, quibus hactenus haberi solita est Matriculatio, su comperta sint incommoda, et propter hanc atque alias causas, psa Matriculatio ab Alumnis cœperit prætermitti;

"Placeat Vobis, ut in posterum, pro die insequente cujusque ter-ini finem, dies instituatur ad Matriculationem peragendam qui el proxime vel uno interjecto sequatur mediam termini cujusque artem: Atque ut iis, qui post decimum Octobris diem, Anno Domini illesimo octingentesimo quinto, intra Academiam per tres terminos ommorati, non matriculati fuerint, nullus omnino computetur ter-inus, nisi ab illo die, in quo Matriculationem rite perfercerint."

An assembly of the Senate held out of Term-time is called a Convocation: in such a case a Grace is immediately passed to onvert the Convocation into a Congregation, after which the usiness proceeds in the ordinary manner.

No degree is ever conferred without a Grace for that purpose, which undergoes the same scrutiny and process as above related; hose for Bachelors of Arts, Honorary degrees, and Masters of rts of King's college, excepted, which require reading at one Congregation only. After the Grace has passed, the Vice-Chan-ellor is at liberty to confer the degree. A Grace in this instance s termed a Supplicat. It is signed by the Prælector of the college o which the candidate belongs, and the subscriber is made re-sponsible for the assertion it contains. The penalty for subscribing a false Supplicat, is "ipso facto," two years deprivation of the rivilege of voting in the Senate, or holding any public office in he University. Lib. Stat. p. 234.

Form of a SUPPLICAT for the degree of M.A.

Col.. ...., 5to Aprilis, 18

"Supplicat Reverentiis vestris A. B. ut novem termini completi post finalem ejus Determinationem, in quibus ordinarias lectiones audiverit, (licet non omnino secundum formam Statuti) una cum omnibus oppositionibus, responsionibus, disputationibus, declamationibus, cæterisque exercitiis per Statuti Regia requisitis, sufficiant ei ad incipiendum in Artibus."

"C. D. Prælector."

For every other degree there is a proper form.

The University confers no degree whatever, unless the Candidate has previously subscribed a declaration that he is bonâ fide a member of the Church of England, as by law established.*

There are different modes of Election prescribed by the Statutes of the University, or by the conditions of particular foundations: the three following are the principal:

1. By Grace: Where a Grace nominating a particular candidate is offered to the Caput, and passed through the two Houses, as in the case of Graces relating to the ordinary business of the University: if there are more Candidates than one, separate Graces may be offered, of which one only is supposed to pass: if no Grace is passed, then there is no election. The High Steward of the University, and two or three Professors are elected by Grace.

2. More Burgensium; or by the mode adopted in the election of the Representatives of the University in Parliament: every member of the Senate, whether Regent or Non-Regent, writes down upon paper the name of the candidate he votes for, and his own, in the following form; (Ego A.B. eligo C.D. in...(Burgensem hujus Academiæ in Parliamento): these papers are presented to the Vice-Chancellor and certain Scrutineers: and the candidate in whose favour the greatest number of votes are given, is elected. The Chancellor of the University, and some Professors are elected in this manner: the same mode is adopted in the nomination to benefices in the gift of the University.

3. By Nomination; where the Heads of Houses, or their legal deputies, nominate two candidates on the morning preceding the final election: on the following day, the members of the Senate at large choose one of the two candidates nominated, more burgensium.

The Vice Chancellor, the Public Orator, Registrary, Librarian, and most of the officers of the University, are chosen in this manner.

The executive branch of the University, is committed to the following officers:—

* This suffices for B.A., M.B., and B.C.L.; but for other degrees it is necessary that persons should subscribe to the 36th Canon of the Church of England, inserted in the Registrary's Book.

A CHANCELLOR, who is the head of the whole University, and resides over all cases relating to that body. In him is placed the ple executive authority within the precincts, except in matters of ayhem and felony. He seals the diplomas and letters of degrees, ovisions, &c., given by the University. He is to preserve and efend its rights and privileges, to convoke assemblies, and to do stice among the members under his jurisdiction.

A HIGH STEWARD, who has special power to take the trial of holars impeached of felony within the *limits of the University, d to hold and keep a leet according to the established charter id custom. He appoints a Deputy by Letters Patent, which are nfirmed by a Grace of the Senate.

A VICE-CHANCELLOR, who is elected annually on the 4th of ovember, by the Senate. His office, in the absence of the Chanllor, embraces the execution of the Chancellor's powers, and the vernment of the University, according to her statutes. He must, an order of the Heads made in 1587, be the Head of some llege; and during his continuance in office he acts as a magisate for the University, Town and County.

A COMMISSARY, who is an officer under the Chancellor, and ppointed by him. He holds a court of record for all privileged rsons and scholars under the decree of M.A. In this court, all uses are tried and determined by the civil and statute law, and the custom of the University. He also is allowed a Deputy.

A PUBLIC ORATOR, who is the voice of the Senate upon all ublic occasions. He writes, reads, and records the letters to and om the body of the Senate, and presents to all honorary degrees ith an appropriate speech. This is esteemed one of the most nourable offices in the gift of the University.

The ASSESSOR is an officer specially appointed, by Grace of the nate, to assist the Vice-Chancellor in his court, in causis forensiis et domesticis.

Two PROCTORS, who are peace-officers, elected annually. It is eir especial duty to attend to the discipline and behaviour of all rsons in statu pupillari, to search houses of ill fame, and to take to custody women of loose and abandoned character, and even ose de malo suspectæ. Another part of their duty is to be prent at all Congregations of the Senate, to stand in scrutiny with e Chancellor or Vice-Chancellor to take the open suffrages of e House, both by word and writing, to read them, and to prounce the assent or dissent accordingly; to read the Graces in e Regent-House, to take secretly the assent or dissent, and enly to pronounce the same. They must be Masters of Arts of o years' standing at the least; and, of whatever standing in the niversity, are Regents, by virtue of their office. They determine e seniority of all Masters of Arts at the annual commencement.

A Librarian, to whom the regulation and management of the University Library is confided.

A Registrary, who is obliged, either by himself, or by deputy properly authorized, to attend all Congregations, to give directions (if it be required) for the due form of such Graces as are to be propounded, to receive them when passed in both Houses, and to register them in the University records. To register also the seniority of such as proceed yearly in any of the arts and faculties, according to the schedules delivered unto him by the Proctors.

Two Taxors, who must be Masters of Arts, and are Regents by virtue of their office. They are appointed to regulate the markets, to examine the assize of bread, the lawfulness of weights and measures, and to call all abuses and defects thereof into the Commissary's court.

Two Scrutators, who are non-Regents, and whose duty it is to attend all Congregations, to read the Graces in the Lower House, to gather the votes secretly, or to take them openly in scrutiny, and publicly to pronounce the assent or dissent of that House.

Two Moderators, nominated by the Proctors, and appointed by a Grace of the Senate. They act as the Proctors' substitutes in the Philosophical Schools, superintending the exercises and disputations in philosophy, and the examinations for the degree of Bachelor of Arts. They are also generally appointed Deputies in the absence of the Proctors.

Two Pro-Proctors, who are appointed, in consequence of the increasing magnitude of the University, to assist the Proctors in that part of their duty which relates to the discipline and behaviour of those persons who are in statu pupillari, and the preservation of public morals; but in the other parts of the Proctors' office they have not any concern, or control.

Three Esquire Bedells, whose office is to attend the Vice-Chancellor, whom they precede with their silver maces upon all public occasions and solemnities; to attend the Doctors present in the Regent House, by bringing them to open scrutiny, there to deliver their suffrages either by word or writing, according to the order of the statutes; to receive from the Vice-Chancellor and the rest of the Caput, the Graces delivered unto them, and to deliver them first to the Scrutators in the Lower House, and from thence, if they be granted, to carry them to the Proctors in the Upper House; to attend the Professors and Respondents in the three faculties from their colleges to the Schools, and during the continuance of the several acts; to collect fines and penalties from all members of the University; and to summon to the Chancellor's Court all members of the Senate.

The University Printer, the Library Keeper, the Under-Library Keeper, and the School Keeper, are elected by the Senate, from two candidates previously nominated by the Heads of Houses.

The YEOMAN BEDELL is appointed by Letters Patent under the hand and seal of the Chancellor.

The UNIVERSITY MARSHAL is appointed by Letters Patent under the hand and seal of the Vice-Chancellor.

There are two Courts of Law in this University, viz. the Consistory Court of the Chancellor and the Consistory Court of the Commissary.

THE CONSISTORY COURT OF THE CHANCELLOR.

IN this Court the Chancellor, and in his absence the Vice-Chancellor, with the assistance of some of the Heads of Colleges, and one Doctor or more of the Civil Law, administers justice desired by any member of the University, or by any requiring the same to be put in execution against any of that body, in matters and causes belonging to this court.

All pleas and actions personal, as of debts, accounts, contracts, &c., or of any other injury (begun or grown within the limits of the University,) whereunto a privileged person is a party, and not concerning mayhem and felony, are solely to be here heard and decided.

The manner of the proceeding is according to the course of the civil law, viz. by citation, libel, &c.

In matters of delict (arising from the buying of victual or victualling, or from the trial of victual), the Chancellor, in his proceeding and judgment, receiveth direction from the law given to the University by charter, or from the customs of the University, and from the statutes of the land where the charters and customs are wanting. In this proceeding he is authorized by a charter, confirmed by Act of Parliament.

From the judgment of this court there lies an apeal unto the Senate, who commit the examination thereof to certain delegates (either Doctors, or Masters of Arts,) being three at the least, and not more than five, with a power either to reverse or to ratify the appeal.

THE CONSISTORY COURT OF THE COMMISSARY.

IN this Court the Commissary doth, by authority given him by deputation under the seal of the Chancellor of the University, sit, as well in the University, as at Midsummer and Stourbridge fairs, there to take knowledge, and to proceed in all causes ad instantiam et promotionem partis ut supra, the parties, or one of them, being privileged; saving, that within the University all causes and suits whereunto the Proctors or Taxors, or any of them, or a Master of Arts, or any other of superior degree, is a party, are reserved solely and wholly to the jurisdiction of the Chancellor, or Vice-Chancellor.

The manner of proceeding in this, is the same as in the other court, where the Chancellor himself, or the Vice-Chancellor presideth; being for the service thereof attended by the Registrary and the Yeoman Bedell, and having procurators and advocates there to plead, as in the other court required.

The party aggrieved is, by the statute, allowed his appeal unto the Chancellor's court, and so from thence to the Delegates, if the cause and grief of the party render such an application necessary.

The Two Members, whom the University sends to the Imperial Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, are chosen by the collective body of the Senate.

The University Counsel are appointed by Grace of the Senate, and are consulted upon various occasions.

The Solicitor is appointed by the Vice-Chancellor.

Syndics are the members of special committees of members of the Senate, appointed by Grace from time to time for specific duties, such as the framing of laws, regulating fees, inspecting the library, buildings, printing, &c.

The Professors are paid from various sources: many of them have ancient stipends, which were considerable at the period at which they were fixed, but which have become inadequate from the diminished value of money; to some professorships foundation estates are attached, and to the Regius and Lady Margaret's professorships of Divinity the impropriate rectories of Somersham and Terrington: the others are paid by stipends from the Privy Purse, or by Government, one of them receiving £400., another £200., and the rest £100. per annum.

The Annual Income of the University arises from various sources, of which the following are the principal:

The rectory of Burwell and a farm at Barton, producing about £1000. per annum.

The produce of fees at matriculation, for degrees, cautions for certain academical exercises for degrees, and other irregular sources of income not easily enumerated, the gross amount of which is very variable, but does not average more than £2000. per annum.

The trading profits of the Pitt [University] Press, which have seldom been very considerable. Large sums of money have lately been expended in the extension and improvement of the printing establishment; and adequate returns for the capital thus invested can be expected only from a prosperous business for many years. Under these circumstances, we are unable to give any average amount of profits arising from the Pitt Press.

After what has been stated, it will be seen that the entire income of the University is a matter of uncertainty.

The necessary expenditure of the University for payment of officers and servants (who are not paid by specific fees) for exnses of examinations, the Observatory, for repairs of buildings, r maintenance of collections, &c. &c., does not average less an £4500. In later years the actual expenditure has greatly ceeded the average income, in consequence of a great outlay for e Observatory, Anatomical and other Museums and Lecture ooms, for the Printing Press and other important and most cessary academical objects: this extraordinary expenditure has most entirely exhausted the funded and available capital of the niversity.

In the preceding statement of the ordinary income and expendi-re of the University, no account has been taken of the amount of es paid to the Bedells, Proctors, Moderators, Pro-proctors, their rvants, the Registrary, amounting to about £2400. per annum, which these officers are entirely paid; nor of the Library tax f 6*s.* per annum upon every member of the University), which appropriated entirely to the purchase of books for the Public brary; nor of various trust funds, appropriated to specific objects, er the distribution of which the University possesses no control.

The whole of the funds of the University are managed by the ce-Chancellor, or by specific Trustees, and the accounts are ex-ained annually by three Auditors, who are appointed annually by e Senate.

The STATUTES of the University were printed in 1785, and a py of them may be found in the Public Library, in the Library every college, and in the Senate-House: the Vice-Chancellor and e two Proctors for the time being have also each one.

Graces of the Senate possess generally the force of Statutes: but Grace of the Senate is considered valid which is inconsistent th the Statutes of the 12th of Elizabeth, and certain nearly temporary interpretations of them: or with King's Letters which ve been accepted and acted upon by the University.

The TERMS of this University are three, and are fixed by inva-able rules. Michaelmas, or October, Term begins on the 10th of ctober, and ends on the 16th of December. Lent, or January, rm begins on the 13th of January, and ends on the Friday before lm Sunday. Easter, or Midsummer, Term begins on the ele-nth day (the Wednesday se'nnight) after Easter-day, and ends the Friday after Commencement-day. Commencement-day is ways the first Tuesday in July.

When any member of the Senate dies within the University ring Term, on application to the Vice-Chancellor, the University ll rings for one hour: from which period non-term, as to public tures and disputations only, commences for three days.

If any member of the Senate change his college, twenty-four urs only are allowed for that purpose; if he exceed that time must again keep three terms, before he can be reinstated as member, or qualified to vote.

The seventeen Colleges which constitute this University were founded by different individuals: all the founders enjoin the cultivation of religion, in the first place, and next to that, polite literature and the sciences; all which combined are to set forth the glory of God in his works of Creation and Redemption. The statutes of some of the colleges require the Fellows to be born in England—in particular counties, districts, &c. The Fellowships at Clare Hall, Trinity, Sidney, Downing, are open to all the Queen's subjects, wherever born: the foundation Fellowships of St John's Jesus, and Trinity Hall, are generally open to all persons born in England and Wales; and those in the other colleges nearly so.

"Whosoever hath one English Parent, although he be born in another country, shall be esteemed as if born in that county to which his English Parent belonged. But if both Parents were English, he shall be reckoned of that county to which his Father belonged." Stat. Acad. p. 268.

The respective Orders in the several Colleges are as follow:

1. A HEAD of a College or House, who is generally a Doctor in Divinity; excepting of Trinity-Hall, Caius College, and Downing College, where they may be Doctors in the Civil Law or Physic. The Head of King's is styled Provost; of Queens', President; all the rest, Master.

2. FELLOWS, who generally are Doctors in Divinity, the Civil Law, or Physic; Bachelors in Divinity; Masters or Bachelors of Arts; some few Bachelors in The Civil Law or Physic, as at Trinity-Hall and Caius College. The number of Fellowships in the University is 430.

3. NOBLEMEN GRADUATES, DOCTORS in the several faculties, BACHELORS IN DIVINITY (who have been Masters of Arts), and MASTERS OF ARTS, who are not on the foundation, but whose names are kept on the boards for the purpose of being members of the Senate. The expense of keeping the name upon the boards varies in different colleges from about £2 to about £4 per annum.

4. TEN YEAR MEN; these are allowed to take the degree of Bachelor in Divinity without having been B.A. or M.A., by the 9th statute of Queen Elizabeth, which permits persons, who are admitted at any college when 24 years of age and upwards, to take the degree of Bachelor in Divinity after their names have remained on the boards ten years or more. After the first eight years, they must reside in the University the greater part of three several terms, and perform the exercises which are required by the statutes.

5. BACHELORS in The CIVIL LAW and PHYSIC, who sometimes keep their names upon the boards till they become Doctors. They wear the habits, and enjoy all the ordinary privileges of Masters of Arts, except that of voting in the Senate.

6. BACHELORS OF ARTS, who are in statu pupillari, and pay for tuition whether resident or not, and generally keep their names on the boards, either to shew their desire to offer themselves can-dates for fellowships, or to become members of the Senate. If they erase their names, they save the expense of tuition and college crimenta; and may nevertheless take the degree of M.A. at the usual period, by putting their names on the college boards a few days previous to incepting: but under such circumstances they cannot become members of the Senate, unless they reside again during the greater part of three several terms.

7. Fellow-Commoners, who are generally the younger sons of the nobility, or young men of fortune, and have the privilege of dining at the Fellows' table, from whence the appellation originated.

8. Scholars, who are generally foundation members of their respective colleges, and who enjoy various advantages; in some cases they have their commons paid for, their chambers rent free, and various weekly or other allowances: in other cases they have specific stipends only, in conformity with the conditions of their foundation. They are for the most part elected, by direct examination or otherwise, at different periods subsequent to the commencement of their residence at the University, from the most promising and distinguished of the students.

9. Pensioners, who form the great body of the students, who pay for their commons, chambers, &c. and enjoy generally no pecuniary advantages from their respective colleges.

10. Sizars are generally students of very limited means. They usually have their commons free, and receive various emoluments.

TERMS AND EXERCISES

THE METHOD OF PROCEEDING TO THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARTS.

In order to take this degree at the regular time, the person must be admitted of some college before the end of the Easter term of the year in which he purposes to come into residence. The mode of admission is, either, by a personal examination before the Tutor and some of the college officers, or, which is more usual, by sending to the Tutor a recommendatory certificate, signed by some Master of Arts of this University, stating the name, age, qualifications, &c. &c. of the candidate, and transmitting with it the usual caution money. If this certificate be considered satisfactory, the admission takes place, and the person's name is immediately entered on the boards which are suspended in the butteries of the several colleges. The person thus admitted, usually comes to residence about the 20th of October following, and then commences his academical career*.

Besides a constant attendance on lectures, the Undergraduates are examined in their respective colleges yearly, or half-yearly, in those subjects which have engaged their studies; and, according to the manner in which they acquit themselves in these examinations, their names are arranged in classes, and those who obtain the honour of a place in the first class receive, according to merit, prizes of different value.

By this mode of procedure the Students are prepared for those public Examinations and Exercises which the University requires of all candidates for degrees. The first, viz., the Previous Examination, takes place in the Lent and October Terms of the second year from that in which a student commences his academical residence, according to the following plan, confirmed by Grace of the Senate.

PLAN FOR THE PREVIOUS EXAMINATION.

1. That the subjects of the Examination shall be one of the four Gospels in the original Greek, Paley's Evidences of Christianity, one of the Greek and one of the Latin Classics.

2. That the appointment of the particular Gospel, and in regard to the classical subjects, the appointment both of the authors and of the portions of their works which it may be expedient to select, shall rest with the Vice-Chancellor for the time being, the three Regii Professors of Divinity, the Civil Law, and Physic, the Regius Professor of Greek, and the Public Orator (provided that not more than two of them are members of the same College); upon this clear understanding, that in the exercise of the powers thus to be vested in them, they shall so limit the examination, that every one who is to be examined may be reasonably expected to shew a competent knowledge of all the subjects.

3. That in case three or more of those to whom the appointment of the subjects of examination has been assigned shall belong to the same College, deputies for any number exceeding two shall be appointed, every year, by a Grace of the Senate.

4. That every person when examined shall be required: (1) to translate some portion of each of the subjects appointed as aforesaid; (2) to construe and explain passages of the same; and (3) to answer printed questions relating to the Evidences of Christianity.

5. That previously to the commencement of the Examination, the Examiners shall prepare an alphabetical list of all the persons to be examined, and divide them into equal portions, according to the number of days of examination: and that they shall send a copy of such list to the Prælector of each College, notifying the day on which each of the persons to be examined belonging to that College shall be required to attend the Examination.

6. That the Examination shall begin on the Monday in the week before the end of the Lent Term in each year.

7. That each of the persons to be examined shall be required to attend from 8 till 11 in the morning, and from 12 till 3 in the afternoon on the day of which he has previously received notice.

8. That the persons to be examined each day shall be formed into two divisions; that each of these divisions shall be examined in the Greek subject by two of the Examiners, and in the Latin subject by the other two during the morning; and that the Greek Testament and Paley's Evidences shall be the subjects of examination in the afternoon.

9. That the days of Examination shall be Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday, in the first week, and Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday in the following week.

10. That the persons under examination shall be employed in translating the passages or answering the printed questions proposed, each individual being called upon in turn, during the time of examination, to construe and explain passages of the appointed subjects.

11. That the examination of each individual shall be concluded in one day, and that the result shall be notified as soon as conveniently may be to the Prælector of each College.

12. That every Undergraduate shall be required to attend the Examination in the Lent Term of the year next but one after that in which he has kept his first Term.[1]

13. That two classes (each of them arranged alphabetically) shall be formed out of those examined—the first consisting of those who have passed their examination with credit—and the second, of those to whom the Examiners have only not refused their certificate of approval.

14. That in case any one shall be prevented by illness, or any other sufficient cause, from attending the proper Examination of his year, a certificate of such illness or other cause shall be submitted by the Tutor of his College to the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors for the time being, for their approbation in writing.

15. That if any one shall absent himself from the proper Examination of his year, without the written approval of the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors, he shall not be allowed the Lent Term of that year.

16. That there shall be a second Examination in the same subjects, and by the same Examiners, commencing on the second Monday in the Michaelmas Term of each year, for those who have been absent with the approval of the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors from the preceding Lent Examination, and for those who have not been approved by the Examiners at that Examination.

17. That those who shall not have been approved at either the Lent or October Examination of their year, or who shall have been absent from both those Examinations, shall be required to attend the Lent Examination of the following year, subject to the same conditions as before: and that no degree of B.A., M.B., or LL.B.,

[1] For example, a Student who has kept the Michaelmas Term 1840 is required to attend the Previous Examination in the Lent Term of 1842. It is a matter of indifference, as far as concerns the Previous Examination, whether he keeps the intermediate Terms or not. If he should absent himself from the University from the end of Michaelmas Term 1840 till the Lent Term 1842, he is required to attend the Previous Examination in that Term (though only his second of actual residence), under penalty of losing the Term. In the same way if he should absent himself till the Lent Term 1843, he is required to attend the Previous Examination in that Term, under penalty of losing the Term.

shall be granted, unless a certificate be presented to the Caput, shewing that the candidate for such degree has passed, to the satisfaction of the Examiners, some one of these Examinations.

18. That public notice of these subjects of examination in each year shall be issued in the first week of the Lent Term of the year preceding.

19. That in every year, at the first Congregation after the 10th day of October, the Senate shall elect four Examiners, (who shall be members of the Senate, and nominated by the several Colleges according to the cycle of Proctors, and Taxors,) to conduct the Lent and October Examinations of the succeeding year.

20. That each of the Examiners shall receive £20. from the University Chest.

21. That two of the Proctor's men shall be in attendance each day on the Examiners.

22. That the foregoing Regulations shall not interfere with the composition between the University and King's College

The Student having passed this preparatory step, has next to perform the usual exercises required by the Statutes for the second, or B.A. examination. A Bachelor of Arts must have resided the greater part of twelve several terms, the first and last excepted. The statutable exercises before admission ad Respondendum Quæstioni, are two acts and two opponencies; these in part are sometimes dispensed with, and kept by what is termed huddling.

EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARTS.

In consequence of the great increase in the number of Students in the University, this Examination, which hitherto occupied five, is now extended over twelve days. The Moderators having formed the Questionists (this being the appellation of the Students during the last six weeks of preparation) into two alphabetical lists, of Candidates for Honors, and Questionists not Candidates for Honors, these lists are exhibited at Messrs Deighton's shop, previously to the Examination Day.

On the Monday morning preceding the first Monday in the Lent Term, the Candidates for Honors[1] enter the Schools a little before nine o'clock: the other Questionists enter the Senate-House on the following Wednesday morning at the same hour, preceded by a Master of Arts, who, on this occasion, is styled the Father of the college to which he belongs[2].

1 In the January of 1849 the Master and Fellows of Trinity College allowed the use of their Lecture Rooms for the Examination of the Candidates for Honors.

2 The Questionists are required to pay their fees to the Registrary and the Junior Proctor on the Friday or Saturday preceding the first day of examination in January.

The examination of those who contend for HONORS then commences, according to the following NEW REGULATIONS, confirmed by Grace of the Senate, (June 2, 1838.)

Plan of Examination for Questionists who are Candidates for Honors.

That there be six days of Examination, commencing on the Monday preceding the first Monday in Lent Term.

That the same questions be proposed throughout the examination to all the persons whom the Moderators shall judge, from the public exercises in the Schools, to be qualified for examination as Candidates for Mathematical Honors:

That the Examination on the first day extend only to such parts of Pure Mathematics and Natural Philosophy, as do not require the methods of the Differential Calculus;

That on the second and third days the Questions from books include, in addition to the above subjects, the parts of Natural Philosophy somewhat more advanced, and the simpler applications of the Calculus;

That on the fourth and fifth days the Examination extend to subjects of greater difficulty, care however being taken that there be in each paper a due proportion of Questions selected from the lower subjects:

That on the sixth day all the Questions proposed be selected from the higher parts of the subjects of Examination;

That there be not contained in any Paper more Questions than Students well prepared have generally been found able to answer within the time allowed for that Paper;

That during the Examination the distribution of the Candidates in the Examination Rooms be left to the discretion of the Moderators:

That the days and hours of Examination be arranged according to the subjoined Plan:

That the Questions proposed on the first four days be fixed upon, and the answers to them examined, by the Moderators and Examiners according to the Plan;

That the Questions proposed on the last two days be fixed upon by the Moderators and Examiners in common; but that the duty of examining the answers to those Questions be apportioned amongst the Moderators and Examiners according to the Plan:

That the result of the Examination be published in the Senate-House on the morning of the Friday succeeding the first Monday in Lent Term, at 9 o'clock; but if it should happen that the relative merits of any of the Candidates are not then determined to the satisfaction of the Moderators and Examiners, that such Candidates be re-examined on that day.

On two pillars at the entrance of the Senate-House are hung the two Lists of the Questionists, one of the Candidates for Honors, and the other of the πολλοι, and a paper denoting the hours of examination, of which the following is a copy:

PLAN OF EXAMINATION, JANUARY 1840.

15. That two of these Examiners shall confine themselves to the Classical subjects, and two to Paley's Moral Philosophy and the Acts of the Apostles.

16. That the two Examiners in the Mathematical Subjects, at the Examination in January, be as hitherto the Moderators of the year next but one preceding: and that at the other three Examinations the Moderators for the time being examine in the Mathematical Subjects.

In order to check the practice of Degrading, which has, of late years, been so frequent, a Syndicate was appointed to take the same into consideration, and they made the following Report, which was confirmed by Grace of the Senate, Feb. 27, 1829.

1.—That no person who has degraded, be permitted to become a Candidate for University Scholarships or any other Academical Honors during his Undergraduateship, or for Honors in the Mathematical Tripos, unless he shall previously have obtained special permission for so doing, from a Syndicate hereafter to be appointed for that purpose.

2.—That the Syndicate do consist of the Vice-Chancellor, the Public Orator, the Greek Professor, and the two Moderators for the time being, who shall be invested with full power to examine into the cases of applicants for permission to become candidates for Honors after they have degraded, and to grant or withhold such permission, as they may think proper.

3.—That this Syndicate do meet on a certain day in October in each year, of which notice is to be given by the Vice-Chancellor, for the purpose of taking into consideration the cases of applicants; and that all applications be made in writing by the Tutor of the person or persons making such application, accompanied with certificates of ill health, or such other certificates as he may consider necessary.

The following Report of a Syndicate, appointed to consider of what standing candidates for the degree of B.A. ought to be before they are allowed to be examined for that degree, and also to consider for what period after examination the certificate of approval signed by the Examiners shall remain in force—was confirmed by Grace of the Senate, May 8, 1833:

1.—That no person be admitted on or before Ash Wednesday in the Lent Term of each year, ad respondendum quæstioni, who shall not have been publicly examined at the usual time of examination in the month of January of that year, and produce a certificate from the Examiners of examination and approval; except those who in consequence of ill health may, by the permission of the Examiners, have absented themselves from such examination.

2.—That no person be admitted to examination for the degree of B.A. until he has entered into his eleventh term, he having previously kept nine terms exclusive of the term in which he was admitted, and that no certificate of approval, in the case of a person so examined in his eleventh term, shall be valid, unless it shall appear when such person applies for his admission ad respondendum quæstioni, that he has kept the said eleventh term.

SATURDAY MORNING.

Admission of the Questionists.

This morning there is a Congregation: the bell begins to ring at nine o'clock, and at ten the whole number of Candidates appear in the Senate-House. Two papers exhibiting a list of the Questionists arranged according to their merits, or seniority, are hung on the pillars for public inspection[1].

One of the Bedells calls up the houses, and the Senior Moderator makes a Latin speech; the Vice-Chancellor sitting in the chair, and the Moderator standing on his left hand.

The Junior proctor delivers to the Vice-Chancellor the list of Honors and Seniority, subscribed thus, "Examinati et approbati à nobis;" (viz. the Proctors, Moderators, and other Examiners.)

The Caput is then called for passing the supplicats of the Questionists[2].

1 For the honors of the present year, see p. 92.

2 For a Student of King's College, who undergoes no examination for the Bachelor's degree, but claims it by a composition between the University and his college, no supplicat is offered. A Grace is shewn to the Vice-Chancellor, and read by the Senior Proctor in the Regent-House only.

The name of each college is written on every supplicat, which is signed by the Prælector or Father of the college.

A certificate is also given to the Caput, signed and sealed by the Master of the college (or his locum-tenens), shewing that each Questionist has kept his full number of terms; and if otherwise, the deficiency is mentioned in the supplicat, and a certificate explaining the cause is delivered to the Caput by the Father. He also delivers a certificate of his having passed the Previous Examination.

The Registrary shews to the Caput that every Candidate has subscribed that he is bonâ fide a member of the Church of England.

If any Questionist have been prevented by illness from keeping all his terms, the certificate to be delivered to the Caput is to be in the following form:

I hereby certify to the Senate and University of Cambridge, that Mr A.B., of——College, has been under my care from the——day of——till the——day of——: and that during that time he could not with safety, on account of his health, return to Cambridge.

Witness my hand this——day of——, 18—.

C.D.

(Residence.) (M.D. or Surgeon.)

The Vice-Chancellor reads the supplicats to the Caput, and on those that are admitted he writes Ad.

When they have been all read, one of the Bedells carries them into the Non-Regent House, to be read by the Scrutators; and if all are approved, the Scrutators walk, and the senior says Omnes placent. But if any are disapproved of, he says, A.B. &c. non placent, reliqui placent.

Those supplicats in which any cause is assigned for not keeping the whole number of terms are read separately; but those which are of the same kind are read together in the usual manner.

The supplicats are then carried into the Regent-House, where the Senior Proctor reads them in the same manner as the Scrutators did in the Non-Regent House. If all are approved of, the Proctors walk, and the Senior says, Placent omnes; placeat vobis ut intrent. If any are disapproved of, he says as above.

The supplicats are then delivered to the Registrary, who writes on them, Lect, et conces, die— Jan——

In the mean time the candidates put on their hoods over their undergraduate gowns, and the School-keeper gives to each of them a printed copy of the declaration he is to make at his admission.

The Vice-Chancellor takes the chair, and a Bedell having desired the respective Fathers to be in readiness with their Sons, he precedes the Father of the Senior Wrangler (the rest of the Fathers following with their Sons) to the Vice-Chancellor.

The Father, taking the Senior Wrangler by the right hand, presents him in these words:

Dignissime Domine, Domine Pro-Cancellarius et tota Universitas; præsento vobis hunc juvenem, quem scio, tam moribus quam doctrinâ, esse idoneum ad respondendum quæstioni, idque tibi fide meâ præsto, totique Academiæ.

The Senior Wrangler then takes the oaths of allegiance and supremacy; and the Senior Proctor (with his colleague standing by him) reads to him the following declaration:

Affirmabis, quod nihil ex iis omnibus sciens volens prætermisisti, quæ per leges aut probatas consuetudines hujus Academiæ ad hunc gradum quem ambis adipiscendum, aut peragenda aut persolvenda requiruntur; nisi quatenus per gratiam ab Academiâ concessam tecum dispensatum fuerit.

Dabis fidem quod Cancellario et Pro-Cancellario nostro comiter obtemperabis: et quod statuta nostra, ordinationes, et consuetudines approbatus observabis.

Dabis fidem etiam quod compositionem inter Academiam et Collegium Regale factam sciens volens non violabis.

The Senior Wrangler replies, Ita affirmo et ita do fidem.

He then kneels down before the Vice-Chancellor, who, taking his hands between his own, admits him in these words:

Auctoritate mihi commissâ, admitto te ad respondendum quæstioni: in nomine Patris, et Filii, et Spiritûs Sancti. Amen.

The Father of King's next presents his Sons: then the Questionists of Trinity and St John's are presented, and after them those of the other Colleges according to the seniority of the Fathers. Four or five are presented at once, the Father saying, Præsento vobis hos juvenas quos, &c.

As they are presented, they are directed by one of the Bedells to the south side of the Senate-House.

When all have been presented, they are divided into parties of ten or twelve; one of each party takes the oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and the Senior Proctor administers these oaths to the remainder, saying, Eadem juramenta, quæ præstitit A.B., in suâ personâ, vos quoque præstabitis in vestris personis, &c.

The Senior Proctor then repeats to the whole party the Declaration, Affirmabis quod, &c., and each individual replies in succession, Ita affirmo et ita do fidem.

When all have been sworn, and have made the declaration, they are admitted, by the Vice-Chancellor, in the order in which their names stand in the list signed by the Proctors and Examiners.

As the Questionists are admitted, they go to the Sophs' Schools, to answer the question which is asked them by the respective Fathers.

When the admissions are concluded, the Vice-Chancellor dissolves the Congregation.

Bachelors of Arts are called either Ordinarii or ad Baptistam. The Ordinarii are admitted on the Saturday after the first Monday in Lent Term, or on any day after that Saturday, and not later than Ash-Wednesday. The last day of the admission of Ordinarii is Ash-Wednesday. All who are admitted after Ash-Wednesday are called ad Baptistam. These lose their year; for example, a Bachelor admitted after Ash-Wednesday in 1840, is a Bachelor of 1841. No person (except an invalid with a certificate from the Examiners) is allowed to take a degree as an Ordinarius who has not undergone the general examination in the January of that year: if unsuccessful in that examination he may be re-examined before Ash-Wednesday; and, if approved, he may be admitted on Ash-Wednesday. Those who are admitted to their degree of B.A. at any other time are said to go out in Bye Term. Their examination takes place in the Moderators' rooms, and is similar to that of the ordinary πολλοί. When "examined and approved" by the Moderators and Examiners their names are arranged alphabetically, and not according to merit. Their seniority is reserved in the class of οἱ πολλοί after those who are admitted as Ordinarii of the succeeding year.

In addition to the Examination previously described, it is also necessary to insert the following Plan of Examination, confirmed by Graces of the Senate, May 28, 1822, and February 13, 1835.

1.—On the fourth Monday after the general Admission ad Respondendum Quæstioni in January, shall commence an Examination in classical learning of such persons as shall voluntarily offer themselves to be examined, provided that every person so offering himself shall have obtained an honor at the Mathematical Examination of the preceding January. Provided also that persons entitled to Noblemen's degrees, shall be competent to offer themselves for the abovenamed Classical Examination, having kept nine terms, and having passed the usual examination before Admission ad Respondendum Quæstioni of the preceding January.

The Examination (commencing on the fourth Monday after the general admission ad Respondendum Questioni) shall continue five days; the hours of attendance on each day being from Nine in the Morning till half-past Eleven; and from half-past Twelve till half-past Three in the Afternoon.

2.—At this Examination in classical learning, Translations shall be required of passages selected from the best Greek and Latin authors, as well as written answers to questions arising immediately out of such passages. No original composition, either in Greek or Latin, shall be required.

3.—The names of those persons who shall pass the Examination with credit, shall be arranged in three Classes, according to their respective merits.

4.—To conduct the Examination, four Examiners appointed by Colleges according to the Cycle of Proctors and Taxors, shall be elected by the Senate at the first Congregation after October 10.

5.—Each of the Examiners shall receive £10. from the University Chest.

6.—The foregoing Regulations shall not interfere with the Composition between the University and King's College.

FIRST TRIPOS DAY.

On the day after Ash Wednesday, at one o'clock, the bell rings for the first Tripos.

At two, the Vice-Chancellor and the Proctors meet in the vestry of Great St Mary's church.

The whole company then proceed to the Law Schools; the Vice-Chancellor, preceded by a Bedell, goes into the gallery; the Senior Proctor with a Bedell into the Respondent's seat, and the Junior Proctor in the Opponent's seat.

The Tripos papers containing the names of the Wranglers and Senior Optimes of the year, and two copies of verses, written by two undergraduates whom the Proctors choose to honor on this occasion, are distributed among the undergraduates and the company present.

A Bedell reads from a Tripos paper:

Baccalaurei quibus sua reservatur Senioritas Comitiis prioribus.

He then pronounces the name and college of the Senior Wrangler, to which the Junior Proctor answers:

Nos reservamus ei Senioritatem suam.

To the second the Junior Proctor answers, et ei, and so on to all the names on the Tripos paper.

When all the names are read, the Junior Proctor says:

Nos continuamus hanc disputationem in horam primam diei Jovis post quartam Dominicam hujus Quadragesimæ.

SECOND TRIPOS DAY.

The second Tripos is on the Thursday after Midlent Sunday: the bell begins to ring at one. The Moderators, dressed in the Proctors' Congregation habits, meet the Vice-Chancellor in the vestry of Great St Mary's church at two o'clock, and from thence proceed to the Law Schools. The Vice-Chancellor, preceded by a Bedell, goes into the gallery; the Senior Moderator, with a Bedell, into the Respondent's seat; and the Junior Moderator into the Opponent's seat.

The Tripos papers, containing a list of the Junior Optimes of the year, and two copies of verses, written by two undergraduates at the request of the Moderators, are then distributed amongst the undergraduates and company present.

He then reads the name and college of the first Bachelor, and the Junior Moderator answers, Nos reservamus ei Senioritatem suam.

To the second, the Junior Moderator answers, et ei, and so on, as in the first Tripos.

When all the names have been read he says:

And lastly, Auctoritate quâ fungimur, decernimus, creamus et pronunciamus omnes hujus anni determinatores, finaliter determinasse, ET ACTUALITER ESSE IN ARTIBUS BACCALAUREOS.

INCEPTORS IN ARTS, ON THE DAY AFTER THE SECOND TRIPOS.

On the Friday morning following the second Tripos, the bell begins to ring at nine o'clock, for a Congregation ex statuto.

The Caput is called, and the several Fathers deliver to the Vice-Chancellor the supplicats of all those whose graces have passed in their respective Colleges for Inceptors in Arts.

Graces of Inceptors (being Fellows of King's,) are not presented to the Caput, but merely shewn to the Vice-Chancellor, and read in the Regent House only.

They are admitted to their degree at the same Congregation.

The Registrary having shewed to the Caput, that each Inceptor has subscribed to the 36th Canon, the Vice-Chancellor reads the supplicats, and writes Ad. on all that are approved.

The Bedell takes them into the Non-Regent House, where they are read by the Senior Scrutator; and then into the Regent House, where they are read by the Senior Proctor.

If there be no other business, the Vice-Chancellor continues the Congregation to one o'clock of the same day.

The bell begins to ring at one, and the Senate meet at two.

Previously to the second Congregation, the Bedells have written the Names and Colleges of all the Inceptors on a sheet of paper, and against every one,

{ non placet..... ——

At the bottom of the paper is written,

omnes { placent..... ——
{ non placent..... ——

At the second Congregation the Supplicats are carried to the Scrutators, to be read a second time in the Non-Regent House.

When all have been read, a Bedell calls ad Scrutinium.

If all be approved, the two Scrutators and another Non-Regent mark the affirmative line against the word placent, whilst the Bedell calls at intervals, Ad Scrutinium secundo—Ad Scrutinium ultimo—cessatum est a Scrutinio.

The Senior Scrutator then says, omnes placent.

But if any Supplicat be objected to, by one or more Persons saying non placet when that Supplicat is read, the Scrutators must take the votes by placet and non placet.

If the non placets be greater than, or equal to, the placets in number, the Supplicat is lost; and the Senior Scrutator says, A. non placet; reliqui placent.

If more than one person's Supplicat be objected to, the votes for each, to which an objection is made, must be taken in the same manner.

The Bedell takes the Supplicats to be read in the Regent House by the Senior Proctor; and they are put to the vote precisely in the same manner as in the Non-Regent House, the Vice-Chancellor and the two Proctors standing in Scrutiny.

The Senior Proctor (the Junior standing by him) pronounces the Scrutiny by saying omnes placent, or (if any one have been rejected) A. non placet; reliqui placent.

The Vice-Chancellor then dissolves the Congregation.

The Inceptors, whose Supplicats have passed, ask leave of the Vice-Chancellor, as he quits the Senate-House, to proceed.

ADMISSION OF INCEPTORS IN ARTS.

The Congregation for this purpose is on the Friday following at ten o'clock.

The bell begins to ring at nine.

The Bedells have prepared a Scrutiny paper in the following form:—

A. { scio ..... — credo ..... —
nescio ..... —

B. { scio ..... —
credo ..... —
nescio ..... —

At the bottom is written,

credo ..... —
nescio ..... —

As soon as the Senate is assembled, the Proctors go to their place, and the Senior reads from a paper prepared by the Registrary, Placeat Vobis, ut omnes Inceptores, quibus Gratia à vobis nuper concessa fuit ad visitandum, bonâ vestrâ cum venia, intrent.

When this is granted, a Bedell desires the Fathers to assemble their respective Sons, who have previously received copies of their Admission Oath from the School-keeper, and have put on the Bachelor's hood over the Bachelor's gown.

The Senior Father, following the Bedell, presents four or five of his Sons at a time (holding their right hands in his own) to the Vice-Chancellor sitting in the chair, in these words:

Dignissime Domine, Domine Pro-Cancellarie, et tota Universitas, præsento vobis hos Viros, quos scio, tam moribus, quam doctrinâ esse idoneos ad incipiendum in Artibus; idque tibi fide meâ præsto, totique Academiæ.

The rest of the Fathers, according to their Seniority, present their Sons, in the same form; and as they are presented they go to the south side of the Senate-House. When all are presented, they take the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and the Oath of Admission is administered to them by the Senior Proctor.

Jurabis, quod nihil ex iis omnibus sciens volens prætermisisti, quæ per leges aut probatas consuetudines hujus Academiæ ad hunc Gradum quem ambis adipiscendum, aut peragenda aut persolvenda requiruntur; nisi quatenus per Gratiam ab Academiâ concessam tecum dispensatum fuerit.

Jurabis etiam, quod Cancellario et Procancellario nostro comiter obtemperabis: et quod statuta nostra, ordinationes, et consuetudines approbatas observabis.

Denique jurabis, quod compositionem inter Academiam et Collegium Regale factam sciens volens non violabis: Et quod in Bibliothecam publicam et Museum Honoratissimi Domini Vice-Comitis Fitzwilliam admissus, jure isto tuo ita uteris, ut, quantum in te est, nihil inde detrimenti capiat vel Bibliotheca, vel Museum prædictum: in hæc autem verba jurabis, secundum tenorem Senatus consulti in cautelam jurantium facti.

Ita te Deus adjuvet, et Sancta Dei Evangelia.

The Vice-Chancellor and Proctors then stand in scrutiny of

credo ..... ——

and if the Scrutators be unanimous in approving all the Candidates, they mark either the scio or credo line.

Then one of the Bedells precedes the Candidates round the chair, and in passing they bow to the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors.

The Bedell calls the name of each Inceptor.

The Inceptor then kneels down before the Vice-Chancellor, who, taking both his hands between his own, admits him in the following words:

Auctoritate mihi commissâ admitto te ad incipiendum in Artibus, in nomine Patris, et Filii, et Spiritûs Sancti.

If on the incepting day there be any Candidates for the degree of Master of Arts, who were of sufficient standing to have taken their degree before the incepting day, they are to be admitted at the second Congregation, observing the same forms as the Inceptors.

Degrees of NOBLEMEN, and of those who proceed to their Degrees 'tanquam Nobiles'.

By an interpretation, made May 31, 1786, it was determined that the following persons are entitled to Honorary Degrees: viz.

1. Privy Counsellors.
2. Bishops.
3. Noblemen:—Dukes, Marquisses, Earls, Viscounts, Barons.

4. Sons of Noblemen.
5. Persons related to the Sovereign by consanguinity or affinity: provided they be also Honourable.
6. The eldest sons of such persons.
7. Baronets,
8. Knights, } to the degree of M.A. only.

By a Grace of the Senate, passed March 18, 1825, all the above persons (before they are admitted to any degree) are to be "examined and approved" of, in the same manner as others who are admitted ad Respondendum Quæstioni; but they have the privilege of being examined after they have kept nine Terms, the first and last excepted. They are then entitled to the degree of Master of Arts.

Though no person can claim a degree in right of Nobility, who has not previously undergone the usual examination, yet the University sometimes confers degrees, without either examination or residence, on such individuals of mature age, as are illustrious, not on account of their birth only, but also for the services they have rendered to the State, or to Literature.

No person taking a degree in right of Nobility, is entitled to a vote, unless he shall previously have resided three Terms.

PROCEEDINGS IN DIVINITY.[1]

A Master of Arts must be of at least seven years' standing before he can be admitted to the Degree of Bachelor in Divinity: for which degree the requisite Exercises are, one Act, two Opponencies, a Latin Sermon (Concio ad Clerum), and an English Sermon. The Act cannot be kept by a Master of Arts of less than four years' standing: the other Exercises may be kept at any time after the Degree of Master of Arts has been completed.

A Master of Arts, proceeding in this faculty, calls upon the Regius Professor of Divinity, for his approbation of the Question for his Act; on which Question a Latin Thesis must be written.

A second Question is given by the Professor; who also appoints the day on which the Act is to be kept.

A copy of these Questions is to be left with the Vice-Chancellor, the Senior Doctor in Divinity resident in the University, and the Regius Professor of Divinity.

Eight days, at least, before the Act is to be kept, three copies of the Questions are to be delivered to a Bedell, for the Opponents; and one copy to the University Marshal, to be affixed to the School-doors.

The Act commences, in the Divinity Schools, a quarter before two o'clock. The Professor having addressed the Respondent with the words "Agas Domine"—the Respondent begins with the following prayer;

1 All Masters of Arts who do not declare for Law or Physic within four years after the completion of their M.A. degree, are considered as belonging to the Divinity line, and are not allowed to proceed either in Law or Physic.

Actiones nostras singulas, Domine, clementissimo tuo favore prævені, et perpetuo auxilio prosequere, ut in omnibus operibus nostris in te inceptis, continuatis et finitis, sanctum tuum nomen glorificemus, et tandem miserationi tuæ vitam æternam consequamur per Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

The Respondent then states his two Questions; and reads a Thesis, which lasts about half an hour, upon the first. After this, the Opponents are in succession called up by the Professor; who, at the close of the Disputation, reads a Determination upon the second Question.

The regular time for proceeding to this Degree, in the case of a Master of Arts of seven years' standing, is on the eleventh of June. Masters of Arts of more than seven years' standing may be admitted on other days. For this Degree two Congregations are required; at which the Candidate must be present, in his gown and cassock, and a black hood.

Bachelor in Divinity, by the 9th of Elizabeth.

A person of the age of twenty-four years, having been admitted of any College, and having continued a member during ten years at the least, during the last two of which he has resided in College the greater part of three several Terms, may proceed to the Degree of Bachelor in Divinity. The Exercises to be performed in this case are precisely the same as those required of a Master of Arts. The Candidate is moreover examined by the Regius Professor of Divinity, for the purpose of ascertaining whether he has complied with the provisions of the Statute, and actually devoted himself to the study of Theology.

It is recommended to all persons who intend to proceed to the Degree of Bachelor in Divinity under this Statute, to call upon the Regius Professor of Divinity, at the commencement of their residence in the University, in order that due arrangements may be made for the performance of the requisite Exercises.

A Doctor in Divinity must be a Bachelor in Divinity of five, or a Master of Arts[1], of twelve years' standing. The exercises are one act, two opponencies, a clerum, an English sermon, and a determination.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE CIVIL LAW.

Preparatory to the Degree of Bachelor in the Civil Law, a student is obliged to pass the Previous Examination; to attend the Lectures of the Professor for the space of three terms: and to be examined by the Professor; and after four years' standing, and a residence of nine terms, he may keep his Act[2]. Prior to this exercise, he carries his Questions to the Vice-Chancellor for his approbation; after which they are affixed to the door of the Lecture-room under the Public Library.

1 When a Master of Arts takes a Doctor's degree in any of the three faculties, he is said to graduate per saltum, though properly the phrase belongs only to the degree of D.D.

2 Zouche's or Vinnius's Questions deserve to be consulted by a person preparing for this Act as also the Commentaries of Vinnius and Voet.

FORM of a Notice for an Act.

Q. S.

Bonâ fide possessor fructus percipiendo suos facit.
Legatarius in Testamento Testis esse potest.
Coll.—4to die Maii. A. B. Resp.

The first question is proposed by the Respondent, the second by the Professor.

On the day of the Act, the University bell begins to ring at One in the afternoon, and twenty minutes before Two, the Respondent is waited on by a Bedell, who precedes him to the Law Schools, followed by the Father and other members of his College. During this procession, the Respondent walks with his cap off, and on arriving at the Schools, he ascends a rostrum opposite the Professor.

The Professor in his robes preceded by a Bedell, then takes the chair, and the Father, seated in the Opponent's rostrum, directs the Respondent to begin—"Agas Domine."

The Respondent then commences his Exercise by reading a Latin dissertation, which occupies about half an hour on the first question. The arguments against both the questions are then propounded in syllogistic form, by a candidate for the degree of D.C.L., or more usually by the Professor.

The disputation having thus proceeded for an hour, the Professor gives the Respondent an appropriate honor. The exercise then concludes with the Professor's determination upon the second question.

The habit worn by the Respondent in the Schools, and by the candidate in both Congregations, is a full-sleeved gown, and a Bachelor of Arts' hood.

At the expiration of six years, the supplicat and the certificates of standing, residence, attendance on the Professor's Lectures, having declared for Law, and passed the Previous Examination, are presented to the Caput, and the supplicat is afterwards read in both Houses. At the next Congregation, after the supplicat has again been read, and approved in both Houses, the Candidate is admitted to the degree of Bachelor in the Civil Law.

A Bachelor of Arts of four years' standing may be admitted to this degree. His exercise is one Act, and he is not required to attend the Professor's Lectures.

Every candidate for B.C.L., or D.C.L., pays to the Professor £7. 7*s.* for each Act.

A Doctor in the Civil Law must be of five years' standing from the degree of B.C.L. or a Master of Arts of seven years' standing. The exercises are two acts and one opponency.

PROCEEDINGS IN PHYSIC.

A Student before he can proceed to the degree of Bachelor in Physic, must have entered on his sixth year, have resided nine terms, and have passed the Previous Examination. The Exercises for this degree are one Act and one opponency. The form of notice, ceremonies, and mode of keeping the Act, are precisely similar to those described in the last article, under the head of Proceedings in the Civil Law. The Questions for the Act generally refer to some practical point, or to some physiological or pathological subject. The Act must be kept either during the Term in which the degree is taken, or during the preceding Term.

Candidates for the degree of M.B., in addition to an Examination by the Regius Professor of Physic, and a diligent attendance on a complete course of his Lectures are required to produce certificates of Examination by the Professor of Anatomy, Chemistry, and Botany, before they proceed to the performance of the Exercises in the Schools. They are also required to have attended a course of the Lectures of each of these Professors, in case the courses of the two former may have extended to fifty Lectures each, and of the latter to twenty.

By a Grace passed March 5, 1834, all candidates for this degree must, before passing their examination, deliver to the Regius Professor a certificate of diligent attendance on the practice and lectures of some well-known Hospital for the space of two years, or for so long a time as they shall have been absent from the University after keeping their Terms.

By a Grace, passed the same day, Bachelors in Physic may be admitted Licentiates in the Term next following that in which they have taken their degree, after examination by the Regius Professor and another Doctor in the Faculty.

Every candidate for M.B. pays the Professor for his Act £7.: and for M.D. £11. 11*s.* for the two Acts which are required.

A Bachelor of Arts may proceed to the degree of Bachelor in Physic as soon as he is of sufficient standing, provided that one year at least shall intervene between the two degrees, during which he must attend the Lectures of the Professor of Physic.

A student who has declared for Law or Physic, may put on a full-sleeved gown when those of the same year, who go out at the regular time, have taken their degree of Bachelor of Arts. He is then styled a Harry-soph, (ἐριτσοφος.)

If, on or before the first of February in his fourth year, the candidate for B.C.L. or M.B. does not declare, in writing, to the Master of his college, that it is not his intention to proceed to B.A. he forfeits £3. to the University Chest, over and above the usual fees: and if after this declaration he proceeds to B.A. he also pays £3. extra to the Senior Proctor.

A Doctor in Physic is bound by the same regulations as a D.C.L.

A Bachelor in Music must enter his name in some college, and compose and perform a solemn piece of music, as an exercise, before the University.

A Doctor in Music is generally Mus. B., and his exercise is the same.

COMPOUNDERS.

All persons are reputed and reckoned Compounders, who, before admission to their degree, have presentation to, collation, institution, induction, or any manner of possession of, any Living or Livings Ecclesiastical, of what kind soever, which are rated (even though discharged) to the yearly value of £26. 13*s.* 4*d.* in the King's Books.

Every person, who is admitted to any degree, must if he be a Compounder, pay over and above the usual fees, the sum of £8. 6*s.* 4*d.*

Endowed Chapels, or other Ecclesiastical preferment not in the King's Books, are rated according to their real value.

Also any estate, annuity, or certain income for life, by whatever tenure possessed (except University, or College income), whether in the person's own right, that of his wife, or any other person, if of the annual amount of £26. 13*s.* 4*d.* makes a Compounder.

Ten-year men B.D. and persons taking a degree per saltum if Compounders, pay the Composition money for the degree, or degrees, passed over, as well as for that taken.

N.B. Every person, before admission to his degree, makes oath that he has not omitted to pay any of the fees required of him by the Satutes of the University.

CAUTION FOR EXERCISES.

The University Statutes require certain exercises (as appears under the head Terms and Exercises) to be performed for the several degrees, which are sometimes granted to non-gremials with the omission of part, or of the whole, but with this condition, that they shall be performed within the following Term. The party deposits, as a pledge, the undermentioned sums with the Vice-Chancellor, which, on non-performance of the exercises, are forfeited to the University Chest:

TRIPOSES,

OR,

LISTS of those who have obtained HONORS on commencing BACHELORS of ARTS; with the names of the MODERATORS of the respective years.

ON the Tripos papers originally published, the names of the Honors, till the year 1755, seldom appeared; and in the Registrary's book, where all degrees, in the order of seniority, are inserted, no mark of distinction was ever observed, previous to that time, between the Wranglers and the Senior Optimes.—As it was formerly the custom for the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors to confer Honorary Senior Optimes, a mark of distinction not then unfrequently conferred upon Wranglers, the regular order of previous years cannot be precisely ascertained, especially as these Honorary degrees were placed ad libitum. The years 1752 and 1753 are copies from the Registrary's book of Entry. The year 1754 was arranged according to the wrangling paper. The custom of conferring Honorary Senior Optimes has for some years past been abolished.

The Chancellor's Medals were first instituted in 1752; (A) denotes senior, (B) junior.

Dr Smith's Mathematical Prizes were founded in 1769; (1) denotes senior, (2) junior,

The Classical Tripos was instituted in 1824; α affixed to a name in the Mathematical Tripos denotes that the person was in the first class of the Classical Tripos, β in second, γ in the third.

The * designates late or present Fellows.

CHANCELLORS.*

THE office of Chancellor is biennial, or tenable for such a length of time beyond two years as the tacit consent of the University may choose to allow. The election of a Chancellor must be within fourteen days after the vacancy—and is, more burgensium. At the time of election, the Vice-Chancellor, the two Proctors, and the junior D.D. present, stand in scrutiny, (in failure of the latter, the junior LL.D., and in the absence of such, the junior M.D.) and first write their votes. All members of the Senate then bring their votes written in the same form, and the Senior Proctor pronounces the election.

REPRESENTATIVES IN PARLIAMENT.

James I., by his Charter in the first year of his reign, granted power to the Chancellors, Masters, and Scholars of the two Universities, to elect and return two persons in each, to represent them in Parliament. Whenever there is a vacancy in the representation, the Sheriff sends the precept to the Vice-Chancellor; and the election, of which the Vice-Chancellor gives four days notice at least, is to be within eight days from the receipt of it. At the time of election, the two Proctors, and the junior D.D. present, stand in scrutiny with the Vice-Chancellor, who is the returning officer. The members of the Senate then give their votes in writing, and a majority of such determines the election.

ELECTED.

PROCTORS.

Two Colleges are every year to nominate persons for Proctors, in the order prescribed in a cycle of 51 years; in which time, King's, Trinity, and St John's Colleges have each of them eleven turns; St Peter's, Christ's, Queens', and Pembroke, seven each; Clare Hall, six; Corpus Christi, Jesus, Caius, Magdalene, Emmanuel, and Sidney, five each; Catharine Hall, four; and Trinity Hall, one. Each of the two colleges nominates one person. The person nominated may be a Regent or Non-Regent Master of Arts. If he be a Regent he must be in the third year of his Regency at least.

He must be presented to the Vice-Chancellor, in the presence of the Registrary, by the Head of his College, or by some one in his name, before the 1st day of August.

If any one who has been presented should die, or refuse the office, or be found incapacitated, before the 10th of October following, the Heads of colleges nominate two persons to be offered to the Senate, one of whom is to be elected. The same course is observed in case any college neglects to present in due time.

If the office becomes vacant before the expiration of the year. Trinity Hall presents a Proctor for the remainder.

DR. GELDART'S LECTURES.

THE Queen's Professor of the Civil Law, wishing that the system which he has always endeavoured to maintain should be more generally known, and that persons desirous of proceeding in his Faculty should more accurately understand the course of study they are required to pursue, calls the attention of Students to the following regulations.

1. The Lectures in the Civil Law commence in the Michaelmas Term, and are continued during the Lent and Easter Terms: and it has always been the wish of the Professor that all persons desiring to proceed in his Faculty should begin to attend his Lectures at the commencement of the course in their second year[2]. It is essential that all candidates for the first class should commence their studies at that time.

2. According to a Statute of the University, no student can be presented to the degree of Bachelor in the Civil Law without a certificate from the Professor that he has attended his Lectures for the space of three terms: and as the Course commences in Michaelmas Term, the Professor has always required such terms to be Michaelmas, Lent, and Easter consecutively. If any person be prevented from beginning his attendance on the Lectures in the Michaelmas Term of his second year, the Professor still recommends him to attend during the other terms, as such Lectures (though they cannot form part of the course) will be allowed to supply any unavoidable deficiency in the succeeding year.

3. All persons desirous of being candidates for the first class must (unless under very peculiar circumstances) pass their first two examinations [3]in the Easter Term immediately following the Lent Term in which they have passed the (University) Previous Examination.

4. Candidates for the first class[4] are expected to pe prepared in the whole of the Analysis of the Civil Law: and every Student is expected to pass a satisfactory examination in the whole of the first book of the Analysis, Chapters 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 21 of the second book, and Chapter 10 of the third book[5].

1 Late Lord Bishop of St Asaph.

2 For the exercises to be performed for Degrees in the Civil Law, see proceedings in the Civil Law.

3 Dr Geldart upon his appointment instituted an examination in the subjects of his lectures, and all persons who have since been candidates for the degree of LL.B. have been examined previously to performing the public exercise in the Schools.

4 For the Civil Law Classes, see page 93.

5 Of the books prefixed to each chapter of the Analysis the following are absolutely necessary to be in the possession of every student:
Corpus Juris Civilis,
Justiniani Institutiones, 4to by Dr Harris,
Taylor's Elements of the Civil Law,
Heineccii Antiq. Rom. Syntagma,
Heineccii

Translations from Latin into English and from English into Latin form part of every examination.

5. No student can be considered as qualified for the first class, unless he has passed the examinations required of every student in such a manner as to entitle him to that privilege.

6. Any student who has not passed an examination in a satisfactory manner will be reexamined in a subsequent term.

7. No person who has been reexamined can be placed in the first class.

8. No student (unless under peculiar circumstances) can be allowed to attend more than three examinations in any one term.

9. The Act is not kept till the student has, in some previous terms, passed all the necessary examinations in the subjects of the Lectures. And during the term in which the Act is to be kept, there is an examination in Logic and in the subjects of the Responsio.

The Lectures are read in the College Hall of Trinity Hall, and the usual hour is from ten to eleven in the morning. The terms of attendance are five guineas for the first course, afterwards gratis. The plan of these lectures may be seen in a work, entitled. "An Analysis of the Roman Civil Law," in which a comparison is occasionally made between the Roman Laws and those of England, by Samuel Hallifax, late Lord Bishop of St Asaph, and formerly King's Professor of the Civil Law in this University, of which Dr Geldart published a new edition with alterations and additions, in 1836.

CHEMISTRY.

FOUNDED by the UNIVERSITY, 1702.

THE Professors, previous to the year 1773, were elected by a Grace of the Senate; but there being several competitors for the office at that time, this mode of election became impracticable; and, as it appeared that no adequate provision had been made for such cases, it was decided that the election should, on that occasion, be "more burgensium:" by a Grace dated 24th October, 1793, it was determined that all subsequent elections to this Professorship should be in the same manner.

The salary is £100 per annum, which is paid by the Lords Commissioners of her Majesty's Treasury, on exhibiting a certificate of the delivery of a Course of Lectures.

It appears, by the Graces appointing the first Professors, that a house and apparatus were attached to this Professorship: but there is now no apparatus exclusive of what is the private property of the Professor.

Professor Cumming's Lectures.

A Course of Thirty Lectures, on the general principles of Chemistry, is given during the Lent Term, in the Schools in the Botanical Garden: and Twenty Lectures, principally on Organic Chemistry, during the Easter Term, in the rooms recently added to the north end of the same building.

The Medical Students are required to attend these Lectures under the same regulations as those of the Anatomical Professor.

ASTRONOMY AND EXPERIMENTAL PHILOSOPHY.

The Candidates may be bachelors, married men, Englishmen (Nostrates), or Foreigners. The election is not to be before the thirtieth, nor protracted beyond the sixtieth day after the schedule is affixed. The electors are, the Vice-Chancellor, the Masters of Trinity, Christ's and Caius colleges, and the Lucasian Professor. If any of the Masters be Vice-Chancellor, the Master of St John's acts in his stead. Founded by Dr Plume, Archdeacon of Rochester, 1704.

This Professorship was endowed with the rent of an estate situated at Balsham. The stipend was increased by the bequest of Dr Smith; £50 per annum being left by him to the Plumian Professor, on condition of an examination for Smith's Prizes being annually made. The late Professor having represented to the University, that the income of the Professorship offered no adequate remuneration for the increased labours occasioned by the superintendance of the Observatory, a Grace of the Senate was passed Feb. 27, 1829, for granting annually to the Professor from the Common Chest (by Grace), such a sum as would raise the income of the Professorship to £500 per annum.

ANATOMY.

At the period of election, the Vice-Chancellor, the two Proctors, nd the junior Doctor in Divinity present, stand in scrutiny: in ailure of the latter, the junior LL.D., and in the absence of such, ne junior M.D. All members of the Senate have votes, and the najority of such decide the election. These Lectures (a certificate of attendance on which, provided ney amount to fifty in number, is required by the Senate from candidates for medical degrees,) explain the general and special natomy of the human body, together with the principles of Physiology.

The pupils have the opportunity of dissecting in private.

When the arrangement of the Museum and of the Catalogue as been completed, the Professor of Anatomy purposes to deliver, n the Easter Term, a series of Lectures on Zoology and Comarative Anatomy. The object of these Lectures will be:

To point out the relative importance of those characters upon hich Zoological classification is founded:

To notice the progressive development of individual systems of rgans in the different genera of Animals:

To connect these with the corresponding differences in the phenomena of life:

To point out the series of gradations through which these phenomena pass, until they attain their utmost perfection in man.

The particulars of these Lectures will be hereafter more fully etailed: and an announcement given of that portion of the subject which will constitute the first course.

BOTANY.

This Professorship was founded by the University in 1724. It has been decreed, by a Grace of the Senate, that if the Professor should deliver a course consisting of not less than twenty Lectures, the students in Medicine shall be required to obtain a certificate of their having attended them. These Lectures are delivered during the Easter Term: Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, being devoted to the descriptive, and Tuesday and Thursday to the physiological departments of Botany. The professor occasionally makes herborizing excursions with his class, in the neighbourhood of Cambridge.

GEOLOGY.

This Professorship was founded by Dr Woodward, in the year 1727. On January 31, 1731-2, the four executors of the Founder's will appointed Dr Conyers Middleton the first Professor. After their decease the election was vested in the members of the Senate; in addition to whom the following persons were allowed to give their votes by proxy, viz. the Chancellor of the University, the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of Ely, the President of the Royal Society, the President of the College of Physicians, and the Members for the University. The original collection in the Cambridge Museum consisted exclusively of those specimens which are described in Dr Woodward's Catalogues, printed in 1729. The English Fossils were bequeathed by him to the University: and by a Grace of the Senate, dated Feb. 26, 1728-9, the Vice-Chancellor was empowered to purchase of his heirs, for a sum not exceeding £1000, the foreign fossels described in the above-mentioned catalogues. This purchase having been carried into immediate effect, the whole collection came into the possession of the University, and remains nearly in the same order in which the doctor first arranged it. Two graduates of the University are annually appointed to inspect its condition, and their report is delivered on the 1st of May to the heads of Houses, who form a board of auditors for that purpose.

This noble monument of the talents and unwearied labours of Dr Woodward unfortunately remains in a room ill fitted for its reception; where the specimens which form the collection cannot be well exhibited.

Among the native fossils which have had a place in this collection more than one hundred years, the mineralogist will find the Corundum, Native Meteoric Iron, the fossil Copal of Highgate, and some other substances, in describing which Dr Woodward anticipated the discoveries of succeeding naturalists: and the extraneous fossils of the same cabinets, prove that many discoveries in that branch of natural history have been in like manner anticipated.

Professor Green added some valuable organic remains to the Woodwardian cabinets. But Professor Hailstone, after his appointment, formed another distinct collection composed of many rare and beautiful simple minerals, and of specimens illustrative of the physical structure both of the British isles and some portions of the Continent. In this labour he was assisted by the munificence of various friends of the University.

To this part of the collection the present Professor has, by the active assistance of some of his friends, been enabled to make large and important additions. He has also established a course of Lectures, in which it is his endeavour to explain the structure of the earth; more especially as it is illustrated in the successive formation of the British isles.

The erection of a new museum, now in the contemplation of the University, will, it is hoped, enable him before long to exhibit the whole collection in such a manner as to carry into full effect the intention of its Founder.

Professor Peacock's Lectures.

These Lectures are given in the Lent Term, and the object proposed by them, is to make students acquainted with the present state of the science of Astronomy, and with the practical methods of observation, which are commonly followed in modern Observatories: the most important astronomical instruments or models of them are exhibited, and the use of them explained, either in the Lecture Room, or at the Observatory. As this Professorship was designed by the Founder to comprehend Geometry as well as Astronomy, it is hereafter intended by the present Professor, to give Lectures alternately on Astronomy, and on Geometry, and the general principles of Mathematical Reasoning.

DIVINITY.

(Mr Norris's.)

The Stewards of this institution are, the Master of Trinity, the Provost of King's, and the Master or President of Caius. The candidates for the Professorship give a written notice to the three Stewards within the first fourteen days of November. The Stewards select two, and signify their names to the Heads of Houses on or before the 1st day of February next ensuing, and the election of one of the two nominated must be within the first fourteen days of the succeeding May. The electors must be a majority of ten Heads of Houses. The Professor may have been educated at either University, may be lay or clerical, but cannot be elected under his thirtieth, or re-elected after his sixtieth year. No person can continue in office longer than five years, but may be re-elected.—Founded by John Norris, Esq. of Whitton in Norfolk, 1760. Salary, £105 per annum.[1]

In conformity with the Founder's directions, the Norrisian Professor of Divinity delivers fifty Lectures during the Michaelmas and Lent Terms, gratuitously, to those who have been matriculated or incorporated into the University, on three days in the week, at the Lecture-room under the Public Library. The Lecture-room opens ten minutes before one o'clock, and closes at ten minutes after; the Lecture concludes at two o'clock precisely. Twenty Lectures must be attended in the same Term to obtain the Professor's certificate; and no Undergraduate is admitted to attend the Lectures for the purpose of obtaining a Certificate, unless during some preceding Term his name has been entered in a book kept for that purpose.

By the will of the Founder, the Professor is required to read, during each course of fifty Lectures, certain portions of Bishop Pearson's Exposition of the Creed. These portions of Bishop

MINERALOGY.

This Professorship was founded by the University in the year 1808, and afterwards endowed by Government with a salary of £100 per annum.

Lectures had been given by Dr Clarke for two years prior to the establishment of the Professorship, and specimens exhibited which had been collected during his travels. His principal object was to call the attention of the University to the importance of Mineralogical studies: to illustrate the natural history of the materials used by architects, sculptors, and lapidaries, both ancient and modern: the Mineralogy of the sacred Scriptures, and of the ancient poets and historians: and, finally, to suggest the means of pursuing this branch of knowledge without the expense and incumbrance which have usually been its attendants.

After the death of Dr Clarke, the Senate decreed that the Professorship should be continued, and the sum of £1500 was given for the Collection of Minerals which he had formed.

This collection was for some time kept in the room belonging to the Botanical Professor, but on the appointment of Professor Henslow to that office, he found it necessary to appropriate his apartment to the purposes of his own science. The Mineralogical Collection is, for the present, deposited in one of the apartments at the Pitt Press, by permission of the Syndics of the Press. It is hoped that the University will before long be possessed of a Museum more worthy of the Collection, and adapted to that exhibition of arrangement which is one of the student's most important aids in acquiring the science. The Professor delivers a course of Lectures in the Lent Term.

POLITICAL ECONOMY.

The title of Professor of Political Economy was conferred by Grace of the Senate, in May 1828, on George Pryme, Esq., M.A. late Fellow of Trinity College.

Lectures on this science had been given for some years previous, under the sanction of the University. They attempt to analyse the original and efficient causes of national prosperity—to shew by what measures of the legislature, and by what conduct of individuals in private life, it is augmented or diminished—and to assist the reader of history, in explaining the phænomena of the strength or weakness, the rise or fall, of states.

They are of an elementary and popular nature, requiring no previous knowledge of the subject. They are intended to facilitate the study of a science, hitherto inaccessible without the most arduous perseverance; to simplify the order, explain the obscurities, and point out the errors, of A. Smith's Inquiry into the Wealth of Nations; to combine with his discoveries what the experience of subsequent events, and the researches of subsequent authors, have taught, and to place some part of the subject in a point of view different from what any writer has done. Their plan is—1st, To trace the history of national wealth from the rudest to the richest state of society, and to examine each change as it naturally arises in the progress of opulence and civilization; 2dly, Briefly to explain the systems of the ancients, of Dr Paley, of the French economists, and what is called the commercial system; and 3dly, To explain the principles of taxation and finance.

LADY MARGARET'S PREACHER.

This preachership, value £10. per annum, was founded in 1503, and, according to the grant, is to be retained for only three years but that practice is now dispensed with, and the preacher continues without a fresh election. When a vacancy does occur, an election must take place within fourteen days. The electors are the Vice-Chancellor and the Heads of Houses. Doctors, Inceptors, and Bachelors in Divinity, only are eligible to this office, and one of Christ's college is, cæteris paribus, to be preferred. The preacher is now required by his office, to preach a Concio ad Clerum, before the University, on the day preceding Easter Term.

SADLERIAN LECTURES.

The following seventeen Algebra Lectureships were founded by Lady Sadler, and the lectures commenced in 1710. The Lecturers, who are required to be Bachelors of Arts at least, are appointed and chosen by the Heads, who are the trustees, and by the Vice-chancellor for the time being, from all the colleges.—The stipend of the Lecturers is £40 per annum each, Emmanuel excepted, which is £60. Every Lecturer produces a certificate, signed by the Master of his college, testifying that the lectures have been by him regularly given, before payment of the salary, which is half-yearly, at Emmanuel Lodge. The Lectureships are tenable only for ten years, and no one can at any time be elected, unless previously examined and approved by the Mathematical Professor.

MR HULSE'S FOUNDATIONS.

The Rev. John Hulse was educated at St John's college, became Bachelor of Arts in 1728, and died in 1789, bequeathing his estates in Cheshire to the University for the advancement and reward of religious learning. The various purposes to which he appropriated the revenue of these estates, are—first, the maintenance of two Scholars at St John's college—secondly, to recompense the exertions of the Hulsean prizeman—thirdly, to found and support the office of Christian Advocate—and fourthly, that of the Hulsean Lecturer, or Christian Preacher. The salaries of these offices vary according to the annual rent of Mr Hulse's estates, different proportions of which are set apart for each, the largest belonging to the Lecturer.

The trustees and electors of Mr Hulse's bequest are, the Vice-Chancellor for the time being, the Master of Trinity college, and the Master of St John's college. If the Master of Trinity or St John's be Vice-Chancellor, the Greek Professor supplies his place. The Bishop of Ely is visitor, with power to determine, in reason and equity, in all disputes.[1]

CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

Extract from Mr Hulse's Will, dated July 21, 1777.

The person to be elected into such office (on Christmas Day, or within seven days after, for a term not exceeding five or six years) to be a learned and ingenious person of the degree of Master of Arts, or of Bachelor or Doctor of Divinity, of the age of 30 years, and resident in the University; who is to compose yearly, whilst in office, some proper and judicious answer or answers every year, to all such new and popular, or other cavils and objections, against the Christian or revealed religion, or against the religion of nature, as may, in the opinion of the trustees, or any two of them, seem best or most proper to deserve or require an answer, whether the same be ancient or modern objections, but chiefly such as are most modern, and especially such as have appeared in the English language of late years against Christianity, and which may not seem to have received a full and sufficient answer, if any such there shall be, unto the year preceding his election; as likewise to be ready to satisfy any real scruples or objections in a private way, that may be brought from time to time by any fair and candid enquirer against the same: such writer to be called the Christian Advocate, and such his written answers to be in English, and only against notorious infidels, whether atheists or deists, not descending to any particular controversies or sects among Christians themselves, except some new or dangerous error, either of superstition or enthusiasm, as of popery or methodism, either in opinion or practice, shall prevail: in which case only it may be necessary for that time to write or reason against the same; and such treatise or treatises to be every year printed, the expense whereof shall be deducted out of the temporary stipend or salary; and the remainder of the said stipend or salary, or rents and profits shall be paid or given every year to the several authors successively as a reward for the same; but if the person chosen into the said office shall neglect or not discharge his office as he ought to do, he is to forfeit and lose his salary for that year, which is, in such case, to be equally divided between the six senior fellows of St John's college.

The Christian Advocate is not afterwards eligible to the office of Hulsean Lecturer.

HULSEAN LECTURER OR CHRISTIAN PREACHER.

Salary, nearly £300 per annum.

The election to this office is to take place on Christmas Day, or within eight days after. The persons eligible are, Masters of Arts of the University of Cambridge, under forty years of age. The office is only annual, but the same individual may, under certain circumstances, be continued for any successive number of years, not exceeding six. The duty of the Lecturer is, by Mr. Hulse's will, to preach and print twenty sermons in each year, ten in April, May, and the former part of June, and ten in September, October, and the former part of November. The subject of the discourses is—to shew the evidence for revealed religion, or to explain some of the most difficult texts or obscure parts of Holy Scripture,—or both. The time and place of delivery are to be in Great St Mary's church, and either on the Friday mornings or the Sunday afternoons of each week in the above-mentioned period; and if the duties be not discharged by the person appointed, his salary is divided amongst the six senior fellows of St John's college. The Preacher is not afterwards eligible to the office of Christian Advocate.

By a decree of the Court of Chancery in 1830, it was ordered that the number of Lectures shall be reduced to eight, and that the time of printing be enlarged for the term of one year from the delivery of the last Lecture.

Various circumstances prevented any appointment taking place until the year 1819, when the first election was made, and Lectures have since been delivered and published in the following order:

1820 [1] Chr. Benson, M.A. Trin. The evidences of Christianity, as derived from the answer of our Lord to the disciples of John the Baptist: from the Predictions of Christ, and from the Propagation of Christianity.

1824, 1825 No Lecturer appointed.

1827 Temple Chevallier, M.A. Cath. The Proofs of Divine Power and Wisdom derived from the study of Astronomy, and on the Evidence, Doctrines, and Precepts of Revealed Religion.

TRAVELLING BACHELORS.

William Worts, M.A. of Caius College, formerly one of the Esquire Bedells of this University, gave two pensions of £100 per annum each, to two junior Bachelors of Arts, [1]nominated by the Master of the college whose turn it is to present, and elected by the Senate, at which election the Vice-Chancellor and the Proctors stand in scrutiny, the senior of whom, after reading the votes, declares the election. The Bachelors are required to visit foreign countries, to take different routes, and severally to write, during their travels, at least one Latin letter in each year, descriptive of the customs, curiosities, &c. &c.: which letters as soon as received by the Vice-Chancellor, are laid before the Senate, and afterwards deposited in the Public Library.

The income of these travellers is continued for the space of three years, the period they are obliged to be absent.

WHITEHALL PREACHERS.

The Whitehall Preacherships were established by George I. in the year 1724. The preachers are 24 in number, twelve from each University. They must be Fellows of colleges during the whole time they hold the office, to which they are appointed by the Bishop of London, as Dean of her Majesty's Chapel.

1 The nomination respecting the colleges is according to the cycle of Proctors.

COMBINATION PAPERS, &c.

The Sermons before the University at Great St Mary's, are preached by Bachelors in Divinity and Masters of Arts who have completed their first year, beginning with the former. The two papers, one published in July, and the other in December, are made out by the Esquire Bedells and signed by the Vice-Chancellor. The Prior Combinatio contains the Sunday morning turns, and is made after the following order:—The colleges are divided into seven classes, each of which (Trinity Hall and Downing excepted, which send no morning preacher) provides a preacher every seventh turn. In the first three colleges the name is omitted, in the remaining twelve the preacher's name and college are set down.

1. King's.
2. Trin.
3. Joh.

4. Pet. / Chr. / Magd.

5. Queens'. / Pemb. / Cath.

6. Corpus. / Clare. / Sid.

7. Caius. / Jes. / Emm.

Persons of sixty years of age, and upwards, are excused from preaching.

The Posterior Combinatio contains the Sunday afternoon turns and Saints' days, and is made according to the order in which the members stand in the Registrary's book. The names as well as the colleges are here mentioned.

The Combination Papers are, immediately on their publication, sent to the Tutors of the respective colleges, who communicate to the persons named in the Paper the time appointed for them to preach. Substitutes procured by such as omit to preach in their turn, receive three guineas a sermon. The Vice-Chancellor appoints the preachers for the Lent and Summer Assizes, and for extraordinary Fasts and Thanksgivings. The payment is five guineas a sermon.

SELECT PREACHERS.

A Grace having passed the Senate: "That those to whom the Sunday afternoon turns at St Mary's, and the turns for Christmas Day and Good Friday, are assigned, shall, from the beginning of November to the end of May, provide no other substitute than such as are appointed in conformity with that Grace:"—The following persons have been elected, each for the month to which his name is affixed:—

MEMBER'S PRIZEMEN.

The Representatives in Parliament of this University give four annual prizes of fifteen guineas each, which are adjudged by the Vice-Chancellor and Heads of colleges, to two Bachelors of Arts, and two Undergraduates, who compose the best Dissertations in Latin prose, which are read publicly by them in the Senate-House on a day appointed near to the Commencement, and afterwards sent by them to the aforesaid Members. Of these prizes, two are open to all Bachelors of Arts, without distinction of years, who are not of sufficient standing to take the degree of M. A.;—and the other two are open to all Undergraduates who shall have resided not less than seven terms at the time when the exercises are to be sent in. The subjects are delivered out at the end of Michaelmas Term, and each candidate is to send his exercise privately to the Vice-Chancellor, on or before the 30th of April, in the same manner as the exercises for the Chancellor's Medal. These prizes, confined until 1827 to Senior and Middle Bachelors, were established by the Hon. EDWARD FINCH and the Hon. THOMAS TOWNSHEND, and have been continued by the succeeding Members.

CRAVEN'S SCHOLARS.

JOHN, LORD CRAVEN, founded two classical Scholarships of £25 per annum each, arising from estates vested in the hands of six trustees. The Cambridge trustees are, the Bishop of Peterborough, the Bishop of Bath and Wells, and the Master of Trinity college. Electors, the Vice-Chancellor, the five Regius Professors, and the Public Orator. Whenever a vacancy occurs, any undergraduate may offer himself a candidate by signifying his intention in a Latin letter addressed to the above electors, within the time limited by the Programma which declares the vacancy. If any one of the name or kindred of the founder should be in indigent circumstances, and a scholar of this University, he, (by the Will) is to be preferred. This annuity cannot be enjoyed after fourteen years standing in the University, nor by any one who may attain to preferment of double its value. The possessors are not allowed to be absent from the University above three months in the year, without the express permission of the Vice-Chancellor or the major part of the electors then resident in the University.

2 The Examiners also gave notice, that should any poem appear to them to possess distinguished merit, a premium of 100*l.* would be adjudged. The above premium was this year awarded to Mr HANKINSON.

These rules have been modified in part by the regulations enacted in 1817; which will be found at the end of this list of University Scholarships.

By a decree of the Court of Chancery, in 1819, the income of the Scholars has been augmented to £50 per annum each, and three additional Scholarships founded, under the same regulations as the preceding, except that they cannot be held for more than seven years.

Every Scholar shall reside nine calendar months in the year, except he be a graduate in Physic, or one who designs to profess the same; in that case his residence may be dispensed with at the University, provided he produces once every year a certificate signed by one Hospital Physician in London, testifying his regular conduct and diligent attendance with the said Physician at the Hospital. 2d. BELL's SCHOLARSHIPS.

The Rev. William Bell, D.D. Prebendary of the collegiate church of Westminster, and late Fellow of Magdalene college in this University, in the year 1810, transferred £15,200 stock, 3 per cents., to the University of Cambridge, in trust, to found eight new Scholarships. The Scholars to be the sons or the orphans of those Clergymen of the Church of England, whose circumstances and situations are altogether such as not to enable them to bear the whole expense of sending their sons to this University. On the receipt of this benefaction, Scholars were elected in such a manner, and for such a period, that two Scholarships will become vacant every year.

The regulations of these Scholarships are, that candidates for them must be in their first year of admission, i. e. they must have been admitted between the last and last but one Commencement preceding the October Term in which they begin to reside; for example, candidates in 1839 must have been admitted between the Commencements of 1837 and 1838, and so on; and every Scholar elected on this foundation shall promise in writing to take the degree of B.A. in the most regular way. Where personal merits are equal, those are to be preferred who stand most in need of assistance. If any Scholar shall degrade or determine, and go out in a bye term, or declare for law, or be rusticated or expelled, his Scholarship shall be ipso facto vacant. The profits to continue for four years, and no more. No persons shall ever have two sons Scholars, nor shall there be two orphans, brothers, Scholars at the same time. If no sons or orphans of clergymen shall be found properly qualified for the Scholarships, then, and then only, the electors shall elect the sons of laymen, being undergraduates, who stand in need of assistance. No Scholar to be elected from King's College, or from Trinity Hall.

The electors are, the Vice-Chancellor, the Regius Professors of Divinity and the Civil Law, the Lucasian Professor of Mathematics and the Public Orator: and the election takes place on the Friday after Midlent Sunday.

In the following list, wherever two or more gentlemen are recorded as æquales, their literary merits were considered by the electors as nearly equal. In this case the choice of the Scholar or Scholars was made simply on the ground of pecuniary circumstances, according to the express direction of the Supplemental clause to Dr Bell's Deed of foundation.

2.—The Vice-Chancellor or his deputy, the Public Orator, the Greek Professor, and two members of the Senate, to be appointed by the different colleges in their turn, shall be the electors. Two colleges, according to the cycle of Proctors commencing with the year 1817, shall respectively nominate an elector. But if the Vice-Chancellor, the Public Orator, and the Greek Professor, or any two of them, be members of the same college, no elector in that case shall be appointed by the college according to the cycle of Proctors, but the appointment shall be made by the University. Or if the Public Orator or the Greek Professor shall be prevented by illness or otherwise from attending the examination, or if the colleges shall have neglected to signify to the Vice-Chancellor the appointment of the electors according to their respective turns, then deputies shall be appointed by Grace.

3.—The first examination commenced on Monday, January, 17, 1814; and the Vice-Chancellor or his deputy, the Public Orator, and the Greek Professor, shall, in future, on or before the 1st day of December after every vacancy, cause a writing, under their hands, declaring the said vacancy and the time of examination, to be affixed to the door of the Public Schools; and they shall notify the same to the two colleges which are to nominate the electors, and the Heads of those colleges, or their deputies, shall, within one week after such notices, signify to the Vice-Chancellor the names of the electors so appointed.

4.—The examination, which shall be solely classical, shall always take place during the week of the public examinations in the Senate-House, previous to the Bachelors' Commencement, and the Scholar elected shall receive all the dividends or rents that shall have become due subsequent to the last vacancy.

5.—Any undergraduate, of whatever rank, may be a candidate for the Pitt Scholarship, provided he be not of more than three years' standing from the time of his first residence; but he shall, on or before the 31st day of December preceding the examination, signify, in a Latin epistle to each of the electors, his intention of becoming a candidate, and in case he shall omit sending such an epistle, he shall be considered as incapable of being elected at that time.

6.—The Pitt Scholar shall not hold any other University Scholarship.

7.—Every Scholar shall, during the time of his holding this Scholarship, reside the major part of each term; and if he shall not have kept such residence, he shall vacate his Scholarship, unless he has been prevented by illness or any other cause which shall be approved of by the Vice-Chancellor, the Public Orator, and the Greek Professor.

TYRWHITT's HEBREW SCHOLARSHIPS.

The Rev. Robert Tyrwhitt, M.A. late Fellow of Jesus college, who died in 1818, by his Will bequeathed £4000 Navy 5 per cents. for the promotion and encouragement of Hebrew learning, the mode and disposition of this bequest to be left to the University.

The Senate in 1818 decreed the foundation of three Scolarships, which decree was revised in 1826, and the number increased to six; this was again revised in 1836, when the following Regulations passed the Senate:

Decree of the Senate, April 29, 1836.

1.—That there shall in future be six Scholarships, called Tyrwhitt's Hebrew Scholarships.

2.—That the candidates for these Scholarships shall be, first, (actualiter) Bachelors of Arts or Inceptors who are not of sufficient standing to be created Master of Arts; or, secondly, Students in the Civil Law or Medicine, of not less than four or more than seven years' standing, who shall be required, before they are admitted to become candidates, to produce certificates from their respective Professors, that they have kept the exercises necessary for the degree of Bachelor of Law or Physic.

3.—That out of the net annual proceeds of Mr Tyrwhitt's Benefaction the sum of £150 be divided among the six Scholars, in the proportions hereinafter specified.

4.—That the electors to these Scholarships shall be the Vice-Chancellor, the Regius Professor of Hebrew, the Professor of Arabic, and two Members of the Senate, to be nominated by the different colleges according to the cycle of Proctors.

5.—That if the Regius Professor of Hebrew, or the Professor of Arabic, or both of them, shall decline, or be prevented from examining, a deputy or deputies shall be appointed by a Grace of the Senate.

6.—That if it shall happen at any time, that two of the offices severally constituting electors are united in the same person, the deputy for the elector in respect of one of the said offices shall be the Lord Almoner's Reader in Arabic; but if in any case the Lord Almoner's Reader shall decline the office of deputy examiner, or shall be prevented from undertaking the said office, a deputy examiner shall be appointed in his place by a Grace of the Senate.

7.—That if the Vice-Chancellor, the Regius Professor of Hebrew, the Professor of Arabic, or any two of them, shall be members of the same college, no elector shall in that case be appointed by that college according to the cycle of Proctors; but the appointment shall be made by a Grace of the Senate.

8.—That the appointment, when requisite, of an examiner or examiners by Grace of the Senate take place at the first Congregation in the Lent Term of the year, and that the examiner or examiners so appointed continue in office until the first Congregation in the Lent Term of the following year.

9.—That the examination for these Scholarships commence annually on the second Wednesday in May; and that persons intending to be candidates send in their names to the Vice-Chancellor on, or before, the first day of May.

10.—That two Scholars be elected in each year; that the first in the order of merit of these two, receive an annual stipend of £30., and the second an annual stipend of £20., for three years from the time of election. That in case of equality of merit the stipend of each be £25.

11.—That should it appear in any case to the majority of the electors that no one of the candidates is deserving of a Scholarship with the stipend of £30 a year, it shall be competent for them to elect one Scholar only, with the stipend of £20 a year.

12.—That in case there shall be a deficiency of deserving candidates for the two Scholarships in any year, the electors shall have power, in the second or third succeeding year, to elect additional Scholars into the vacancy, or vacancies, thus occasioned; after which time the stipends, belonging to the Scholarships which have not been filled up, shall be appropriated in the manner appointed in the next regulation.

13.—That the residue of the net annual proceeds of Mr Tyrwhitt's benefaction, not already disposed of by the third regulation, together with all accumulations which may arise under the twelfth regulation, shall form a fund to be expended in the promotion and encouragement of Hebrew Literature, at the discretion of the examiners, provided that not more than a third part of such fund be expended in any year.

14.—That the Accounts of this Bequest be kept distinct from the general Accounts of the University, and be annually audited by the electors in Michaelmas Term before the first of November: and being so audited, shall be laid on the Registrary's Table in the Senate-House at the next Congregation, for the inspection of the Senate.

15.—That these Regulations shall be in force until the first Congregation in Lent Term, 1842.

LUMLEY EXHIBITIONS.

The Right Honourable Elizabeth, Viscountess Lumley, by a deed bearing date October 8, 1657, directed certain Trustees therein named, to pay and allow yearly to ten poor Scholars of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, educated in the School founded by her at Thornton in the county of York, or in default of such, to any other poor Scholars, not exceeding ten in number (subsequently reduced to five,) who should be nominated thereto by the respective Convocations of the said Universities for the time being; the sum of £4 a year each, to be continued until they should have time to become graduates in one of the said Universities.

By an Order of the Court of Chancery, issued in the year 1820, it was directed that, in consequence of the increased rents these five Exhibitions should in future be £15 per annum each, and that the rents not called for should accumulate.

REGULATIONS

THE UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS.

[Confirmed by a Grace of the Senate, 1817.]

On the last Sunday in November in every year there shall be a meeting at the Vice-Chancellor's of the electors to the Craven's and Davies's Scholarships, and of the permanent electors to the Pitt Scholarship, to consider whether any one and which of those Scholarships shall be then declared vacant; and the examination for such vacant Scholarship shall commence in the last week of January following.

At this meeting, of the Scholarships which shall have become voidable by non-residence, that shall be declared vacant which has been held for the longest time; provided that no one Scholarship shall have become necessarily void before the day of this meeting, in which case no other shall be declared vacant for that year.

When it is decided at this meeting which of the Scholarships is to be declared vacant, the rules pointed out by the founder for notice, examination, and election (where any such rules are particularly prescribed by the founder), will be pursued, so as to bring on the examination in the last week of January. Where no such regulations have been prescribed by the founder, the notice of the vacancy is to be affixed to the door of the Public Schools, on or before the 1st of December; and the candidates are to deliver their Latin Epistles to each of the examiners, on or before the 31st of December, as in the case of the Pitt Scholarship; and all prior regulations made by the University, inconsistent with these, are hereby repealed.

With respect to non-residence, it is to be understood that the holders of the Craven, Davies's and Pitt Scholarships, shall, generally speaking, have such leave of absence, as will enable them to retain their Scholarships until the holder becomes senior Scholar according to the above regulations.

But in case of any instance of non-residence in the University, for one whole term, before the Bachelor's degree, the electors, at their meeting, shall have the power of declaring vacant the Scholarship of the person so non-resident in preference to that of the senior Scholar: if it appear to them that such non-residence is without sufficient excuse.

UNIVERSITY AND COLLEGE PRIZES.

The prizes for the encouragement of literature, free and open competition for the whole University, amount to upwards of £1,300, three-fourths of which are given for Classics and English Composition, the remainder for Mathematics.

The amount of the annual prizes in the different colleges is about £600, two-thirds of which are given for the encouragement of Classical Literature.

CHARITIES.

CRANE's CHARITY FOR THE RELIEF OF SICK SCHOLARS.

John Crane, Apothecary in Cambridge, and M.A. died in 1654, and left by his Will money to buy an estate of £62 per annum[1], to be settled on the five corporations following, viz. the University of Cambridge, the towns of Wisbech, Cambridge, Lynn, and Ipswich[2]. The rents to be received in order, and to be applied by the University in their turn towards the relief of sick Scholars. The distribution to be made by the Vice-Chancellor, the Professors of Divinity, the Civil Law, and Physic, and the chief Apothecary of the town. The Master of Caius college is requested to assist the Distributors. Meetings of the Distributors, to consider and determine the claims of applicants for the benefit of this charity, take place on the third Tuesday of May, and the third Tuesday of November, in every year, and all applications of Scholars must be made by the Tutors of their respective colleges.

The gift to the town was to accumulate until it amounted to £200, which sum was to be disposed of in loans of £20 each, bearing no interest, to ten young men, in order to set them up in trade, they giving good security to repay the same at the end of twenty years. As each sum is repaid, it is to be again lent out in the same manner, and the persons to whom the loans are made are to be selected by the Vice-Chancellor, the three Professors of Divinity, the Civil Law, and Physic, the chief Apothecary, the Mayor, Recorder, and three Aldermen, or greater part of them.

After the sum of £200 had been set apart, Mr Crane directed that the rents of the estates should be employed in the relief of persons confined for debt, and of poor men and women of good character, at the discretion of the above mentioned Distributors, who hold half yearly meetings in May and November to consider the claims of applicants.

FREE GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

Stephen Perse, M.D. Senior Fellow of Caius College, by a clause in his Will[3], dated September 27th, 1615, bequeathed certain property in charge to his executors, to purchase divers grounds and tenements, to be applied, amongst other purposes, to that of erecting and establishing within three years (if possible), after his decease, a convenient house capable of containing one hundred scholars to be used for a Free Grammar School, with apartments for a Master and Usher, who are required to be graduates in this University; the former a Master, the latter a Bachelor of Arts at least. The Scholars are to be natives of Cambridge, Barnwell, Chesterton, or Trumpington, and educated gratis. In case of a vacancy in the place of a Master or Usher, preference is to be given to one who has received his education at the School.

1 The present rent of the estate is above 800*l.* per annum.

2 The first payment was made about the year 1660.

3 A Copy of the Will is in Baker's MSS. vol. xxvi. p. 134.

Scholars educated three years at least at this School, are to be admitted (cæteris paribus), before all others, to the Perse Fellowships and Scholarships at Caius College.

Master, Peter Mason, M.A. St John's.
Usher, George Barber, M.A. Queens'.

In St Peter's Parish.

This institution was founded in 1808, for the education of the poor of this town and the adjacent villages. It was originally established upon the plan of Dr Bell and Mr Lancaster, but is now placed wholly upon that of the former, as adopted by the National Society. The children are admitted between the ages of 6 and 11, and are instructed in reading, writing, and arithmetic, on paying 6*d.* per month each. They are also instructed in the catechism, and parts of the Liturgy of the Church of England.

The institution is under the management of Governors, who are constituted by a donation of ten guineas, or an annual subscription of one guinea. By means of a liberal subscription they have been enabled to purchase a piece of ground, and to build a spacious school-room, calculated to hold 300 boys; and by the aid of a donation of £150 from the University, donations from some of the colleges, the Members of the University, and other individuals, a house has been built for the Master contiguous to the School. A meeting of the Governors is held on the first Thursday in every month, at 2 o'clock, in the school-room. A sermon for the benefit of this institution is preached annually in the spring; and the yearly statement published in June, may be had of Messrs Deightons, booksellers, by whom subscriptions are received, and by any of the bankers in Cambridge.

OLD CHARITY SCHOOLS,

Commonly called Whiston's Charity Schools.

This institution was set on foot in the year 1703, and is supported by voluntary contributions. It owed much of its first establishment to the activity of William Whiston, M.A. and amongst its earliest patrons are found the names of Sir Isaac Newton, Bishop Patrick, Dr Bentley, &c. The design of it was to educate charity children of both sexes.

The New Free School in St Peter's Parish, for the education of boys, having been united to the National Society, June 22, 1813, it was thought expedient to transfer the boys to that institution, to which this allows in consequence the sum of £30 annually. In the year 1816, a new school-room for the girls was built in King-street, capable of containing 300 children, and likewise a house for the mistress, and the establishment was put on the plan of the National Society, to which it was then united.

The girls are taught reading, writing, something of accounts, needle-work, and knitting. They learn the catechism, and other religious books, and are required to attend divine service in their parishes on Sundays. The Lord Bishop of Ely is the patron. The Ministers and Lecturers of the parishes in Cambridge are the governors. There is also a committee of ladies, who superintend the detail of the School. The governors and subscribers nominate the girls who are educated; each guinea subscriber has the right of nominating four children, or ten guineas paid at one time entitles the donor to recommend four children annually.

Subscriptions are thankfully received by the Treasurer; by the Governors; by Messrs Deightons, booksellers; or by any of the bankers in Cambridge.

ADDENBROOKE's HOSPITAL.

John Addenbrooke, M.D. formerly Fellow of Catharine Hall, in the year 1719, left about £4000 to erect and maintain a small Physical Hospital: but the money being insufficient for the support of it, an act of Parliament was obtained to make it a general Hospital. It was opened at Michaelmas 1766, and the number of patients annually cured and relieved is upon an average 1700. The receipts of late years have been about £2000 per annum, of which about £900 arises from the permanent funds, and the remainder from the voluntary contributions of the public.

Mr John Bowtell, late a bookbinder and stationer in Cambridge, by his Will, bearing date the 22d day of September, 1813, bequeathed a legacy to the Hospital in the following words:—"I give and bequeath unto the President and Governors of Addenbrooke's Hospital, in the town of Cambridge, £7000 in the 3 per cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities, to be by them applied in enlarging the said Hospital, if necessary, for the purpose of receiving persons of other descriptions than those of sick patients, such as poor married women during their confinement, or otherwise, as they shall see fit and advisable."

Between three and four thousand pounds of this sum have been appropriated to the erection and furnishing of two wings to the Hospital. These are now completed and open for the reception of patients.

Benefactors of 20 guineas or upwards are governors for life; annual subscribers of two guineas or upwards are governors during payment. Each person may recommend patients according to the amount of the subscription.

An accurate statement of the accounts and a list of subscribers is printed annually, and may be had gratis by any of the contributors, at Messrs Deightons, or at the Hospital.

Benefactions and annual subscriptions are thankfully received by Messrs Mortlocks, bankers; Miss Wilkinson, Wisbech; Mr Edwards, Ely; and by the Apothecary and Matron of the Hospital.

This Hospital having been recently enlarged so as to contain upwards of 100 beds, Certificates of attendance upon the practice in it are recognized by the Royal Colleges of Physicians and Surgeons, and by the Society of Apothecaries in London.

UNIVERSITY ALMS HOUSES.

THESE Alms Houses, situated in King Street, were founded in 1505, by MATTHEW STOKYS, M.A. of Caius College, one of the Esquire Bedells, for six poor women, who are appointed by the Vice-Chancellor. The value of the original endowment was 7*d*. a week for each poor woman, and 8*s*. a piece at Stourbridge Fair, to buy them frieze gowns and linen veils; but between the years 1695 and 1796 the annual stipend to each person was only 10*s*. In the latter year, a Grace passed the Senate for the increase of the stipend from 10*s*. to 50*s*. Since that time it has been materially increased, and for some years each person has been in the receipt of £9. 2*s*. per annum.

PERSE's ALMS HOUSES.

The Alms Houses, S.E. corner of Free School Lane, near the Botanic Garden, for six poor single persons, not less than forty years of age, and belonging to the parishes of St Edward, St Michael, and in failure of such being found there, of St Benedict, in the town of Cambridge, were built and endowed with a salary of £4 per annum to each person, by Dr Perse, whose numerous acts of charity and beneficence are justly recorded on a handsome monument in the Chapel of Caius College. The present income of each person is £26 per annum.

STOREY's ALMS HOUSES.

Edward Storey, gent. left by Will (1692) all his property for founding Alms Houses: one for four clergymen's widows, another for two widows and one maiden of the parish of St Giles, and three maidens of the parish of the Holy Trinity, in the town of Cambridge. "Every of which widows and maidens to be forty years of age at the least, and of sober life and conversation. And to each widow and maiden a house to live in, and £10 per annum, payable half-yearly; and to each, one gown, two pair of shoes, and one pair of stockings."—Dr Goddard, late Master of Clare Hall, left a legacy to augment the stipends of the four clergymen's widows, with which the trustees purchased £410 stock, 4 per cent. All the widows receive yearly other perquisites.

Mr J. Merrill, late bookseller in this town, left by Will (Oct. 1805) £1667 in the 3 per cents. to this charity.

The Trustees are,

The Rev. William Hodgson, D.D. St Peter's.
The Rev. G. Thackeray, D.D. Provost of King's.
The Rev. W. French, D.D. Master of Jesus.

Steward and Receiver.

Mr Frederick Cory.

KING's COLLEGE ALMS HOUSES.

These houses, adjoining the college, are for four poor persons, who are allowed £10 per annum each, and receive the remains of the Scholars' commons.

QUEENS' COLLEGE ALMS HOUSES.

These Alms Houses, situate in Queens' Lane, are appropriated to eight poor widows, appointed by the President of Queens'. Each person receives 2*s.* and a pound of meat a week, and a chaldron of coals every year. They have also an additional gratuity of £1 on the 25th of September, and 2*s.* 6*d.* on the 24th of December.

N.B.—Most of the colleges have certain funds appropriated for charitable purposes.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY.

For the supplying this and certain other Libraries with books provision was made by statute of the 8th of Queen Anne, entitled "An Act for the Encouragement of Learning," to which certain provisions were added by an Act of the 41st of George III., and still further by an Act passed in the 56th year of the same reign, in which last it is enacted, "that eleven printed copies of the whole of every book, and of every volume thereof, upon the paper upon which the largest number or impression of such book shall be printed for sale, together with all maps and prints belonging thereto, which, from and after the passing of this Act, shall be printed and published, on demand thereof being made in writing to, or left at, the place of abode of the publisher or publishers thereof, at any time within twelve months next after the publication thereof, under the hand of the warehouse-keeper of the Company of Stationers, or the librarian or other person thereto authorized by the persons or body politic and corporate, proprietors or managers of the libraries following; videlicet, the British Museum, Sion-college, the Bodleian library at Oxford, the public library at Cambridge, the library of the faculty of Advocates at Edinburgh, the libraries of the four Universities of Scotland, Trinity college library, and the King's Inns library at Dublin, or so many of such eleven copies as shall be respectively demanded on behalf of such libraries respectively, shall be delivered by the publisher or publishers thereof respectively, within one month after demand made thereof in writing as aforesaid, to the warehouse-keeper of the said Company of Stationers for the time being; which copies the said warehouse-keeper shall and he is hereby required to receive at the hall of the said Company, for the use of the library for which such demand shall be made, within such twelve months as aforesaid; and the said warehouse-keeper is hereby required within one month after any such book or volume shall be so delivered to him as aforesaid, to deliver the same for the use of such library: and if any publisher, or the warehouse-keeper of the said Company of Stationers, shall not observe the directions of this Act therein, that then he and they so making default in not delivering or receiving the said eleven printed copies as aforesaid, shall forfeit besides the value of the said printed copies, the sum of five pounds for each copy not so delivered or received, together with the full costs of suit: the same to be recovered by the person or persons, or body politic or corporate, proprietors or managers of the library for the use whereof such copy or copies ought to have been delivered or received: for which penalties and value such person or persons, body politic or corporate, is or are now hereby authorized to sue by action of debt or other proper action in any Court of Record in the United Kingdom.

"And be it further enacted, That no such printed copy or copies shall be demanded by or delivered to or for the use of any of the libraries herein before mentioned, of the Second Edition, or of any subsequent edition of any book or books so demanded and delivered as aforesaid, unless the same shall contain additions or alterations; and in case any edition after the first, of any book so demanded and delivered as aforesaid, shall contain any addition or alteration, no printed copy or copies thereof shall be demanded or delivered as aforesaid, if a printed copy of such additions or alterations only, printed in an uniform manner with the former edition of such book, be delivered to each of the libraries aforesaid, for whose use a copy of the former edition shall have been demanded and delivered as aforesaid; provided also, that the copy of every book that shall be demanded by the British Museum, shall be delivered of the best paper on which such work shall be printed."

To the same purpose the rents of the University's estate at Ovington in Norfolk are applied. This estate was bought with the money given to the University in 1666, by Tobias Rustat, Esq. M.A Yeoman of the Robes to King Charles II. to be laid out in land, the rents to be applied in the purchase of choice books for the Public Library, and the income of it is nearly £200 per annum.

William Worts, M.A. Fellow of Caius college, formerly one of the Esquire Bedells of this University, ordered by his Will that the annual surplus of the rents and profits of his estate at Landbeach, in this county, producing about £500 per annum, after the discharge of the other outgoings (see p. 123), should be applied to the use of the Public Library. The Rev. John Manistre, M.A. late Fellow of King's college, lately bequeathed £5000, to purchase books. A quarterly contribution of one shilling and sixpence each from all members of the University, excepting Sizars, is likewise made for the support of the Library.

The management of the Library is committed to Syndics, who are the Vice-Chancellor, the Heads of colleges, all doctors in each faculty, the Orator, and all public Professors, the Proctors and Scrutators. They meet in the Library on the first Monday after the division of every Term, and oftener if necessary; and to them, or the major part, not less than five, of whom the Vice-Chancellor must always be one, full powers are committed for the better regulating of the same.

All members of the Senate, Bachelors in the Civil Law and Physic, and Bachelors of Arts, are entitled to the use of the Library under the following restrictions, enacted by a Grace of the Senate, March 16, 1829:

That every Tutor of a College (being a Member of the Senate, or a Bachelor of Law or Physick) have the privilege of obtaining, for each resident Bachelor of Arts, who is his pupil, any number of volumes not exceeding five, from the Public Library.

That each order for the volumes so obtained, bear the titles of the books and their class marks; and be dated and subscribed as follows:

For M. N. B.A. —— College.

184 C.D. Tutor.

That the books so obtained be not taken out of the Library till the day after that on which the Library is re-opened for the quarter; and that they be returned not later than the day before the next quarter-day.

That the Tutor be responsible to the Library for the books so obtained, and for the penalties prescribed by Grace of the Senate, June 11, 1751, if they are not returned at the time mentioned in these regulations.

That this privilege be not allowed to any B.A. before the second Tripos day after admission ad respondendum quæstioni.

The Syndics have at various times issued regulations to the following effect;

That no person be allowed to have in his possession at any one time, more than ten volumes belonging to the Library, except by a dispensation from the Vice-Chancellor and the Librarian, to continue in force no longer than to the end of the quarter in which it shall be granted; but upon fresh application it may be renewed by the same authority.

That no one take or borrow any book out of the Library without first delivering to one of the Library-Keepers a note for the same, in his own hand-writing, expressing his name and college, and the year and day of the month on which such book is taken or borrowed, on pain of forfeiting five pounds, or double the value of such book.

That the Library-Keepers preserve carefully all such notes, till the book so taken out be returned again to the Library, duly entering the same in a book to be kept for that purpose, together with the day of the said return, and any damage done to any book, on pain of five shillings for every omission, to be paid by them, or any of them.

That every one who shall borrow or take any book out of the Library, return it thither again on or before the next of the four following days, viz. Michaelmas-day, St Thomas, Lady-day, and Midsummer-day, or oftener, if the Syndics see occasion and require it, under the penalty of two shillings for every folio or quarto, and one shilling for every book of less size: the penalty to be repeated every month till the book be returned, or another of the same edition and equal value placed in its room.

That a list of the books omitted to be returned at the end of the quarter, together with the name of the borrower, be suspended in some public place in the Library.

That no person shall have more than five volumes out of the lock up classes of the Library, by a note countersigned by the Vice-Chancellor; and that such books be returned at the end of each quarter, as all other books are, under double penalties.

That for the purpose of allowing the Librarian sufficient time to inspect the books at the end of each quarter, all books be kept in the Library on the day appointed for their return, and the whole of the day following.

That no manuscript whatever be taken out of the Library, without a Grace for its removal being obtained from the Senate.

That no volume containing a collection of prints or drawings, shall be taken out of the Library on any account whatever.

That every year, on the Friday next after the Commencement, or oftener if they see occasion, the Syndics shall meet in the Senate-House, or elsewhere, at the appointment of the Vice-Chancellor, to give orders, and appoint inspectors, for a general survey of the Library the Monday following. These inspectors, with the Librarian, shall make a full and true catalogue of all books wanting or much damaged, expressing in whose custody such books are, or by whom damaged, and deliver the same, signed by them, to the Vice-Chancellor.

That all books in this catalogue be returned to the Library perfect and undamaged, or others of the same edition and equal value, placed in their room there within thirty days after notice given, on pain of forfeiting five pounds for every volume not so returned, or the full value of the same, to be paid by him who stands charged with it; or, in case no one shall be charged with it, by the Library-Keepers or their deputies, or any of them; unless it shall appear to the Vice-Chancellor that such loss or damage has not happened through any neglect or default of the said Library-Keepers, or their deputies.

That if, after the said thirty days, on enquiry and report to be made by the said inspectors, or otherwise, it appears to the Vice-Chancellor, that any books be still wanting in the Library, or much damaged, he shall order others, without delay, to be procured, at the expense of the public chest, and put in their places.

That no Undergraduate or person not belonging to the University, be allowed to examine the catalogue, or take down books, unless in company of a Master of Arts, or a Member of the Senate, or Bachelor of Law and Physic; and that the Library-Keepers report to the Vice-Chancellor and Proctors any persons in statu pupillari who come into the Library not in their Academical dress.

That all the penalties above-mentioned shall be levied as other penalties are, by the Queen's statutes, chap. 50, and go one-third to the Bedells who collect them, the rest to the public chest.

The Library is closed on Sundays, and on the following days: Christmas-day; the Epiphany; the Purification; Ash-Wednesday; Good-Friday; Easter Monday and Tuesday; Holy Thursday; Whit Monday and Tuesday; November 5; appointed Fast-days and Thanksgivings; the day after each Quarter-day; and for four days immediately following September 29, exclusive of Sunday.

On Saturdays it is open from ten till one; on Saints' days from twelve till three; on other days from ten till three.

The portion of the New Library, just erected, is according to part of a design by Mr C. R. Cockerell of London, for an entire Court, which it is intended should occupy the whole site of the present Library and Schools.

The great want of accommodation for books in the present Library, and of Lecture-Rooms for the Professors, had long been complained of; and, as the University was not itself in possession of funds to supply these deficiencies, a subscription was set on foot, and above £20,000 were collected from Members of the University and others, who felt an interest in the undertaking. The funds raised by this subscription, however liberal, being no more than are requisite to the erection of one side of the proposed Court, the further completion of the design must rest for the present. The first stone was laid on the 29th of September, 1837, and it is expected that the building will be complete for the reception of books in the course of the present year.

THE UNIVERSITY PRESS.

The management of the University Press is committed by the Senate to Syndics, who meet to transact business in the Printing-office, and cannot act unless five are present, the Vice-Chancellor being always one; the Syndics are

The Vice-Chancellor,
The Lord Bishop of Hereford,
Hon. and Rev. Geo. Neville Grenville,
Dr Procter,
Dr Wordsworth,
Dr Chafy,
Dr. G. Thackeray,
Dr Webb,
Dr French,
Dr Lamb.
Dr Ainslie.
Dr Graham,
Dr King,
Dr Archdall,
Dr Hodgson.
Dr J. W. Geldart,
The Dean of Peterborough,
Dr Hollingworth,
Professor Scholefield,
Mr Turnbull,
Mr Lodge,
Mr Gibson.

On the death of the Right Honourable William Pitt, many distinguished personal friends of that statesman and admirers of his public conduct, entered into a subscription for the purpose of erecting some memorial worthy of his name.

By means of the funds thus raised, a marble statue of Mr Pitt, executed by Westmacott, was erected in Westminster Abbey; and another bronze statue of him, executed after a model by Chantry, has been more recently placed in Hanover Square, London. A large sum still remained unexpended: and the Committee at whose disposal the Funds were placed, desiring to employ the surplus in some mode that might contribute to the honour and usefulness of the University in which Mr Pitt had received his education, offered, with a noble liberality, to erect a building, after a design by Mr Blore, which should form the front of the University Printing Offices, and be designated by the name of the PITT PRESS.

This munificent offer was accepted: and a large sum of money was expended by the University in purchasing the necessary site. The first stone of the New Building was laid in 1831 by the Marquis Camden, the chairman of the before-mentioned Committee, attended by the Earl of Clarendon, the Earl of Harrowby, Lord Farnborough, and Henry Bankes, Esq. M.P.; also Members of that Committee.

The edifice was completed in 1833.

Strangers and persons in statu pupillari are admitted to this Establishment on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, from Twelve to One o'clock, if accompanied by a Master of Arts

THE FITZWILLIAM MUSEUM.

RICHARD, Viscount FITZWILLIAM, formerly of Trinity Hall. (M.A. 1764,) who died 5th February, 1816, bequeathed to the University his splendid collection of books, paintings, drawings, engravings, &c., together with the dividends or annual proceeds of £100,000 South Sea annuities, for the erection of a Museum for their reception.

The old Free School behind Corpus Christi College has been fitted up for the temporary reception of this splendid collection, until the directions of his Lordship's Will (inserted in former editions of the Calendar) can be complied with.

The dividends on the above-mentioned Stock having accumulated to a sum exceeding £40,000, the University considered that it was now within its power to commence the erecting of the Museum. The competition of Architects was accordingly invited, and the choice fell on Mr George Basevi, jun.

The ceremony of laying the first stone was performed on the 2nd of November, 1837, a brass Tablet, with the following Inscription engraved on it, having been previously placed underneath.

It is expected that the building will be completed in the course of the next year.

The Museum has been augmented by many valuable presents of Paintings, Prints, Books, Statues, Models, and Curiosities; a list of which may be seen in the donation book.

Regulations of the Fitzwilliam Museum.

1. The Museum shall be open for inspection every day on which the Public Library is opened, from ten o'clock in the morning till two in the afternoon, and from four o'clock till six in the evening, during the months of April, May, June, July, August, and September; and from eleven in the morning till three in the afternoon, during the remainder of the year.

2. Any Member of the Senate may introduce two persons in statu pupillari at one time, or any strangers or friends who do not belong to the University.

3. No pecuniary gratification shall be received by the Keeper on these occasions.

4. The Fitzwilliam Museum shall be inserted with the Library, in the oath of admission to degrees.

5. No member of the University shall be admitted into the Museum unless he appear in his Academical habit.

Curator of the Museum—William Key Ridgway.

THE MESMAN MUSEUM.

The late Mr Mesman bequeathed a valuable collection of Pictures to the University. His brother, the Rev. Mr Mesman (to whom they were bequeathed for his life), having given up his life-interest in the bequest, the collection has come into the immediate possession of the University. The Fitzwilliam Museum not having at present space enough for these Pictures, the Syndics of the University Press have given permission for them to be suspended in one of the apartments at the Pitt Press: where they will probably remain, until the building of the proposed Fitzwilliam Museum is sufficiently advanced for their reception. The collection amounts in number to 248 Paintings and 33 Drawings and Prints. Among the Painters are many very distinguished names, Vandyck, Schidoni, P. Brill, Ruysdael, Canaletti, Teniers, Gerard Dow, Cuyp, Wouvermans, Tintoretto, the Carracci, Holbein, L. Van Leyden, Castiglioni, Van Goyn, &c. &c. &c. The majority of the Pictures are of the Flemish and Dutch schools; and they are considered to be a very genuine collection of the masters whose names they bear.

The Regulations of the Mesman Museum are the same as those of the Fitzwilliam Museum.

Keeper of the Museum—John Massey.

THE BOTANIC GARDEN

Occupies between three and four acres, on the east of the Fitzwilliam Museum, conveniently disposed, and well watered. This piece of ground, with a large and ancient edifice that formerly belonged to the Augustine Friars, was purchased by the late Dr Richard Walker, Vice-Master of Trinity College, for £1600.

The old building having been sold, a new building has been erected, for the use of the Lectures in Chemistry, Botany, and Anatomy.

The present site of the Botanic Garden has long been found insufficient for the purposes for which it was intended; and a few years ago an Act of Parliament was past empowering the University to procure a fresh site, and to enable them to dispose of the old one. Thirty acres were purchased of Trinity Hall, lying to the East of the London road, and within a mile of the Town. Various causes have hitherto delayed the completion of the project, but a plan for the disposition of the whole has been prepared; and it is intended the herbaceous ground, with its stoves and green-houses, should occupy a central position, and the surrounding parts be laid out in an ornamental style, with shrubberies and walks, where such exotic trees as are capable of enduring our climate may be grown.

This garden is under the government of the Vice-Chancellor, the Provost of King's, the Masters of Trinity and St John's, and the Professor of Physic.

Curator—Arthur Biggs, F.L.S.

THE CAMBRIDGE OBSERVATORY

Was erected in 1822-4, after the designs of Mr J. C. Mead of London, at an expence of upwards of £18,115. About £6000 of this sum was contributed by subscriptions, and the remainder was granted from the public chest of the University.

The principal instruments in the Observatory are a Transit Instrument of 10 feet focal length, by Dollond, a Mural Circle of 8 feet diameter, by Troughton and Simms, which was graduated on its pier; and an Equatoreal of 5 feet focal length with Declination Circle of 3 feet diameter, and Hour Circle of 2 feet diameter, by Jones. The Transit Clock is by Hardy. There are also two other clocks, one by Molyneux and Cope, and one by Graham, with several smaller instruments, of which some have been purchased by the Plumian Professors according to the regulations of their foundation, and others have been bought by the University, or have been presented to the Observatory by individuals.

On Feb. 27, and March 18, 1829, Graces passed the Senate by which the former regulations for the appointment of the Assistants were revoked, and the following substituted. The Plumian Professor (under whose superintendence the Observatory is placed) is authorised to appoint, with the consent of the Vice-Chancellor, one or two Assistant Observers, as he may see necessary; and they or either of them are removable from the office by the authority of the Plumian Professor with the consent of the Vice-Chancellor: and their annual salaries are to be determined by Graces of the Senate, and to be paid out of the common chest. And on June 11, 1829, and May 14, 1834, the annual salaries of the Assistants were fixed by Grace at £80.

By the Grace of Feb. 27, 1829, it was also ordered, that on the first congregation of November in each year, a Syndicate should be appointed by Grace of the Senate, who with the Plumian Trustees and the Plumian and Lowndean Professors, should visit the Observatory at least once in each Term; and should in the month of May (after inspecting the instruments, &c., with such Members of the Senate, and strangers distinguished for their knowledge of Astronomy, as the Vice-Chancellor and the Plumian Professor might invite to assist them) make a report to the Senate of the state of the Observatory, and the proceedings of the previous year.

The volumes of Observations made in the years 1828—1838, have been published (the expence of which was defrayed by the Press Syndicate,) and copies have been distributed to the principal Observatories and Academies in Europe, as well as to several private Observers. The Observations of 1839 are in the press.

The Observatory is open to Members of the University and their friends every day (except Sunday), between half-past Twelve and half-past One. No stranger is admitted except in company with a Member of the University.

In the Spring of 1835, a magnificent telescope, of nearly twelve inches aperture, and twenty feet focal length, made by M. Cauchoix of Paris, was presented to the Observatory by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland. His Grace at the same time intimated his wish to be allowed to present the telescope in a complete working state. A building has accordingly been erected near the Observatory, with a revolving dome, twenty-seven feet in diameter, and the equatoreal mounting of the telescope has been completed under the superintendence of the late Plumian Professor.

THE ANATOMICAL MUSEUM.

This rich and interesting Collection, now placed in commodious buildings lately erected at great cost by the University, is under the care and superintendence of the Professor of Anatomy for the time being. It is used by him and by the Regius Professor of Physic, for the illustration of their respective lectures. It originated in a small number of choice preparations which were presented to the University by Mr Lawrence. The Museum of the late Sir Busick Harwood was afterwards added to it by purchase: and further acquisitions were made at various times, with grants of money from the common chest, particularly on occasion of the sale of Mr Brooks's Museum, and when a series of models in wax was executed under the direction of the Present Professor at Florence and Bologna. From these sources, and from the donations of many friends of the University, this portion of the Collection consists of more than thirteen hundred specimens.

In the year 1836, the rare and valuable collection of Dr Macartney, Professor of Anatomy in Trinity College, Dublin, was purchased by the University. This consists of more than two thousand specimens, and is an acquisition by which the riches of the Museum have in every department, except the osteological, been more than doubled.

A descriptive Catalogue of the entire Museum is in course of preparation. It will distinctly record the names of each of the donors, or authors of the works, which it enumerates.

By a Grace of the Senate, passed Nov. 16, 1836, the Museum is at all times open to the Regius Professor of Physic; to the other Professors of Medicine or Natural Science, to Doctors and Bachelors of Physic, and to all Students attending the Lectures of the Regius Professor of Physic, and of the Professor of Anatomy, or of any of the above-described Professors, from Eleven to Twelve every day, with the exception of Sundays, Christmas-day, and Good Friday. It is also open to all Graduates, and to Visiters introduced by any Member of the Senate, from Two till Three on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays.

The Museum is visited by the Vice-Chancellor, the Regius Professor of Physic, and one other Inspector appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, on some day in the Michaelmas Term previous to the 1st of November in each year, who examine and report upon its condition to the Senate.

St PETER's COLLEGE.

Copies of the Statutes in the British Museum; Old Statutes. Mss. Harley, No. 7032, p. 187. New,—No. 7046, p. 132.

THIS most ancient College or House was founded by Hugh de Balsham, Bishop of Ely, for a Master and fourteen Fellows.

The Fellowships are open without restriction to natives of any part of the British dominions, but no one is eligible who is M.A. or of sufficient standing to take that degree. The Bishop of Ely appoints to the Mastership one of two candidates presented to him by the society. The candidates must be Doctors or Bachelors of Divinity, and must be selected, if possible, from the Fellows on the foundation. Formerly, there could not be more than two Fellows of a county, (except of Cambridge or Middlesex); and seven Fellowships were confined to the northern, and seven to the southern division of England and Wales; but these restrictions were removed, by letters patent which came into operation in June 1839.

One fourth part only of the Foundation Fellows are required to be in priest's orders. By Queen Elizabeth's license, the five senior Clerical Fellows may hold any livings with their Fellowships, provided they are not more than £20 in the Liber Regis, and within 20 miles of the University of Cambridge. The bye Fellowships, which are perfectly open and unrestricted, are distinct from the former: the possessors of them are not entitled to any office or voice in the affairs of the College. Two, founded 1589, by Andrew Perne, D.D. Two, 1601, by Lady Ramsay. And four, 1637, by Thomas Parke, Esq.

Two Fellowships of £70 per annum each, and four new Scholarships of £30 per annum each, have recently been added to the College, from the donation of the Rev. Francis Gisborne, M.A. late Fellow of St Peter's.

This foundation bears the name of the donor. The two Gisborne Fellowships are tenable for seven years, and any person may be elected from either of them into a foundation Fellowship before he is of standing to take his M.A. degree. These Fellowships are vacated by marriage, or by the possession of any permanent income amounting to £250 per annum.

The rest of the Scholarships, fifty-eight in number, of different value, are paid in proportion to residence. A few of them are in the patronage of Lord Melbourne, and preference is given to scholars from Hertford School. There is an exhibition from the Company of Cloth-workers, and one from the Ironmongers. The society elect one sizar annually, after an examination at the beginning of the October term. The candidates must be in the first year of their residence, and may have been previously admitted as pensioners.

Annual Prizes are given, together with the vacant Scholarships, to those who are most successful in the Midsummer Examination. A deserving candidate may obtain more than one Scholarship at the end of his first year, and may also be elected to others at the end of his second and third years.

CLARE HALL.

Copies of the Statutes in the British Museum, New Mss. Harley, No. 7932, p. 319. Old.—No. 7041, p. 53. New University Library, Mss. Mm. 3. 5.

THIS ancient College, Hall, or House, founded by Lady Elizabeth, sister and co-heir of Gilbert, Earl of Clare, consists of a Master, ten Senior or Foundation Fellows, nine Junior, and three Bye-appropriation Fellows, besides Scholars, Students, and Foundation Servants. All these Fellowships, with the exception of those which are appropriated, are perfectly open to all persons who are Bachelors of Arts, or of a higher degree, no one being superannuated, or incapable of being a candidate on account of age or length of standing in the University. An election must take place within ten weeks and three days after a Fellowship has become vacant. The electors are, the Master, Senior and Junior Fellows; and, in case there be an equal division, the Master has the casting vote. The Master is elected by the above-mentioned Fellows within eleven days after a vacancy is known, and a candidate must be either a Bachelor or Doctor in Divinity. Fellows neglecting to take the degree of M.A. at the regular time, are punished by a fine; but the degree of B.D. has not of late years been required. The Seniors must all be divines except two, who, with the consent of the Master and major part of the Fellows, may practise Law and Physic.

The nine Junior Fellowships were founded by different benefactors, (viz. three by Lord Exeter in 1612, two by John Freeman, Esq. in 1622, and four from the estates bequeathed to the college by Joseph Diggons, Esq. in 1658.) Of these, two may be held by laymen, the other seven require Priest's Orders after a certain standing. They enjoy the same privileges as the Seniors.

The Three Bye-appropriation Fellows have no voice in any college business, can hold no college office, and are incapable of being ever elected into any other Fellowship. They are obliged to take Priest's Orders within seven years after they are Bachelors of Arts. Two of these Fellowships, founded by Mr Philpot, are appropriated to natives of Kent, with a preference to those born in the hundred of Blackheath. The third was founded by Mr Borage, for his name and kindred, or a Norfolk or a Norwich man. This Fellowship is not tenable by a Non-Regent Master of Arts.

There are eight Scholarships lately increased, four of which are £50 per annum each, and the other four £20 each, besides a weekly allowance in the butteries of 3s. 3d. during residence. They are tenable by undergraduates only, and are so arranged that one on each foundation shall be vacant every year. There are also,

One founded by Sir John Trott, value £20 per annum, and tenable till M.A.

One founded by Mr Ralph Scrivener, value about £14 per annum.

Two by Mr Cave, appropriated to Scholars from Wakefield School, value one guinea and a half each per week during residence.

One by Alexander Metcalfe, appropriated to a Scholar from Hull School, value 12*s.* per week during residence.

One by Benjamin Cherry, Esq. of £40 per annum, appropriated to natives of Hertford; or in case of there not being a candidate from thence sufficiently qualified, open to general competition.

Besides these there are upwards of thirty other Scholarships, varying in value from two to six shillings per week, and are allowances in the butteries during residence.

All the above Scholarships (except the four specified) are open to all competitors, and the annual examination takes place at the same time as the Senate-House Examination for the degree of B.A.

Four exhibitions of £20 per annum each, were founded by Archdeacon Johnson, with a preference to persons educated at Oakham and Uppingham Schools.

The present Society wish to admit no more than three Sizars.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

One of ten pounds, left by Mr Greaves, of Fulbourn, to any Bachelor of Arts (not a Fellow of the college) who shall compose the best Dissertation on the character of King William III. It must be sent to the Master on or before Michaelmas-day, and that which is adjudged to be the best is recited on the 4th of November in the Hall of the college.

Two silver cups, with appropriate inscriptions, value £6 each, left by Dr Robert Green, of Tamworth; the first as the reward of regularity of conduct, the second of general learning. The first adjudged this year to Ds Hervey, the second to Ds Green.

Prizes are given for the best declamation and theme; and to the best reader in chapel.

There is also an annual examination immediately before the division of the Easter Term, when those who distinguish themselves are rewarded with a prize of books, bearing the college arms.

PEMBROKE COLLEGE.

(Founded 1347.)

A Copy of the Statutes in the British Museum.
Mss Harley, No. 7034, p. 124.

THIS College was founded under the name of Valence-Mary, by Mary de St Paul, the widow of Aymer de Valence, Earl of Pembroke: and King Henry VI. was so liberal a benefactor to it, as to obtain the name of a second Founder.

There are fourteen Foundation Fellowships open to persons of every nation, with this limitation, that no more than three be filled by natives of the same county; London and Middlesex however being reputed separate counties. There is also in the election to that Fellowship which was established by Archbishop Grindal, formerly Master of the College, a preference given to a Scholar educated at St Begh's School in Cumberland.

Although there may be no Fellowship vacant, yet a candidate is never considered as superannuated.

When more than ten of the Fellowships are filled, six of the Fellows must be in orders.

There are also two Bye-Fellowships, one founded by William Smart, Esq. of Ipswich, with a preference for the Scholars on his own foundation in this College; the other founded by Benjamin Lany, D.D. formerly Bishop of Ely and Master of the College.

The Scholarships belonging to the College are,

Six Foundation of the yearly value of £28 each.

Three, founded by Archbishop Grindal, of the yearly value of £28 each, for Scholars educated at St Begh's School.

Eight Greek, seven founded by Thomas Watts, D.D. formerly Archdeacon of Middlesex, and the other by Thomas James, Esq. Of these the four Senior Scholarships are of the yearly value of £14 each, and the four Junior of the yearly value of £12 each.

Six others, two founded by William Smart, Esq., and four by Ralph Scrivener, Esq. of the yearly value of £5 each, with a preference for those who have been educated at the Grammar School at Ipswich.

Six, founded by Charles Parkin, M.A. formerly Rector of Oxburgh in Norfolk, of the yearly value of £50. Of these five are for such Scholars of Merchant Tailors' School as have been there four years at the least immediately before their removal to the University, with a preference for such of them as are superannuated; and the other for one who has been a Scholar of the Free School at Bowes in Yorkshire for two years at the least immediately before removal to the University. When there are no Candidates, these Scholarships are at the free disposal of the Master of the College.

One, founded by William Stuart, D.D. formerly Chancellor of the Diocese of Exeter, of the yearly value of £80, for a superannuated Scholar of Merchant Tailors' School, who has been there five years at the least immediately before appointment.

The Exhibitions belonging to the College are—

One, of the yearly value of £70, founded by Mr. John Holmes, for a Scholar educated at Blackrode School in Lancashire. This Exhibition is given by the Governors of the School, and the Scholar who holds it also receives from the College an additional Exhibition, the gift of Mr Warren, formerly a Blackrode Scholar, of the yearly value of £5.

Several founded by Sergeant Moses, who presided over the College during the time of the Commonwealth, of the yearly value of £50 each, for Scholars educated at Christ's Hospital, which Exhibitions they hold in addition to others of the yearly value of £60 each, allowed by the Governors of the School.

One, of the yearly value of £6, founded by Roger Long, D.D. formerly Master, for a Scholar appointed by the Master to keep the key of the room in which Dr Long's sphere is placed.

Besides the above there are other Exhibitions, given to the College by Robert Mapletoft, D.D. formerly Master, and by others, to which the College have made such an addition that three Sizars may have £12 each yearly.

The enjoyment of one Scholarship or Exhibition does not preclude a deserving person from holding others on different Foundations.

There is an annual Examination at the division of the Easter Term, when prizes in books are given to the best proficients in each year.

Two prizes of books are also given annually for the best compositions in Latin Verse and Prose, for which any Junior Soph or Freshman may be a candidate.

GONVILLE AND CAIUS COLLEGE.

(FOUNDED 1349.)

A Copy of the Statutes in the University Library.

MSS. MM. 4. 20.

THIS College, originally styled Gonville Hall, was founded in 1349 by EDMUND GONVILLE, son of Sir Nicholas Gonville, rector of Terrington, in Norfolk, and endowed for a Master and four Fellows; the revenues were afterwards augmented by various benefactors: but were subsequently increased by the new foundation of Dr JOHN CAIUS in 1558, and a new charter obtained, by which the College was to be designated "Gonville and Caius College." There are now twenty-nine Fellowships; twelve are called Senior Fellowships, being all that were founded at the time of the second charter granted to Dr Caius, in 1558; of these, three are of the old foundation open to all counties, and to laymen; three founded by Dr Caius, to be possessed by Norfolk men, two of whom must be physicians; and the remaining six, all by different founders, two confined to the Norwich Diocese, and the other four open to all counties: one of the six is open to laymen. In all the Senior Fellowships which are not particularly confined, there is, in case of equality among the candidates, a preference given by statute to those who are born in the Norwich Diocese. Of the rest which do not belong to the Foundation, six were founded by Mrs Joyce Frankland, to be open to all counties, and to laymen; one by Mr Stokys for a priest; one by Dr Wendy, to be held by a priest born in the Norwich Diocese; Of the remaining nine, six were founded by Dr Perse, open to all counties, and to laymen, with a preference to Scholars who have been three years in the Free Grammar School founded by him in Cambridge, and afterwards elected to a Perse Scholarship; and three by Mr Wortley, to one of which a part of Devon has a claim, and one is confined to Norfolk.

There are twenty-six Scholarships, of which

A Scholarship in Chemistry of £20 per annum, founded by John Mickleburgh, M.A. formerly Professor of Chemistry in this University. It is given after an examination held annually at the beginning of May. All Undergraduates not entered into their sixth year are eligible: and Bachelors of Arts may be candidates in two examinations after that degree.

Four Studentships, £113. 8*s*. per annum each, founded by *C. Tancred, Esq. for Students in Physic: whenever a vacancy occurs, the successful candidate, if of another college is obliged to remove to Caius College. These Students are required to take the degree of Bachelor in Physic as soon as they are of sufficient standing for the same, and they may hold the Studentships for three years after their degree. Those therefore who are elected previous to admission to any college, can hold them eight years. The electors to the Studentships are, the Masters of Caius and Christ's Colleges, the President of the College of Physicians, the Treasurer of Lincoln's Inn, the Master of the Charter House, and the Governors of Greenwich and Chelsea Hospitals.

There are besides two Scholarships of £52. 10*s*. per annum each, for Students from Harrow School, founded in the year 1830, by John Sayer, Esq. M.A. Barrister at Law, formerly a Senior Fellow of this College.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

PLATE to the value of £10 for the best proficient in Mathematics amongst the commencing Bachelors of Arts.

* C. Tancred, Esq. (who died August 1754) also founded four Studentships of nearly the same annual value, appropriated to Law, to be held only by Students of Lincoln's Inn, who are not required to be Members of the University.

The Classical Examination is held at the end of the Lent Term The Mathematical Examination is at the division of the Easter Term. After each of these examinations prizes, in books, of five and three guineas value, are given to the first and second of the Junior Sophs; and, of the same value, to the first and second of the Freshmen.

There is an Examination in Moral Philosophy also, at the division of the Easter Term, for the Junior Sophs: the first on the list obtains one of the exhibitions of £18 value.

An Examination in Anatomy and Physiology is held at the beginning of May: to the student who displays the best proficiency is assigned one of the exhibitions of £10, tenable for three years. All the Medical Students are expected to pass this Examination as well as the Chemical Examination, between their seventh term of residence and the period of taking the M.B. degree.

The Wortley Speech, in English, on the advantage of studying Literature, is delivered by one of the Wortley Fellows on his commemoration day.

The Tancred Speech, in Latin, upon the progress of Medicine since the time of Dr Caius, is delivered annually at his second commemoration by one of the Tancred Students.

1839. The Thruston Speech by G. Budd, M.B., the Wortley Speech by W. H. Jerard, M.A., the Tancred Speech by W. Davies.

Copies of the Statutes in the British Museum.
Mss. Harley, No. 7029, p. 385.

At this College, more peculiarly appropriated to the study of Civil Law, there are twelve Fellowships, unrestricted as to counties. Bishop Bateman, the founder and noble benefactor of this institution, originally intended to have augmented the number to twenty; but dying before the designed foundation was completed, (viz. A.D. 1355, at Avignon,) his legacy was only deemed sufficient for the maintenance of a Master, three Fellows, and two Scholars. The nine remaining Fellowships were founded by the following benefactors:—Two by Simon Dalling; three by Bishop Nix; one by Robert Goodnape; one by Dr Hewke; one by Dr Mowse; and one by the College. It is usual that ten of the Fellows should be laymen, and two in holy orders. Graduates in Arts, not of less standing than within one year of the degree of M.A., and Students of three years' standing in Civil Law, are eligible.

There are two Scholarships (of which the present value is about £12 per annum, and which are tenable with other Scholarships) founded by Dr Allen, with preference—first, to founder's kin; secondly, to Scholars from the Free Grammar School at Richmond, Yorkshire; thirdly, to Scholars from any other School in Yorkshire; fourthly, to Scholars from the Norwich Diocese; and fifthly, to Scholars from the town or county of Cambridge. A provision of about £60 per annum, including a Scholarship, is annexed to the office of Chapel Clerk, for holding which the College admits one resident Sizar. There are also three Scholarships of twenty guineas a year each, not tenable with the office of Chapel Clerk, one of which is awarded annually to the most deserving Undergraduate at the Midsummer Examination in his first year, and is payable for that and the two following years. There are besides, eleven Scholarships worth four guineas a term each. All the above Scholarships are tenable only during residence.

ANNUAL PRIZES

Are given in Books to the best proficients at a general examination.

Prizes are also given for the best Exercises in English and Latin Composition. The subjects are proposed at the end of the Lent Term, and the exercises must be delivered in before the 12th of November following.

on Archbishop Parker's foundation, and if on examination of the library, twenty-five books are missing, or cannot be found within six months, the whole collection devolves to Caius. KING's COLLEGE.

Copies of the Statutes in the British Museum, MSS. HARLEY, No. 7323.—A Specimen in the University Library, MSS. BAKER. Vol. XXXII. p. 219.

THIS royal foundation consists of a Provost and seventy Fellows and Scholars; the latter are supplied by a regular succession from Eton College, which was founded and endowed about the same time by King HENRY VI. The Society of Eton now consists of a Provost, seven Fellows, and seventy Scholars; and the vacancies at King's for the last twenty years have averaged at above five in the year. The time of electing scholars into the royal foundation of Eton, is about the end of July or beginning of August; at which time a general examination as to their proficiency in classics takes place, before the Provost of each college, the Vice-Provost and Head Master of Eton, and two posers or examiners nominated by King's. After such examination the scholars are placed in the order of their future succession to King's and on a vacancy in the latter, they are admitted upon that foundation; and after the expiration of three years from the day of their admission, they are chosen [1] Fellows, or are no longer Members of the College.

Some peculiar privileges appertain to King's. The Provost has absolute authority within the precincts, and by special composition between this Society and the University, its undergraduates (under certain restrictions) are exempt from the power of the Proctors and other University Officers, within the limits of the college: neither by usage do they keep any public exercises in the Schools, or are any way examined by the University for their Bachelor of Arts' degree.

1 This and Trinity Hall are the only colleges at which undergraduates can be elected Fellows. Here, however, they are obliged to take both Bachelor's and Master's degree in the University when of sufficient standing, or otherwise they will not be entitled to the full proportion of their dividends.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Dr COOKE (formerly Provost) left £6 to such scholar or scholars as shall be adjudged to have deserved well by application to their studies and general orderly behaviour.—Last year adjudged to J. E. Yonge, R. W. Essington, and W. F. Witts.

Dr GLYNN bequeathed £20 to be equally divided, towards the end of Easter Term, between such scholars of the said college as have in the course of the year been most distinguished for learning and regularity of conduct.—Last year adjudged to R. Williams and E. Balston.

There are two £5. prizes for Latin declamations, left by Dr. James.

There are two £5. prizes for English declamations given annually by the College.

There is also a prize of £5 given by the college to the best translation of an English subject into Greek Iambics.

QUEENS' COLLEGE.

(Founded 1446—Re-founded 1465.)

The Statutes have been printed, for the use of the Society. Copies exist in the University Library, Mss. Baker xxxii. p. 241, also British Museum, Mss. Cole, xlvii. p. 357.

THIS College was founded by the two Queens, Margaret of Anjou, consort of Henry VI. (in 1446,) and Elizabeth Widville, consort of Edward IV. (1465.)

The President must be elected by a majority of the whole existing body, on the eighth day after a vacancy, and must be (at least) a B.D. He must also be possessed of property to the amount of £20 per annum if not a Fellow at the time of his election.

There are nineteen Foundation Fellowships perfectly unrestricted. All the Fellows within four years from commencing B.A. must proceed to M.A.; those who are on the ecclesiastical foundation must, within two years from M.A., be in Holy Orders, and within nine years from M.A. proceed to B.D. Only two Fellows may remain laymen, who proceed to M.A. like the rest, and within twelve years from M.A. the one must proceed to LL.D. the other to M.D. The Vice-President and the five Seniors hold their Fellowships with property: the others recede from the Society when possessed of a real annual income stated in the oath before admission. The five senior Divines may hold livings not exceeding £20 per annum, and within twenty miles of Cambridge. On the petition of the Society, the Crown has frequently dispensed with some of the above restrictions.

A Bye-Fellowship was founded in 1694, by D. Edwards, gent. This is perfectly open, may be held by a Layman, and is tenable with any property or preferment, except ecclesiastical to a certain amount. Edwards' Fellow has no vote in the Society, and his privileges consist chiefly in a title to rooms and commons.

The Scholarships which were consolidated some years ago have been again consolidated and augmented by college grants; and it has been agreed by the President and Fellows that there shall in future be 15 Scholarships, tenable till B.A., two of which shall be £50 a year, two £40, and eleven £15.

The election shall take place at the general Examination, previous to the Division of the Easter Term; and the half of each Scholarship shall be considered to be due at the Midsummer immediately following the Election, and the other half at the next Bachelor's Commencement.

These Scholarships shall be disposed as follows:

To the five Freshmen who pass the best Examination at the division of the Easter Term, provided they be considered worthy of such distinction, Scholarships of £15.

To the two Second year men who pass the best Examination, provided as above, Scholarships of £40.

And to the two Senior Sophs who pass the best Examination, provided as above, Scholarships of £50.

It has been further agreed that if there be any Students deserving of Scholarships, besides those contemplated in this plan, they shall have supernumerary Scholarships:—and if any Students appear to deserve better Scholarships than those above mentioned, their Scholarships shall be increased.

Two Stokes' Scholarships, £15 per annum, to be given to the Chapel Clerks.

[1] Two Sedgwick's Scholarships, average £15. per annum, capable of increase to £20. but subject also to diminution; (sons of poor Clergymen to be preferred). Require residence of whole terms; vacated ipso facto, by absence of two terms.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

One for the best Composition in Divinity, by a Bachelor of Arts, 10 guineas.—Last year adjudged to Hopwood.

Two to the best proficients in Mathematics, of the third and second year, five guineas each.—Last year the prize for the third year was adjudged to Elliot. The prize for the second year was adjudged to Goren.

Two for a Latin and English Dissertation by Undergraduates, who are not Questionists, five guineas each.—The first was adjudged last year to Thomas. The second was adjudged to Ketley.

Prizes to Freshmen.

CATHARINE HALL.

(Founded 1475.)

A Copy of the Statutes of this College is not known to be lodged in any public repository.

THIS College or Hall was founded by Robert Woodlark, D.D., Chancellor of the University, and Provost of King's College, for a Master and three or more Fellows. Accordingly, the Visitors who were sent down to the University by King Edward VI. ordained that there should be then six Fellows, and that for the future there should be a greater or less number in proportion to the revenues of the College. The Fellows must be natives of England, and there cannot be more than two of the same county at the same time: two of them at least must be in Priest's and one in Deacon's orders. Whenever a vacancy occurs, the senior who is not in such orders must take them in the course of a twelvemonth, unless a junior does of his own accord, or he vacates his Fellowship.

There are also eight Bye Fellowships, founded by subsequent benefactors:—

One by Mr Frankland, which is appropriated to a man educated at Coventry School; and who is in other respects properly qualified. The Master and Fellows, who are the electors, are required by the Founder to have a careful regard also to the recommendation of the Mayor and Aldermen of Coventry.

One by Mr Holway, which is called the Conduct Fellowship.

Six by Mrs Mary Ramsden, with a preference first to natives of Yorkshire, then of Lincolnshire; and in case no such candidates duly qualified offer themselves, they are open to men of any county. Fellows on this foundation are not required to take orders. All persons are ineligible to these Fellowships who are 24 years of age.

The Fellows on this foundation are called Skirne Fellows.

Mrs Ramsden also founded ten Scholarships, with the same preference to Yorkshire and Lincolnshire men, which are now £33. per annum each, with chambers rent free.

Mr Frankland also founded one of £10. per annum, which is appropriated to a person educated at Tamworth School.

Mr Holway founded two of £6. per annum each, which are appropriated to persons educated at Eton, or Merchant Taylors' School.

There are also three Scholarships of £20. 14*s.* 4*d.*—eight of £20.—one of £12.—five of £5.—seven of £4.—two of £3. 6*s.* 8*d.*—two of £2. 13*s.* 4*d.*—and two of £2. per annum each: all perfectly open.

Bishop Sherlock founded the Librarianship, worth £20. per annum, with rooms rent free. He also considerably augmented the salary of the Master's Sizar, present value £34. per annum, with chambers rent free. The Chapel Clerk receives £16. per annum and Commons, with Chambers rent free.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Books to the value of £5. are given on the Thursday preceding the division of Easter Term, to the best proficient in classics on Mrs Ramsden's foundation. Last year the prize was adjudged to Parr.

There is annually a Classical and Mathematical examination of the Junior Sophs and Freshmen at the division of the Easter Term, when prizes in books are adjudged to the best proficient in each year.

JESUS COLLEGE.

FOUNDED 1496.

A Copy of the Statutes in the University Library, MSS. GG. 3. 42. and in the British Museum, MSS. HARLEY. No. 7044, p. 1.

AT this College, founded by JOHN ALCOCK, Bishop of Ely, there are sixteen Foundation Fellowships, open to natives of England and Wales, without any restriction or appropriation whatsoever: five of the original foundation, four founded by Dr Fuller, Master of the College, and the rest by various benefactors. Six of the Fellows are required to be in Priest's orders. On every vacancy of a Fellowship, the Master and Fellows nominate two candidates, of whom the Bishop of Ely elects one. There is one Fellowship founded by James Stanley, Bishop of Ely, to which the Bishop has an exclusive right both to nominate and appoint. The Mastership of this College is in the absolute appointment of the Bishop of Ely.

The following is a list of the principal Scholarships and Exhibitions, founded by different benefactors:—

Four, £10 per annum each, appropriated to natives of Nottinghamshire and Yorkshire (i).

Eleven, about £30 per annum each, for clergyman's orphans of all counties in England and Wales. These Scholars must be admitted before they have completed their nineteenth year. The possessors of these Scholarships, founded by Tobias Rustat, Esq. have a classical examination annually on the Thursday in Easter week, at which time, according to their respective merits, a gratuity to each from £20 to £30 (in addition to the above sum) is given. The Visitors are, the Vice-Chancellor, the Provost of King's, the Master of Trinity, and the Master of Jesus; and in case of the non-attendance of any of these four, the Master of St John's (a).

One, £40 per annum, or thereabouts, to the son of a living clergyman, with preference to a native of Nottinghamshire or Lancashire, cæteris paribus. The possessor of this Scholarship is subject to the same examination and rules of residence as the Rustat, but receives no gratuity (b).

One, £15 per annum, or thereabouts, to the son of a clergyman, with preference to an orphan, equally open to all counties. Examination and rules of residence similar to the Rustat, but no gratuity (c).

Three, £8 per annum each, or thereabouts, open to all (h).

One, £2 per annum, open to all.

One, £10 per annum, or thereabouts, for a scholar from Doncaster or Arksay Free Schools.

Two, £75 per annum each, for persons educated at Seven Oaks and Tunbridge Schools (d).

Two, £16 per annum each, left by Dr Gatford, open to all clergymen's orphans, and tenable from the degree of B.A. to that of M.A. (e).

One, £6. 8*s*. 6*d*. per annum, for persons from Caistor, Louth, or Alford Schools, or to the natives of Lincolnshire (k).

One, £3. 6*s*. 8*d*. per annum, to a native of Lancashire, Hertford, Cumberland, or Essex (f).

Two, £4. 10*s*. per annum, each; one to the county of Anglesea or Merioneth, the other to St Peter the Poor, or St Foster, in London.

One, of £60 or two of £30 per annum, or thereabouts, to persons educated at Loughborough School.

Fifteen foundations, value £3 per annum each, or under, according to residence, open to all counties.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

[1] All Livings under 26*l.* per annum in the Liber Regis, and within thirty-five miles of Cambridge, are tenable with College Preacherships, which are four in number.

CHRIST's COLLEGE.

(Founded 1505.)

Copies of the Statutes in the British Museum, Mss. Harley, No. 7046, p. 155.—No. 7044, p 61.—No. 3848, and No. 7352.

THIS College was originally founded by King Henry VI., under the name of God's House; and consisted of a Master and three Fellows.

In 1505, Lady Margaret, Countess of Richmond and Derby, mother of King Henry VII., changed the name, incorporated the former Society and its revenues with the present College, and endowed it liberally, to maintain a Master and twelve Fellows. This foundation is for Divinity, and the Fellows are required to take Priest's orders within twelve months after they have attained the proper age. The only appropriation of these Fellowships is to the counties of England and Wales; and the restrictions are, that there shall not be two natives of the same county Fellows at the same time, and that there shall be six, and only six, of the following nine counties, viz. Northumberland, Cumberland, Durham, Westmoreland, Lancashire, Derbyshire, Nottinghamshire, Yorkshire, and Richmond, (this cum adjacentibus the Foundress calls a county.)

King Edward VI. added another Fellow, who shares in emoluments with those on the original foundation. He may be of any county, and is not obliged to take Holy Orders.

Sir John Finch and Sir Thomas Baines founded two more Fellowships, unappropriated as to county, but with preference to the kindred of the founders; the revenues are independent of Lady Margaret's Foundation. They may be held by laymen.

These fifteen Fellows have an equal claim to the college patronage, and are allowed by the statutes to hold preferment with their Fellowships, provided it does not exceed the value of ten marks, after the deductions found in the Liber Regis.

The Scholarships founded by Lady Margaret are now augmented in value to 15*s.* weekly during residence. There cannot be more than three Scholars of the same county at the same time.

King Edward the Sixth founded three additional Scholarships.

Besides these, various other Scholarships and Exhibitions have been founded by private benefactors: the principal of them are the following, viz.

Two, founded by Sir John Finch and Sir Thomas Baines, with preference to the kindred of the founders, about £10 per annum each.

Six, founded by Sir Walter Mildmay, £2 per annum each.

Three, founded by the Rev. T. Wilson, appropriated to Scholars from Kirby Lonsdale School, Westmoreland, about £20 per annum each.

Three, founded by Bishop Otway, appropriated to Scholars from Kirby Lonsdale School aforesaid, or in default of such, to Scholars from Sedbergh School, Yorkshire, £7 per annum each.

One, founded by Dr Patynson, with preference to a native of Northumberland, or in default of such, to a native of the diocese of Durham. Of the same value as the foundation Scholarships.

Eight, founded by the Rev. R. Carr, appropriated to Scholars from Giggleswick School, Yorkshire, £5 per annum each.

Three, founded by Mr Petyt, with preference to Scholars from Skipton School, in Craven, Yorkshire, £6. 13*s.* 4*d.* per annum each.

One, founded by the Rev. R. Risley, with preference to the kindred of the founder, secondly, to the county of Huntingdon, about £25 per annum.

One, founded by Mr Broadbanke, to a native of the town of Huntingdon, £15 per annum.

Four, founded by Dr Seth Ward, Bishop of Salisbury, with preference to natives of Hertfordshire, educated at Buntingford School, £12 per annum each.

One, founded by Dr Plume, with preference to a Scholar from Maldon School, or secondly, from Chelmsford School, or thirdly, from Brentwood School, Essex, £5 per annum.

Two, founded by Lady Drury, with preference to Scholars from Scarning, Holt, Swaffham, or Norwich Schools, about £30 per annum each.

One, founded by the Rev. C. Clarke, with preference to a native of Norfolk, educated at Norwich School, £10 per annum.

One, founded by Mr Rawlings, with preference to a native, first of Suffolk, secondly of Norfolk, £3 per annum.

One, founded by Sir Maurice Berkeley, appropriated to a native of Gloucestershire. Of the same value as the Foundation Scholarships.

One, founded by Mr Harvey, with preference to a native of Bedfordshire, £5 per annum.

One, founded by C. Tancred, Esq. with preference to a native of Newmarket, secondly, of the county of Cambridge, about £35 per annum.

Most of these appropriated Scholarships are tenable with the Foundation Scholarships.

Mr Tancred also founded four Divinity Studentships[1], which now amount to £107. 8*s.* per annum, and are tenable till M.A. The present possessors are, Ds Green, Ds Thompson, Ds Francis, sen. and Domville.

1 The college nominates two Fellows, Lord Berkeley must present one of them.

St JOHN's COLLEGE.

Copies of the Statutes in the British Museum. Mss. Harley, No. 7050, (printed in the 5th Report of the House of Commons on Education, p. 404) and in the University Library, Mss. Baker. Vol. xxix. p. 1.

THIS College was founded by Lady Margaret, Countess of Richmond and Derby, mother of King Henry VII. and foundress of Christ's College. The original endowment was for fifty Fellows; but part of the foundation estates having been seized by King Henry VIII. the funds were found to be sufficient for thirty-two only. These Fellowships are (by Letters Patent from George IV.) now open to natives of England and Wales, without any restriction or appropriation whatsoever; one only excepted, which is in the appointment of the Bishop of Ely: but the Bishop is required, agreeably to an arrangement between James Stanley, Bishop of Ely, and the Executors of the Countess of Richmond, to elect according to the statutes in every respect. In this case, the Master is Visitor to the Bishop.

There are also 21 Fellowships founded by different benefactors, which have all the privileges of the former, and give an equal claim to the College patronage.

Candidates for Fellowships must be B.A. at least; and no person is superannuated, provided he has proceeded regularly to his degrees. This being a Divinity college, all the Fellows are obliged to be in Priest's Orders within six years from the degree of M.A. except four, who are allowed by the Master and Seniors to remain Laymen: two for the practice of Physic, and two for Law. The rest must proceed to the degree of B.D. at the regular time. The electors are, the Master and eight Senior resident Fellows, in whom is vested the entire management of all college concerns. The day of election is the second Monday after Mid lent Sunday.

The following are the appropriated Fellowships, with their founders:

Four by Mr Ashton; two appropriated to the county of Lancaster or Diocese of Chester; one to the county or Diocese of York; and one to the Bishopric or Diocese of Durham.

One by Mr Bailey, which was augmented by his executor, to the parish of Tamworth, or to the county of Stafford or Derby, or the Diocese of Lichfield and Coventry. The person elected must be a Priest at 24 years of age, or within twelve months after.

Two by Mr Beresford, to the name and kin of the founder; then to the parishes of Chesterfield, Wirksworth, and Ashbourne, Derbyshire; or Alconfield, Staffordshire; and next to the counties; and for default of such, to the most apt and able within the University, after the form of the statutes of the college.

One by Sir M. Constable, to a priest of the county of York.

One by Bishop Dee, to his name and kin from Peterborough or Merchant Taylors' School.

One by Dr Fell, to Furness Fell, Lancashire.

Two by Mr Gregson, one to the county of Lancaster, and one to the county of Norfolk.

Two by Dr Lupton, and one by Mr Hebblethwaite, to be chosen from scholars on their foundation from the Free Grammar School of Sedbergh, Yorkshire.

Two by Dr Keyton, to the choristers of Southwell, Notts.

One by Lady Rokeby, to Beverley, or the county of York. The person elected must be in Priest's Orders within six months after election.

One by Mr Halytreholm, to Beverley, or any place in the county of York adjacent to the same. The Fellow must be in Priest's Orders within twelve months from the time of election.

One by Mr Simpson to Cumberland, Northumberland, Westmoreland, or Richmond, Yorkshire.

One by Dr Thimbleby, to the county of Cambridge.

To most of the preceding appropriations, however, is added the following or a similar limitation:—"If any such person in learning and manners be found, and virtuous and disposed to learning," &c. and in default of these qualifications, then the said Fellows to be chosen of such persons "as be most singular in manners and learning, of what county soever they be, and be then abiding in the said college and University."

In addition to the preceding Fellowships there are three founded by Mr Platt, which have been increased in number by the college; open to all candidates, but perfectly distinct from the rest. These Fellows are not entitled to the same privileges as the others; they cannot hold any college office, or succeed to a Foundation Fellowship or Living.

All livings under £30 in the King's books, are tenable with College Preacherships, which are thirteen in number.

A Sermon is preached by one of the Fellows every year at Hatfield, on the second Sunday after the Feast of St Michael, and at Burleigh on the Sunday after St Luke's day.

SCHOLARSHIPS, EXHIBITIONS, &c.

THE number of Scholarships at this College is one hundred and fourteen, twenty-seven of which were founded by Lady Margaret. Four founded by Mr Platt have been since increased by the college to nine; and are tenable, like the Fellowships founded by him, by candidates born in any county. Those founded by the Duchess of Somerset have been augmented by the Society to sixteen; five of which are appropriated to Scholars from Hereford School, with preference to natives of Somersetshire, Wilts, and Herefordshire; or to natives of the three said counties, though of any other School. The rest are appropriated to those educated at Marlborough, Hereford, or Manchester Schools.

The remaining Scholarships were founded by various benefactors.

There are also a considerable number of Exhibitions of different value, the principal of which are the following:—

One, about £100 and two £15 per annum each, founded by Mr Nadin, for students in Divinity; founder's kin, or men born in the province of Canterbury.

One, £12 per annum, left by Mrs Jones, to her kindred, or natives of Shropshire.

Two, about £10 per annum each, founded by Mr Robins, to founder's kin, or men born in Kent, with preference to scholars from Sutton Valence School.

Two, £20 per annum each, for scholars from Grantham School, Lincolnshire.

Four, about £9 per annum each, left by Mr Hewytt for scholars from Linton School, Yorkshire.

Two, about £10 per annum each, by Dr Gower, for Clergymen's sons, with preference to those educated at St Paul's, London, or the Free School, Dorchester.

Four, about £20 per annum each, by Archdeacon Johnson, for scholars educated at Oakham, or Uppingham Schools.

Thirty unrestricted, about £20 per annum each, left by Sir Ralph Hare, Knight of the Bath.

Six, about £8 per annum each, left by Mr. Baker, with preference to founder's kin.

Three, about 7*s.* per week during residence, by Mr Mount Stephen, with preference to scholars from Peterborough School.

Four, £70 per annum each, for seven years, for scholars from Shrewsbury School. Electors, the Trustees of that School.

Mr Wright left about £120 per annum, to be disposed of at the discretion of the Master and four Seniors.

Sir Isaac Pennington directed by his Will that good Exhibitions should be given to students born in the parishes of Hawkshead and Colton. Their number and value are at the discretion of the Master and Seniors.

The Very Rev. Dr Wood, Dean of Ely, and late Master of the College, founded nine Exhibitions of £40 per annum each. The Exhibitioners are to be chosen annually at Midsummer, from those students of the College, (not being either Bachelors of Arts, or of standing sufficient for that degree), "who are most in want of pecuniary assistance, and who are at the same time most distinguished for their regularity of conduct, industry, and learning."

The Sizars at this College are chosen by an Examination, which takes place early in the October previous to their commencing residence. The Subjects are the Elements of Geometry, Arithmetic, and Algebra, and a few Classical Authors fixed upon in the preceding January.

There are nine Sizars, called Proper Sizars, on Dr Dowman's Foundation, who have their Commons free, and usually hold Exhibitions. They are chosen from the other Sizars, (after a residence of, at least, three terms,) by the Master and Seniors, preference being usually given to those who have ranked high in the classes at the general examinations, and by their conduct have obtained the approbation of the College.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Five pounds to the best proficient in Moral Philosophy, among the commencing Bachelors of Arts, whose names have appeared in the list of honours. The examination, and decision of the prize, are usually before the publication of the first Tripos.

Those who are in the first class of the two general College examinations, one about the 16th of December, the other about the 1st of June, are entitled to a prize of books.

Those whose Themes, Verses, and Declamations, are thought deserving of notice, receive a similar reward.

There is also a Voluntary Classical Examination of those who are in their second and third years, at the beginning of the Easter Term; and such as distinguish themselves in this, and the two general Examinations of the same year, receive additional prizes of books.

About £100 is allotted annually for the above purposes.

The Rev. W. Wilson, B.D. formerly Fellow, has given prizes of books to the best readers of the Lessons in Chapel, whose general good conduct entitles them to the approbation of the College.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

Copies of the Statutes in the British Museum, Mss. Sloane. No. 659.—(Printed in the 5th Report of the House of Commons on Education, p. 363.) Mss. Harley, No. 3890. And in the University Library, Mss. Baker, Vol. xxix. p. 131. 179.—Vol. xxxi. p. 277.

THIS noble and magnificent College, the Mastership of which is in the appointment of the Crown, was originally endowed by King Henry VIII. and afterwards augmented by his daughter Queen Mary, for the maintenance of a Master, sixty Fellows, and sixty-nine Scholars.

The government of the College is vested in the Master and the eight senior Fellows; and to such of these as are absent, the resident Fellows next in seniority are considered as deputies, without any express appointment.

The Fellows of this Society are chosen from the Scholars, ineligible if M.A. or of sufficient standing to take that degree: there is no appropriation whatsoever: all are required to go into Priest's Orders within seven years after they commence Masters of Arts, except two, who are appointed by the Master, and permitted to remain Laymen. The one is supposed to study Law, the other Physic. The Scholarships are open to men of any county, but two or three are usually filled up annually by Scholars chosen from Westminster School; and one of £50 per annum, founded by Mr Newman, for a native of Kent and Cambridgshire alternately, at present held by Wickes, a native of Kent.

Of the value and number of the Exhibitions, the following is a statement.[1]

One, Lady Jermyn, £7. 10*s.* to the payment of which Scholarship a non-resident Bachelor is equally entitled. Appointed by the Master. Ds Waring.

1 Exhibitions marked † are paid by the Representatives of their respective founders.

One, Mr Elwes, £6 for a Scholar appointed by the Master.—W. Smith.

Five, Mr Perry, £10 per annum each, to Scholars from St Paul's School, London. If the number is incomplete, the £50 is shared equally amongst them.—Eddis, Wright, Stokes, Griffith, and Webb.

Three, Mr Jeston, £6. 13*s.* 4*d.* each, for poor scholars.—Thomas, Smith, and O. Robinson.

Lady Campden founded several exhibitions from St Paul's School to Trinity College, some of which are of £100 per annum, and others of £70 per annum: they are selected by examination from the Foundation Scholars of St Paul's School.

The present Campden exhibitioners of £100 per annum are,

Wright.	Burnaby.
Stokes.

The present Campden exhibitioners of £70 per annum are,

Alford.	Parker.
Ollivant.	Webb.

Various benefactions to the amount of £136 are consolidated and divided among the resident Sizars; to whom also all Noblemen pay two guineas, and Fellow-Commoners one guinea each per quarter.—There are also sixteen Sizars upon the foundation, who are entitled to commons, rooms, and the principal part of the emoluments: to these the supernumerary Sizars succeed in the order of their places in the classes at the annual Examinations.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

Dr Paris left a prize of £4 for the best Latin Declamation. The successful student delivers on the 6th of December (the day after the audit) a panegyric upon some illustrious character. A second Latin Declamation prize has been instituted by the College. —These prizes were last year adjudged to Hodson and Marsh.

Ds Hooper left three silver goblets as prizes, one of £20, the other two of £10 value each, for the three best English Declamations, upon subjects relating to the History of England. The person who gains the first prize, delivers on the Commemoration-day another Declamation on a general subject. Last year adjudged to Lord Napier, R. L. Ellis, and Empson.

1 Scholar of Trinity College.

Any Junior Bachelor of Arts who writes the best Essay on the conduct and character of King William III. is entitled to a prize of £10 left by Mr Greaves of Fulbourn.—Last year adjudged to Ds Eddis.

Two prizes have been instituted by the College, for the best compositions in Latin Verse, in Lyrical, Heroic, and Elegiac metres: a subject is proposed at the beginning of each term, and the prizes are awarded to the authors of the three Exercises the aggregate merits of which are considered the greatest.—Last year adjudged to F. A. Goulburn and Mansfield.

Dr Walker gave £10 to purchase books for one or more poor Scholars, who shall appear to the Master, Vice-Master, and Senior Dean, most deserving at the time of taking the Bachelor's degree. —Last year adjudged to Watt.

The best reader in Chapel receives £4, the second ditto £2, at the discretion of the Senior Dean.—Last year adjudged to Drew and Allan.

A prize has been instituted by the College for the best English Essay, on some Literary, Moral, or Antiquarian subject.—Last year adjudged to W. J. Butler.

Immediately after the division of the Easter Term, the Sophs, Junior Sophs, and Freshmen, are publicly examined in the hall, and divided into classes according to their respective merits; those who are in the first class of each year, are entitled to a prize of books, which are distributed on the Commemoration-day. The examiners are, the Head-Lecturer, the Greek, Latin, Greek Grammar, and Mathematical Lecturers, and the four Sub-Lecturers. The following are the respective first classes, as settled at the last Examination. The names are arranged alphabetically:—

EMMANUEL COLLEGE.

(Founded 1584.)

Copies of the Statutes in the British Museum.
Mss. Sloane, No. 1739.

THIS College was founded by Sir Walter Mildmay, Chancellor of the Exchequer and Privy Counsellor in the reign of Queen Elizabeth. The number of Foundation Fellowships is twelve; besides one founded by Mr Gillingham, the possessor of which receives a dividend arising from a distinct estate, but is in most other respects on an equality with the Foundation Fellows. These thirteen Fellowships are open to Englishmen of all counties, with this restriction, that there cannot be more than one Fellow of the same county at the same time; and no man can be a candidate till he has taken the degree of M.A., or is at least B.A. of the third year. He must be twenty-one years of age, and have been six years a member of the University. All the Fellows are obliged to proceed to the degrees of M.A. and B.D. as soon as they are of sufficient standing. The four Seniors are obliged to take Priest's Orders.

Beside these thirteen there are two on Sir Wolstan Dixie's foundation, who are obliged to proceed to their degrees equally with those on the original foundation, but they have no vote in any college affairs, nor any claim to the offices or dividends of the college. Candidates for these Fellowships must have taken the degree of B.A. and must be related to the founder, or have been educated at Market Bosworth School in Leicestershire. The heirs of the founder nominate and the College admits the nomination. There are likewise four Scholarships of Sir W. Dixie's foundation of £10 per annum, subject to the same restrictions.

The Foundation Scholarships are open to Englishmen of all counties; but there cannot be more than three Scholars of the same county, at the same time. The Scholars receive upwards of £12 per annum in addition to the weekly payment of 10*s.*

during residence[1]. Besides these there are many Scholarships and Exhibitions, founded by various benefactors, to be given to the candidates most distinguished for learning and exemplary conduct.

Five by Dr Thorpe, of £24 per annum, with a preference, cæteris paribus, to the sons of orthodox clergymen.

One by Mr Hubbard, of £12 per annum, to the best of Dr Thorpe's scholars.

Ten by Mr Ash, of £10 per annum.

Four by Archdeacon Johnson, of £24 per annum, with a preference to candidates from Oakham and Uppingham Schools.

One by Dr Smith, of £16 per annum, with a preference to Durham and Newcastle Schools.

Two by Mr Richards of £12 per annum, with a preference to Christ's Hospital. The Scholars receive an allowance towards the expense of their B.A. and M.A. degrees.

Four by Dr Whichcot, of 4*s.* per week during residence, who are entitled to the same privileges of those of the foundation.

One by Sir Busick Harwood, of £10 per annum, with a preference to a medical student.

Two by Lady Romney, of £12 per annum each.

Two by the Rev. J. Brown, of 7*s.* 6*d.* per week during residence.

There are likewise exhibitions founded by the Rev. H. Aspinall, Rev. W. Brauthwaite, Mr Hobbs, Lady G. Mildmaye, Mr. J. Wells, Mrs Titley, &c., which in addition to the former, are given to the most deserving candidates.

ANNUAL PRIZES.

At the division of the Easter Term, there is a general Examination of the Undergraduates, when a prize of Books is given to the best proficients in each year.

SIDNEY SUSSEX COLLEGE.

(Founded 1598.)

A Copy of the Statutes in the British Museum.
Mss. Cole, xlvi. p. 193.

At this College, founded by Lady Frances Sidney, Countess of Sussex, there are nine Foundation Fellowships, all open to the Natives of any part of her Majesty's dominions. Besides the Foundation Fellowships, there are two founded by Mr Peter Blundell appropriated to his scholars of this College; and one Fellowship founded by Leonard Smith, the nomination of which is vested in the Warden and Company of Fishmongers. The Blundell Fellowships are tenable for only ten years after the degree of M.A., but in other respects the Fellows have nearly the same privileges, authority, &c. as the Foundation Fellows.

A Mathematical Lecturership, present value £140 per annum, was founded by Mr Taylor. The Lecturership is not tenable with a Fellowship, but may be held by a layman.

This is a Divinity College, and all the Fellows of every description are obliged to take orders within three years from the time of their election, and the degree of Bachelor in Divinity, at the regular period prescribed by the University Statutes[1].

No Fellow of this College derives any benefit from his Fellowship unless he be a Master of Arts complete.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

Twenty Foundation Scholarships, perfectly open, value 7*s.* each per week during residence.

Two Scholarships founded by Mr Peter Blundell, appropriated to Scholars from Tiverton School.

EXHIBITIONS.

Archdeacon Johnson left four Exhibitions, now £20 per annum each, with preference to those educated at the Schools of Oakham or Uppingham, in Rutland.

1 Seven years after M.A.—Stat. Acad. p. 166.

Mr Lovett founded two Exhibitions for Clergymen's sons, now £45 per annum each. Preference is given to Candidates who have been three years at Grantham or Oakham School.

The College has also two Exhibitions, value £12 each per annum, from the Company of Haberdashers, and one of the value of £6 from the Company of Fishmongers.

Six Mathematical Exhibitions have been lately established on the foundation of Mr Taylor. The yearly value of each is £50 at least, with rooms in College rent free. The Exhibitions, as they become vacant, are given to those Undergraduates of the College who distinguish themselves in Mathematics at the annual College Examination at Midsummer.

If an Exhibitioner take a Wrangler's degree on the Mathematical Tripos, his exhibition is tenable till he is of sufficient standing to take the degree of M.A.

DOWNING COLLEGE.

(Founded Sept. 22, 1800.)

The Charter and Statutes are printed.

THIS College will consist of a Master, two Professors (one of the Laws of England and one of Medicine,) sixteen Fellows (two of which only are Clerical,) and six Scholars. The objects of the foundation are stated in the Charter to be students in Law, Physic, and other useful arts and learning. At present only the Master, Professors, and three Fellows, are appointed, for the purpose of taking possession of the estates, administering the revenues, superintending the building of the College, and for the other necessary purposes. The appointment of the remaining Fellows is reserved until after the erection of the buildings necessary for the College.

The Scholars will also be elected after that period; but not more than two in each year. There are also two Chaplains, nominated by the Master.

The Master is elected by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and the Masters of St John's and Clare Hall, from among those who are or have been Professors or Fellows. The electors to the Professorships are the same as to the Mastership, with the addition of the Master.

The Professor of Law must be, at the time of his election, LL.D. M.A or LL.B. of Cambridge or Oxford, of ten years' standing from matriculation, and a barrister at law. The Professor of Medicine must be M.A. licensed to practise Physic for two years, or M.D. or M.B. of Cambridge or Oxford, or a Member of a Scotch University of seven years' standing, and twenty-five years of age, and who shall have attended the medical lectures in one of the Scotch Universities for four years. The Professors are bound to read a course of lectures in their respective faculties, on the usual terms upon which public lectures are given in the University. The Professorships are not vacated by marriage, or by the possession of any property, and the Professors are capable of holding any of the lay offices in the College.

The electors to the Fellowships are, the Master, Professors, and Fellows of the degree of M.A. After the building of the College is completed, the elections will be annually on the 21st of February. All graduates of Cambridge or Oxford are eligible; but after the completion of the College, Lay Fellows must be under the age of 24, and Clerical Fellows under 30, and above 23, at the time of election. The only restriction is, that there shall never be eight Fellows natives of the same county at one time. While the College remains uncompleted, the elections to Fellowships are at uncertain times, depending upon the vacancies, and not subject to the conditions of the statutes.

The Clerical Fellowships will be tenable for life; and subject to residence for a certain part of each term. The lay Fellowships continue only for twelve years, and are not subject to any residence. Every Lay Fellow must declare either for Law or Physic. Those who declare for Law must be called to the bar within eight years after their election; and the Medical Fellows must take the degree of M.D. within two years after they are of sufficient standing. A Lay Fellow may also take orders after six years, without thereby vacating his Fellowship. Under certain circumstances, the four electors to the Mastership have a power to suspend the vacancy of a lay Fellowship; but this power is limited to two Fellows living at any one time.

The sole founder of this College was Sir George Downing, Bart.[1] of Gamlingay Park, in this county; who, by a will, dated 20th December, 1717, devised his estates in the counties of Cambridge, Bedford, and Suffolk, first to Sir Jacob Gerrard Downing, and afterwards to other relations in succession, and in failure thereof, to build and found a College in this University, upon a plan to be approved by the two Archbishops and the Masters of St John's and Clare Hall. This direction was the reason for giving them the power which they possess in elections and other matters, by the charter and statutes.

Sir George died in 1749, and Sir Jacob in 1764, and (the other devisees having previously died without issue) upon this event the foundation ought immediately to have been carried into execution. But the estates were in the possession of Lady Downing, and afterwards of her devisees, without any real title; and when the University sued in Chancery for the establishment of the College, the party in possession resisted the suit in that court. In 1769, a decree was obtained in favour of the foundation.

The persons named as trustees in the founder's will having died in his lifetime, the execution of the trusts devolved upon the heirs at law; who after combating a long series of opposition and litigation and overcoming obstacles of various descriptions, preferred a petition to the Crown for a Charter; and at length, in 1800, the Privy Council decided to recommend the foundation to his Majesty.

1 He was installed a Knight of the most Honourable Order of the Bath, June 30, 1732.

On the 22d of September, 1800, the Great Seal was affixed to the Charter by Lord Loughborough. By this Charter the College is incorporated, with all the privileges belonging to any College in the University, and endowed with the estate devised by the founder, with a power to hold landed property (in addition thereto) to the value of £1500 per annum.

The Charter directs statutes to be framed for the government of the College, which was done in July 1805, and shortly afterwards the stipends of the members began to be paid.

By the statutes, no beneficial leases of the College estates are allowed, nor any fine to be taken for a grant or renewal. It is also provided that no new foundation shall be ever engrafted on this College, which shall be inconsistent with the Charter and Statutes. But the College may accept any additions to their property in augmentation of the number or value of their present appointments, or to be applied in any other manner consistent with their present constitution.

There is also a power given to the four electors and the Master to alter the statutes, on application by a certain portion of the College.

The members appointed in the Charter were, Francis Annesley, LL.D. Master: Edward Christian, M.A. and Barrister, Law Professor; Buswick Harwood, M.D. Professor of Medicine; John Lens, Sergeant at Law, and M.A., William Meeke, Barrister, and M.A., and William Frere, B.A. Fellows.

The late Mr John Bowtell, of this town, who gave by his will a considerable property to charitable uses, bequeathed to Downing College a collection of books, manuscripts, fossils, and antiquities, with a request that the book-cases containing them might be placed in the college library. Among the manuscripts is a History of the Topography and Antiquities of this town, prepared for publication by Mr Bowtell.

A piece of land nearly thirty acres having been purchased for the site, and for grounds and walks, on the 18th of May, 1807, the first stone was laid; since which time the building has proceeded at intervals, at the expence of above £60,000. In 1821, buildings sufficient for opening the College, and comprizing nearly two sides of a large court, were completed; and in May, 1821, undergraduates were admitted to reside and keep Terms.

Two circles intersect in A and B; AD, AD' are diameters; AC, AC' are chords, each of which touches the circle of which it is not a chord; the line AEE' bisects the angle DAD' and cuts the circles in E and E'; then the common tangent to the circles is a mean proportional between the chords DE, $D'E'$; and their common chord (AB) is a mean proportional between the chords BC, BC'.

3. Three indefinite straight lines intersect in $A, B,$ and C; any other straight line cuts AB in C', BC in A', and CA in B';

11. If the instrument be perfect by which, in surveying, a series of points are laid down, from the observed angles which the distances between three stations in the same plane, whose positions are accurately known, subtend at each point; shew how an error in one of the observed angles affects the position of the point to be laid down. Prove that the displacement cannot be very great in comparison with the error of observation, unless the difference between the distances of two of the fixed stations be very small. Point out how, in a given position, to estimate the displacement caused by an error in the position of one of the fixed stations.

17. If tangent planes be drawn at the extremities of any chord to a surface of the second order, their intersection lies in the plane diametral to that chord; and if the chord be supposed always to pass through a given point, the locus of the intersections of the pairs of tangent planes will be a plane; also when the given point is external, this locus is the plane of contact of all tangent planes which pass through the point.

18. Prove that the Stereographic projection of the sphere gives a representation which is similar to the part represented, immediately about any assigned point, but that the scale (i. e. the ratio of any small line on the sphere to its projection); varies from point to point, and is $= \frac{1}{2}\sec^2\frac{\theta}{2}$, where θ is the angle subtended at the centre of the sphere, by the arc of a great circle drawn from the part represented to that pole of the primitive plane which is opposite to the eye.

Also shew that if ϕ be the angle made by a plane through each point to be represented and the axis, with a fixed plane through the axis, and if upon any plane a series of points be taken whose rectangular co-ordinates are where a and λ are any constants, a projection will be made possessing the above property, the scale being now $= \frac{a\lambda}{a}\frac{\left(\tan\frac{\theta}{2}\right)^{\lambda}}{\sin\theta}$, where a is the radius of the sphere.

centre of gravity; θ the angle r makes with the axis of rotation, ω the angle which the projection of r, upon the plane through the other principal axes, makes with one of them. Prove that if r be expanded in a series of Laplace's coefficients, in the form

$$a(1+\alpha Y^{(0)}+\alpha Y^{(1)}+\alpha Y^{(2)}+\alpha Y^{(3)}+\ldots\ldots),$$

Translate into Latin Hexameters and Pentameters:

The isles of Greece, the isles of Greece!
Where burning Sappho loved and sung,
Where grew the arts of war and peace,—
Where Delos rose, and Phœbus sprung!
Eternal summer gilds them yet,
But all, except their sun, is set.

The mountains look on Marathon—
And Marathon looks on the sea;
And musing there an hour alone,
I dream'd that Greece might still be free;
For standing on the Persians' grave,
I could not deem myself a slave.

A king sate on the rocky brow
Which looks o'er sea-born Salamis;
And ships, by thousands, lay below,
And men in nations;—all were his!
He counted them at break of day—
And when the sun set where were they?

Byron.

Into Latin Alcaics:

No war, or battle's sound
Was heard the world around:
The idle spear and shield were high up hung,
The hooked chariot stood,

Unstain'd with hostile blood,
The trumpet spake not to the armed throng,
And kings sat still with awful eye,
As if they surely knew their sovereign Lord was by.

But peaceful was the night,
Wherein the Prince of light
His reign of peace on the earth began:
The winds with wonder whist,
Smoothly the waters kiss'd,
Whisp'ring new joys to the mild ocean,
Who now hath quite forgot to rave,
While birds of calm sit brooding on the charmed wave.

YE eldest gods,
Who, mindful of the empire which ye held
Over dim Chaos, keep revengeful watch
On falling nations, and on kingly lines
About to sink for ever; ye, who shed
Into the passions of earth's giant brood
And their fierce usages the sense of justice;
Who clothe the fated battlements of tyranny
With blackness as a funeral pall, and breathe
Through the proud halls of time-embolden'd guilt
Portents of ruin, hear me!—In your presence,
For now I feel ye nigh, I dedicate
This arm to the destruction of the king
And of his race! O keep me pitiless;
Expel all human weakness from my frame,
That this keen weapon shake not when his heart
Should feel its point; and if he has a child
Whose blood is needful to the sacrifice
My country asks, harden my soul to shed it!

TALFOURD'S Ion, Act III. Sc. 2.

Into ANAPÆSTIC DIMETERS:

ALCIDES thus his race began,
O'er infancy he swiftly ran;
The future god at first was more than man:

Dangers and toils, and Juno's hate,
Even o'er his cradle lay in wait,
And there he grappled first with Fate:
In his young hands the hissing snakes he press'd;
So early was the deity confess'd:
Thus by degrees he rose to Jove's imperial seat;
Thus difficulties prove a soul legitimately great.

Collaque pulverea nudet equina juba.
Hic miserum Scythica sub rube Promethea radat:
Carnificem nudo pectore poscet avem.
Ad matrem fugiet Pentheus, ad Mænadas Orpheus:
Antiochi tantum barbara tela sonent.
Hæc quæcumque meo numeratis stigmata mento,
In vetuli pyctæ qualia fronte sedent,
Non iracundis fecit gravis unguibus uxor:
Antiochi ferrum est et scelerata manus.
Unus de cunctis animalibus hircus habet cor:
Barbatus vivit, ne ferat Antiochum.

Martial xi. 85. (84).

Hoc etiam in primis specimen verum esse videtur,
Quam celeri motu rerum simulacra ferantur:
Quod, simul ac primum sub diu splendor aquai
Ponitur, extemplo, cœlo stellante sereno,

Sidera respondent in aqua radantia mundi.
Jamne vides igitur, quam puncto tempore imago
Ætheris ex oris in terrarum accidit oras?
Qua re etiam atque etiam mira fateare necesse est
Corpora, quæ feriant oculos visumque lacessant,
Perpetuoque fluant certis ab rebus obortu;
Frigus ut a fluviis, calor ab sole, æstus ab undis
Æquoris, exesor mœrorum litora circum;
Nec variæ cessant voces volitare per auras;
Denique in os salsi venit humor sæpe saporis,
Quom mare vorsamur propter; dilutaque contra
Quom tuimur misceri absinthia, tangit amaror,
Usque adeo omnibus ab rebus res quæque fluenter
Fertur, et in cunctas dimittitur undique parteis;
Nec mora, nec requies inter datur ulla fluundi;
Perpetuo quoniam sentimus, et omnia semper
Cernere, odorari licet, et sentire sonare.
Præterea, quoniam manibus tractata figura
In tenebris quædam cognoscitur esse eadem, quæ
Cernitur in luce et claro candore; necesse est
Consimili causa tactum visumque moveri.
Nunc igitur, si quadratum tentamus, et id nos
Commovet in tenebris; in luci quæ poterit res
Accidere ad speciem, quadrata nisi ejus imago?
Esse in imaginibus quapropter causa videtur
Cernundi, neque posse sine his res ulla videri.
Nunc ea, quæ dico, rerum simulacra feruntur
Undique, et in cunctas jaciuntur didita parteis:
Verum, nos oculis quia solis cernere quimus,
Propterea fit, uti, speciem quo vortimus, omnes
Res ibi eam contra feriant forma atque colore.
Et, quantum quæque ab nobis res absit, imago
Efficit, ut videamus, et internoscere curat.
Nam quom mittitur, extemplo procudit agitque
Aera, qui inter se quomque est oculosque locatus;
Isque ita per nostras acies perlabitur omnis,
Et quasi perterget pupillas, atque ita transit.
Propterea fit, uti videamus, quam procul absit
Res quæque; et quanto plus aeris ante agitatur,
Et nostros oculos perterget longior aura,
Tam procul esse magis res quæque remota videtur.
Scilicet hæc summe celeri ratione geruntur,
Quale sit, ut videamus, et una, quam procul absit.

To be translated into Greek Prose:

While such was our conduct in all parts of the world, could it be hoped that any emigrant whose situation was not utterly desperate indeed, would join us; or that all who were lovers of their country more than lovers of royalty would not be our enemies? We have so shuffled in our professions, and have been guilty of such duplicity that no description of Frenchmen will flock to our standard. It was a fatal error in the commencement of the war that we did not state clearly how far we meant to enter into the cause of the emigrants, and how far to connect ourselves with powers who from their previous conduct might well be suspected of other views than that of restoring monarchy in France. It may perhaps be said that we could not be certain in the first instance how far it might be proper to interfere in the internal affairs of France; that we must watch events and act accordingly. But by this want of clearness with respect to our ultimate intentions we have lost more than any contingency could ever promise.

Fox.

E. Is not a thing said to be perfect in its kind, when it answers the end for which it was made? A. It is. E. The parts, therefore, in true proportions must be so related, and adjusted to one another, as that they may best conspire to the use and operation of the whole. A. It seems so.

E. But the comparing parts one with another, the considering them as belonging to one whole, and the referring this whole to its use or end, should seem the work of reason: should it not? A. It should. E. Proportions therefore are not, strictly speaking, perceived by the sense of sight, but only by reason through the means of sight. A. This I grant. E. Consequently beauty, in your sense of it, is an object, not of the eye, but of the mind. A. It is. E. The eye, therefore, alone cannot see that a chair is handsome, or a door well proportioned. A. It seems to follow; but I am not clear as to this point. E. Let us see if there be any difficulty in it. Could the chair you sit on, think you, be reckoned well proportioned or handsome, if it had not such a height, breadth, wideness, and was not so far reclined as to afford a convenient seat? A. It could not. E. The beauty, therefore, or symmetry of a chair cannot be apprehended but by knowing its use, and comparing its figure with that use, which cannot be done by the eye alone, but is the effect of judgment. It is therefore, one thing to see an object, and another to discern its beauty. A. I admit this to be true.

QUAM igitur pronuntiabit sententiam ratio, adhibita primum divinarum humanarumque rerum scientia, quæ potest appellari rite sapientia; deinde adjunctis virtutibus, quas ratio rerum omnium dominas, tu voluptatum satellites et ministras esse voluisti? quarum adeo omnium sententia pronuntiabit, primum de voluptate, nihil esse ei loci, non modo ut sola ponatu in summi boni sede, quam quærimus, sed ne illo quidem modo, ut ad honestatem applicetur. De vacuitate doloris eadem sententia erit. Rejicietur etiam Carneades; nec ulla de summo bono ratio aut voluptatis, non dolendive particeps, aut honestatis expers, probabitur. Ita relinque duas, de quibus etiam atque etiam consideret. Aut enim statuet, nihil esse bonum, nisi honestum; nihil malum, nisi turpe; cetera aut omnino nihil habere momenti, aut tantum, ut nec expetenda, nec fugienda, sed eligenda modo, aut rejicienda sint: aut anteponet eam, quam quum honestate ornatissimam, tum etiam ipsis initiis naturæ, et totius perfectione vitæ locupletatem videbit.

CICERO II. de Finibus, 12. (37—38).

Give the original signification of ratio: and trace its various secondary meanings, illustrating each by the corresponding term in Greek.

In what was the "summum bonum" supposed to consist by Hieronymus, by Carneades, by Callipho, and by Diodorus? Give a brief sketch of Cicero's arguments against the opinion of Epicurus on this subject. What was the exact difference, in this respect, between the Stoics and the Peripatetics?

NONDUM palustria attigimus, nec frutices amnium. Prius tamen quam digrediamur ab Ægypto, et papyri natura dicetur, cum chartæ usu maxime humanitas vitæ constet et memoria. Et hanc Alexandri Magni victoria repertam, auctor est M. Varro, condita in Egypto Alexandria. Antea non fuisse chartarum usum: in palmarum foliis primo scriptitatum: deinde quarundam arborum libris. Postea publica monumenta plumbeis voluminibus: mox et privata linteis confici cœpta, aut ceris. Pugillarium enim usum fuisse etiam ante Trojana tempora invenimus apud Homerum. Illo vero prodente, ne terra quidem ipsa, quæ nunc Ægyptus, intelligitur: (cum in Sebennytico saltem ejus nomo nonnisi charta nascatur:) postea adaggerata Nilo. Siquidem a Pharo insula, quæ nunc Alexandriæ ponte jungitur, noctis dieique velifico navigii cursu terram fuisse prodidit. Mox æmulatione circa bibliothecas regum Ptolemæi et Eumenis, supprimente chartas Ptolemæo, idem Varro membranas Pergami tradidit repertas. Postea promiscue patuit usus rei, qua constat immortalitas hominum. Papyrum ergo nascitur in palustribus Ægypti, aut quiescentibus Nili aquis, ubi evagatæ stagnant, duo cubita non excedente altitudine gurgitum, brachiali radicis obliquæ crassitudine, triangulis lateribus, decem non amplius cubitorum longitudine in gracilitatem fastigatum, thyrsi modo cacumen includens semine nullo, aut usu ejus alio, quam floris ad Deos coronandos. Radicibus incolæ pro ligno utuntur: nec ignis tantum gratia, sed ad alia quoque utensilia vasorum. Ex ipso quidam papyro navigia texunt: et e libro vela, tegetesque, necnon et vestem, etiam stragulam, ac funes. Mandunt quoque crudum, decoctumque, succum tantum devorantes. Nascitur et in Syria circa quem odoratus ille calamus, lacum.

PLINY, N. H. XIII. 21, 22.

When did Varro flourish? What are the subjects, and what is the general character, of his works?

What do you understand by "linteï" libri? "invenimus apud Homerum." Quote the passage referred to. "Varro membranas Pergami tradidit repertas." By what circumstance is this statement confirmed?

Why is "nascatur" in the Subjunctive mood? Explain generally the nature of this mood in Latin. Is it ever used where the Indicative would be employed in Greek or in English?

Quis deus in vestra constitit hostis aqua?
His pressus Stygias vultum demisit in undas,
Errat et in vestro spiritus ille lacu.
Quid genus, aut virtus, aut optima profuit illi
Mater, et amplexum Cæsaris esse focos?
Aut modo tam pleno fluitantia vela theatro,
Et per maternas omnia gesta manus?
Occidit! Et misero steterat vigesimus annus!
Tot bona tam parvo clausit in orbe dies!
I nunc, tolle animos, et tecum finge triumphos,
Stantiaque in plausum tota theatra juvent;
Attalicas supera vestes, atque omnia magnis
Gemmea sint ludis: ignibus usta dabis.
Sed tamen huc omnes, huc primus et ultimus ordo:
Est mala, sed cunctis ista terenda via est.
Exoranda canis tria sunt latrantia colla;
Scandenda est torvi publica cymba senis.
Ille licet ferro cautus se condat et ære,
Mors tamen inclusum protrahit inde caput.
Nirea non facies, non vis exemit Achillem,

Crœsum aut, Pactoli quas parit humor, opes.
Hic olim ignaros luctus populavit Achivos,
Atridæ magno quum stetit alter amor.

Translate into LATIN PROSE:

THE Argians were so uninformed that, upon the failure of spontaneous fountains, they often suffered for want of water; though the ground on which the city stood, abounded with excellent springs at little depth. Danaus taught them to dig wells. The boon was, in a hot climate particularly, of high importance. The temper of the Greeks was warm: admiration and gratitude became the ruling passions at Argos, and produced an inclination toward Danaus so violent, that Gelanor was constrained to admit him peaceably to plead his right to the sovereignty, before an assembly of the people, held for the purpose, in the fields without the city. The dispute, however, was so equally maintained, that it became necessary to defer the decision till the morrow. By daybreak, accordingly, the people were crowding out of the gate, when a wolf from the neighbouring mountains caught their attention, while he attacked a herd, grazing near the city wall, and killed the bull. This was taken as an omen declaring the divine will: the wolf was interpreted to signify the stranger, the bull their native prince, and the kingdom was adjudged to Danaus.

MITFORD, Hist. Greece, Ch. II. Sect. I.

THOUGH it is scarce possible to avoid judging, in some way or other, of almost every thing which offers itself to one's thoughts; yet it is certain, that many persons, from different causes, never exercise their judgement, upon what comes before them, in the way of determining whether it be conclusive, and holds. They are perhaps entertained with some things, not so with others; they like, and they dislike: but whether that which is proposed to be made out be really made out or not; whether a matter be stated according to the real truth of the case, seems to the generality of people merely a circumstance of no consideration at all. Arguments are often wanted for some accidental purpose: but proof as such is what they never want for themselves; for their own satisfaction of mind, or conduct in life. Not to mention the multitudes who read merely for the sake of talking, or to qualify themselves for the world, or some such kind of reasons; there are, even of the few who read for their own entertainment, and have a real curiosity to see what is said, several, which is prodigious, who have no sort of curiosity to see what is true.

ΜΕΤΑ ταῦτα δή, εἶπον, ἀπείκασον τοιούτῳ πάθει τὴν ἡμετέραν φύσιν παιδείας τε πέρι καὶ ἀπαιδευσίας· ἰδὲ γὰρ ἀνθρώπους οἷον ἐν καταγείῳ οἰκήσει σπηλαιώδει, ἀναπεπταμένην πρὸς τὸ φῶς τὴν εἴσοδον ἐχούσῃ μακρὰν παρ' ἅπαν τὸ σπήλαιον, ἐν ταύτῃ ἐκ παίδων ὄντας ἐν δεσμοῖς καὶ τὰ σκέλη καὶ τοὺς αὐχένας, ὥστε μένειν τε αὐτοὺς εἰς τε τὸ πρόσθεν μόνον ὁρᾷν κύκλῳ δὲ τὰς κεφαλὰς ὑπὸ τοῦ δεσμοῦ ἀδυνάτους περιάγειν, φῶς δὲ αὐτοῖς πυρὸς ἄνωθεν καί πόρρωθεν καόμενον ὄπισθεν αὐτῶν, μεταξὺ δὲ τοῦ πυρὸς καὶ τῶν δεσμωτῶν ἐπάνω ὁδόν, παρ' ἣν ἰδὲ τειχίον παρῳκοδομημένον, ὡς περ τοῖς θαυματοποιοῖς πρὸ τῶν ἀνθρώπων πρόκειται τὰ παραφράγματα ὑπὲρ ὧν τὰ θαύματα δεικνύασιν. Briefly illustrate this passage.

ΑΠΟΡΕΙΤΑΙ δ' εἰκότως ποτέροις χρεὼν ἕπεσθαι, ἀμφοῖν ἐχόντοιν τὸ πιστόν. Ἅπως οὖν τοὺς τοιούτους δεῖ τῶν λόγων διαιρεῖν καὶ διορίζειν ἐφ' ὅσον ἑκάτεροι καὶ πῇ ἀληθεύουσιν. Εἰ δὴ λάβοιμεν τὸ φίλαυτον πῶς ἑκάτεροι λέγουσιν, τάχ' ἂν γένοιτο δῆλον. Οἱ μὲν οὖν εἰς ὄνειδος ἄγοντες αὐτὸ φιλαύτους καλοῦσι τοὺς ἑαυτοῖς ἀπονέμοντας τὸ πλεῖον ἐν χρήμασι καὶ τιμαῖς καὶ ἡδοναῖς ταῖς σωματικαῖς· τούτων γὰρ οἱ πολλοὶ ὀρέγονται, καὶ ἐσπουδάκασι περὶ αὐτὰ ὡς ἄριστα ὄντα, διὸ καὶ περιμαχητά ἐστιν. Οἱ δὴ περὶ ταῦτα πλεονέκται χαρίζονται ταῖς ἐπιθυμίαις καὶ ὅλως τοῖς πάθεσι καὶ τῷ ἀλόγῳ τῆς ψυχῆς. Τοιοῦτοι δ' εἰσὶν οἱ πολλοί· διὸ καὶ ἡ προσηγορία γεγένηται ἀπὸ τοῦ πολλοῦ φαύλου ὄντος. Δικαίως δὴ τοῖς οὕτω φιλαύτοις ὀνειδίζεται. Ὅτι δὲ τοὺς τὰ τοιαῦθ' αὑτοῖς ἀπονέμοντας εἰώθασι λέγειν οἱ πολλοὶ φιλαύτους, οὐκ ἄδηλον· εἰ γάρ τις ἀεὶ σπουδάζοι τὰ δίκαια πράττειν αὐτὸς μάλιστα πάντων ἢ τὰ σώφρονα ἢ ὁποιαοῦν ἄλλα τῶν κατὰ τὰς ἀρετάς, καὶ ὅλως ἀεὶ τὸ καλὸν ἑαυτῷ περιποιοῖτο, οὐθεὶς ἐρεῖ τοῦτον φίλαυτον οὐδὲ ψέξει. Δόξειε δ' ἂν ὁ τοιοῦτος μᾶλλον εἶναι φίλαυτος· ἀπονέμει γοῦν ἑαυτῷ τὰ κάλλιστα καὶ μάλιστ' ἀγαθά, καὶ χαρίζεται ἑαυτοῦ τῷ κυριωτάτῳ, καὶ πάντα τούτῳ πείθεται· ὥσπερ δὲ καὶ πόλις τὸ κυριώτατον μάλιστ' εἶναί δοκεῖ καὶ πᾶν ἄλλο σύστημα, οὕτω καὶ ἄνθρωπος· καὶ φίλαυτος δὴ μάλιστα ὁ τοῦτο ἀγαπῶν καὶ τούτῳ χαριζόμενος. Καὶ ἐγκρατὴς δὲ καὶ ἀκρατής λέγεται τῷ κρατεῖν τὸν νοῦν ἢ μή, ὡς τούτου ἕκαστον ὄντος· καὶ πεπραγέναι δοκοῦσιν αὐτοὶ καὶ ἑκουσίως τὰ μετὰ λόγου μάλιστα. Ὅτι μὲν οὖν τοῦθ' ἕκαστός ἐστιν ἢ μάλιστα, οὐκ ἄδηλον, καὶ ὅτι ὁ ἐπιεικὴς μάλιστα τοῦτ' ἀγαπᾷ. Διὸ φίλαυτος μάλιστ' ἂν εἴη, καθ' ἕτερον εἶδος τοῦ ὀνειδιζομένου, καὶ διαφέρων τοσοῦτον ὅσον τὸ κατὰ λόγον ζῆν τοῦ κατὰ πάθος, καὶ ὀρέγεσθαι τοῦ καλοῦ ἢ τοῦ δοκοῦντος συμφέρειν.

ARIST. Eth. Nic. Lib. IX. 8.

Shew the importance, in an Ethical point of view, of the distinction here drawn by Aristotle.

What English word would correspond to φιλαυτία if taken in a bad sense? and what if not so taken?

ΓΙ οὖν λέγω καὶ πόθεν ἄρχομαι κατηγορεῖν; τοῦ ποιουμένης τὴν πόλεως εἰρήνην Φιλοκράτει συνειπεῖν, ἀλλὰ μὴ τοῖς τὰ βέλτιστα γράφουσι, καὶ τοῦ ἆρα εἰληφέναι, τοῦ μετὰ ταῦτα ἐπὶ τῆς ὑστέρας πρεσβείας τοὺς χρόνους κατατρίψαι καὶ μηδὲν ὧν προσετάξαθ' ὑμεῖς ποιῆσαι, τοῦ φενακίσαι τὴν πόλιν, καὶ παραστήσαντα ἐλπίδας, ὡς ὅσα βουλόμεθ' ἡμεῖς Φίλιππος πράξει, πάντ' ἀπολωλεκέναι, τοῦ μετὰ ταῦθ' ἑτέρων προλεγόντων φυλάττεσθαι τὸν τοσαῦτα ἠδικηκότα, τοῦτον ἐκείνῳ συνηγορεῖν. ταῦτα κατηγορῶ, ταῦτα μέμνησθε, ἐπεὶ δικαίαν εἰρήνην καὶ ἴσην καὶ μηδὲν πεπρακότας ἀνθρώπους μηδὲ ψευσαμένους ὕστερον κἂν ἐπήνουν καὶ στεφανοῦν ἐκέλευον. στρατηγὸς δ' εἴ τις ἠδίκηχ' ὑμᾶς, οὐχὶ κοινωνεῖ ταῖς νῦν εὐθύναις. ποῖος γὰρ στρατηγὸς Ἅλον, τίς δὲ Φωκέας ἀπολώλεκε; τίς δὲ Δορίσκον; τίς δὲ Κερσοβλέπτην; τίς δὲ Ἱερὸν ὄρος; τίς δὲ Πύλας; τίς δὲ πεποίηκεν ἄχρι τῆς Ἀττικῆς ὁδὸν διὰ συμμάχων καὶ φίλων εἶναι Φιλίππῳ; τίς δὲ Κορώνειαν, τίς δ' Ὀρχομενόν, τίς δ' Εὔβοιαν ἀλλοτρίαν; τίς Μέγαρα πρῶην ὀλίγου; τίς Θηβαίους ἰσχυρούς; τούτων γὰρ οὐδὲν τοσούτων καὶ τηλικούτων ὄντων διὰ τοὺς στρατηγοὺς ἀπώλετο, οὐδ' ἐν τῇ εἰρήνῃ συγχωρηθὲν πεισθέντων ὑμῶν ἔχει Φίλιππος, ἀλλὰ διὰ τούτους ἀπόλωλε καὶ τὴν τούτων ὠροδοκίαν.

Demosth. F. Leg. 448.

Explain the Historical allusions in this passage. How many years after the commencement of war between Philip and the Athenians does the Oration from which it is taken appear to have been delivered? What are the peculiar excellencies of the style of Demosthenes as an Orator?

ΕΙΣΙ δὲ οἳ ἐπ' αὐτῷ τούτῳ κατέαται, καὶ τέχνην ἔχουσι ταύτην. οὗτοι ἐπεάν σφι κομισθῇ νεκρὸς, δεικνύασι τοῖσι κομίσασι παραδείγματα νεκρῶν ξύλινα, τῇ γραφῇ μεμιμημένα. καὶ τὴν μὲν σπουδαιοτάτην αὐτέων φασὶ εἶναι, τοῦ οὐκ ὅσιον ποιεῦμαι τὸ οὔνομα ἐπὶ τοιούτῳ πρήγματι ὀνομάζειν. τὴν δὲ δευτέρην δεικνύασι ὑποδεεστέρην τε ταύτης καὶ εὐτελεστέρην· τὴν δὲ τρίτην, εὐτελεστάτην. φρασάντες δὲ, πυνθάνονται παρ' αὐτῶν κατὰ ἣν τινα βούλονταί σφι σκευασθῆναι τὸν νεκρόν. οἱ μὲν δὴ ἐκποδὼν, μισθῷ ὁμολογήσαντες, ἀπαλλάσσονται. οἱ δὲ ὑπολειπόμενοι ἐν οἰκήμασι, ὥδε τὰ σπουδαιότατα ταριχεύουσι. πρῶτα μὲν σκολιῷ σιδήρῳ διὰ τῶν μυξωτήρων ἐξάγουσι τὸν ἐγκέφαλον, τὰ μὲν αὐτοῦ οὕτω ἐξάγοντες, τὰ δὲ ἐγχέοντες φάρμακα, μετὰ δὲ, λίθῳ Αἰθιοπικῷ ὀξεῖ παρασχίσαντες παρὰ τὴν λαπάρην, ἐξ ὧν εἶλον τὴν κοιλίην πᾶσαν· ἐκκαθήραντες δὲ αὐτὴν, καὶ διηθήσαντες οἴνῳ φοινικίῳ, αὗτις διηθέουσι θυμιήμασι τετριμμένοισι. ἔπειτα τὴν νηδὺν σμύρνης ἀκηράτου τετριμμένης, καὶ κασίης, καὶ τῶν ἄλλων θυωμάτων, πλὴν λιβανωτοῦ, πλήσαντες, συῤῥάπτουσι ὀπίσω. ταῦτα δὲ ποιήσαντες, ταριχεύουσι λίτρῳ, κρύψαντες ἡμέρας ἑβδομήκοντα· πλεῦνας δὲ τουτέων οὐκ ἔξεστι ταριχευιν. ἐπεὰν δὲ παρέλθωσι αἱ ἑβδομήκοντα, λούσαντες τὸν νεκρὸν, κατειλίσσουσι πᾶν αὐτοῦ τὸ σῶμα σινδόνος βυσσίνης τελαμῶσι κατατετμημενοισι, ὑποχρίοντες τῷ κόμμι, τῷ δὴ ἀντὶ κόλλης τὰ πολλὰ χρέωνται Αἰγύπτιοι. ἐνθεῦτεν δὲ παραδεξάμενοί μιν οἱ προσήκοντες, ποιεῦνται ξύλινον τύπον ἀνθρωποειδέα· ποιησάμενοι δὲ, ἰσεργνῦσι τὸν νεκρόν· καὶ κατακληΐσαντες οὕτω, θησαυρίζουσι ἐν οἰκήματι θηκαίῳ, ἱστάνες ὀρθὸν πρὸς τοῖχον. οὕτω μὲν τοὺς τὰ πολυτελέστατα σκευάζουσι νεκροὺς. HEROD. Lib. II. 86.

How far has the account here given by Herodotus been confirmed by modern observations? ποιεῦνται ξύλινον τύπον. Explain, and give similar instances of, the force of the middle voice ποιεῦνται in this place. Mention the various Ionisms which occur in this extract. Shew particularly how the cases of nouns are affected by the Ionic dialect: and point out the connection which exists between the Greek and the Latin declensions of nouns.

UNIVERSITY LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY.

INCORPORATED BY ROYAL CHARTER.

CAPITAL £600,000.

ASSURANCES may be effected on the Lives of all persons whose names are, or have been, during any period, however short, on the Books or Boards of any College or Hall, at either of the Universities of OXFORD or CAMBRIDGE.

Assurances may be effected on the Lives of such persons against the Lives of any person whatsoever.

A division of PROFITS is made every five years, and four-fifths appropriated to the Assured, either by a proportionate diminution of premium; by an increase in the amount of the Policy; or by a present payment of the value in money; at the option of the Party.

The Society will be always ready to purchase, from the party in possession, any unexpired Policy, or the additions thereon;—or to lend the value of both at interest, on the deposit of the Policy with the Society.

Proposals for Assurances to be addressed to the SECRETARY, or to JOHN WRAY, Esq. Chairman of the Committee, at the Office of the Society, No. 24, Suffolk Street, Pall Mall East, London; or to the Corresponding Directors, the Rev. J. W. HUGHES, Oxford, or H. GUNNING, Esq. Cambridge, from whom proposals may be obtained.

N.B. The Total Additions to Policies, made by the UNIVERSITY LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY, in the years 1830 and 1835, amount on a Policy for £1000, as follows:—

If it has been effected	6	years, to the sum of	£120	} The present value of which sums,
. .	7	. .	140	payable in money, amount on an
. .	8	. .	160	average to more than 25 per cent.
. .	9	. .	180	of the premiums paid for the re-
. .	10	. .	200	spective periods.

In the event of death before the next division of Profits in 1840, one per cent. will be added for each year after 1835.

In June, 1840, the 3d Quinquennial division of Profit will be made, in which all Policies, that then shall have existed five years, will be entitled to share.

 It should be particularly observed, that Policies, effected during the present year, ending 1st May, 1840, will be in time to participate fully in the division of Profit, which will be made in 1845.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

PERSONS wishing to effect an ASSURANCE must state the Name, Residence, and Profession, of the Party on whose behalf the ASSURANCE is proposed, and of the Party whose Life is proposed to be Assured; the College at which the latter party has been entered; the place and date of birth; the age next birth-day; whether married or single; whether he has resided abroad, and if so, where, and for what period; whether he has been employed in the military or naval service; whether he has had the small-pox.

the cow-pox, or the gout; whether he has been, since his childhood, afflicted with rupture, fits, insanity, dropsy, asthma, or spitting of blood; whether, during the last seven years, he has been afflicted with any severe or constitutional disease or disorder; the sum proposed to be assured; and the term for which the ASSURANCE is required.

Reference must also be given to two respectable persons for information as to his present and general state of health, one of whom must be (if possible) the medical person who has usually attended him.

A declaration, as to all the points contained in the above statement, will form the basis of the contract between the ASSURED and the SOCIETY; and should any untrue allegation be contained in such declaration, the Policy will become void, and all payments of premium made on it will become forfeited.

The DIRECTORS have the power of fixing the premium in every case, where any extra risk may attend the Life to be ASSURED. Policies will not be considered to be in force beyond 30 days after the expiration of the year, unless the Premium then due shall have been paid to the Society. But should proof be given to the satisfaction of the DIRECTORS, that a party whose life has been Assured continues in good health, the Policy may be revived at any time within six months, on the payment of a fine, to be fixed by the COURT OF DIRECTORS, not exceeding ten shillings per cent. on the sum Assured; or at any period within 13 months, on the payment of such fine as the COURT OF DIRECTORS may think reasonable.

Policies will become void, if the parties whose Lives have been ASSURED shall go beyond the limits of Europe, or shall die at sea; (unless in passing direct from one part of the United Kingdom to another, or in passing from any part of the United Kingdom, in time of peace, to and from any part of the Continent situate between the Elbe and Brest, in steam or other decked vessels;) or being or becoming a military or naval man, shall be called into actual service; unless, in each case, permission shall have been granted by the DIRECTORS, which may be obtained on such parties attending personally, to give every requisite explanation, and paying a premium adequate to the extra risk, to be settled by the Directors.

ASSURANCES made by persons on their own lives, will become void if they die at any time by their own act, whether in a state of lunacy or otherwise, or by duelling, within a twelvemonth after the ASSURANCE is effected, or by the hands of justice. But if any person who has effected an ASSURANCE on his own life shall die by his own hands, and not be felo-de-se, the DIRECTORS shall, if they think proper to make any payment, be at liberty to pay any sum, according to their discretion, not exceeding what would have been payable in the event of natural death.

Policies may be assigned by a separate deed, without making any endorsement on the Policy, or giving any notice to the Office.

The time for payment of claims is within three calendar months, after the proof of the death of the parties whose Lives are the subjects of the ASSURANCE.

Extract from the Minutes of the Court of Directors of the University Life Assurance Society, held on the 27th of November, 1839.

RESOLVED, "That in future all persons whose lives are ASSURED in this Office for the whole period of life (not being seafaring persons by occupation) may go by the Sea, during peace, without obtaining a license from the Court of Directors, and without paying any Additional Premium, from any part of Europe to any other part of Europe; and that their respective Policies shall not be forfeited in case of their dying upon the Seas under such circumstances."
